

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

Fresh ice cream every day at the Palm.

Try our sundaes, the best in the city—the Palm.

Ernest Higgs of Ione was a Monday visitor in Heppner.

We have an abundance of old papers for sale at this office.

Willard Blake, deputy assessor, was in the city from Ione on Monday.

Wm. Haylor spent the past week visiting with relatives and friends in Portland.

James Luper of Heppner Flat was a business caller in this city on Monday.

A. L. Ayers was down from Parker's Mill on Tuesday to look after business affairs.

W. P. Scrivener purchased a brand new Ford from Albert Bowker at the Heppner garage this week.

Thos. Marlatt has rented his farm just above town to Levi Morgan. Mr. Marlatt has rented a house in town.

George Flint, a prominent young business man of Lexington, was transacting business in this city on Monday.

Cecil Hale returned to Heppner last Monday evening after spending several months at Marshfield with his mother.

Lowney Sprinkles departed for Spokane on Tuesday after visiting at the home of Lee Cantwell for the past three weeks.

Ed. Farnsworth and wife of Rhea Siding, visited at the home of O. E. Farnsworth in this city the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Howard, of Ione, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nash, were visitors in Heppner on Saturday, doing some Easter trading.

Sam Hughes returned home from Portland Tuesday evening after spending a week in the metropolis buying goods for the Sam Hughes Company.

We would call your attention to the advertisement of E. G. Erskine, well-driller, in another column of this paper. Mr. Erskine is a recent arrival at Lexington.

Carpenters are rapidly putting up a building for D. C. Wells on his lots west of the Masonic building. Clyde is to use this house to care for his second-hand business.

The Hewetts departed Monday for Boise, Idaho, after a week's engagement at the Star theater. They expect to give their shows in Colorado during the summer months.

C. A. Minor shipped a car of fine fat cattle from the Heppner yards on Thursday last. They were pronounced the best bunch of fat stuff shipped out from Heppner in many a day.

S. E. Notson, superintendent of schools of Morrow county, departed for Spokane on Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Inland Empire Teachers' Association, which convenes there this week.

Miss Ruth Bewley, of Ione, has accepted a position with Thomson Bros., as clerk in their department store. Miss Bewley held a similar position with the Walker Estate in Ione for a number of years.

W. A. Richardson, local postmaster, has purchased from J. B. Sparks, the local agent, a Studebaker 5. This car is one of the late models, of which many have been sold throughout the Northwest this Spring.

Ben Moore and wife were in from Butter creek on Saturday. Mr. Moore was lamenting the loss of a fine colt but a week or two old. The colt crowding in front of the wagon was run over and its leg broken and it had to be killed.

Dr. A. K. Higgs of Portland spent a few days in Heppner the first of the week on business. Dr. Higgs has thrown his hat into the political arena, and will seek the Democratic nomination for state representative from Multnomah county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stevens were in from Hardman on Tuesday. This office acknowledges a pleasant call from these people who are among the prosperous farmers of that section. They anticipate an abundant harvest this fall, judging from present flattering prospects.

John Fox, special agent of the Home Insurance Company, with offices in Portland, paid Heppner an official visit yesterday. Mr. Fox was a comrade in the Philippines with our local banker, T. J. Mahoney, both serving in the same South Dakota regiment.

Dalles Optimist: Seth Morgan, who suffered a paralytic stroke in Portland a few weeks ago, was brought to The Dalles Saturday by train and upon arrival here was met by an ambulance and conveyed to his home on East 13th street. He was accompanied to The Dalles by his wife, his daughter, Miss Rachel, and B. A. Gifford. Mr. Morgan is still without the use of his right side but is slowly improving in health.

The games scheduled for last Friday afternoon but postponed on account of rain, will be played at the association grounds tomorrow afternoon. The first game will start promptly at 2 o'clock. The Fats and Leans will battle first and their struggle will be followed immediately by the married men and the singles. Come out and see some fun.

S. T. Goff celebrated his sixty-seventh birthday on the seventh of this month, and rejoices over the fact that he never enjoyed better health in his life. Mr. Goff is sure that no country can put us in the shade when it comes to climate, and we are sure that he is right in his conclusions.

Frank Roberts boasts the possession of the starter of the Heppner creamery. It is a Jersey heifer, 11 months old, that is expected to drop a calf any day now. For a fact she is about the smallest thing in the cow line ever seen here, but gives promise of being a splendid milk producer.

Echo Cor. in Pendleton E. O.: Mrs. Bob Shaw, formerly of Heppner, but now of Calgary, Alberta, B. C., is here on a visit to the homes of her brothers, Claude Sloan of this place and Frank Sloan of Stanfield. Mrs. Shaw is accompanied by her nephew, Master Frank Sloan.

Dalles Optimist: Tom Morgan of Heppner was a visitor in The Dalles the first of the week, called here by the illness of his brother, Seth Morgan.

Rev. H. A. Van Winkle returned on Friday from a visit of ten days at the home of his mother at Barlow, Ore., and other Valley points.

Col. C. C. Boone, of Lexington, was a visitor in Heppner Friday.

The wool-buying season in Wallowa county, according to the Record-Chief, has opened with the contracting of five considerable clips. The price, which was not given out, was substantially above last year's figures. All spring the growers have been holding off for higher prices, and the fact that contracts have been made indicate that they and the buyers have met and both are satisfied.

The winter just ended, continues the report, was very mild, with abundance of feed and sheep are in prime condition.

320 ACRES FOR SALE

One hundred and thirty acres in cultivation, plenty of running water, all fenced. Fair buildings, 190 acres of good pasture, 20 acres in alfalfa 30 acres more than can be put in alfalfa. 130 acres in wheat and oats goes with this place. $20 per acre buys this place four miles from Heppner. One-half cash, balance terms to suit. Smead and Crawford.

The Canny Scot.

A commercial traveler had taken a large order in the north for a consignment of hardware and endeavored to press upon the canny Scottish manager who had given the order a box of Havana cigars. "Naw," he replied. "Don't try to bribe a man. I cudna tak them—and I am a member of the kirk!" "But will you accept them as a present?" "I cudna," said the Scot. "Well, then," said the traveler, "suppose I sell you the cigars for a merely nominal sum—say, sixpence?" "Weel, in that case," replied the Scot, "since you press me and not liking to refuse an offer weel meant, I think I'll be taking twa boxes."

A Movable Feast.

A westerner attending a Rhode Island clambake for the first time suddenly became aware that he was not quite so comfortable as he had been at the beginning. "Look here," he said to Senator A., his neighbor at the table; "you are a native and know the rules of the game. I don't. Now, I'd like to know when to stop eating." "Well," responded the senator, with a smile, "my rule is this—I seat myself at the start exactly four inches from the table, and when I feel myself touching it I know it is time to move back."

In the older days of the Harvard Medical school, when funds were scarce and professors scarcer, Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes was the lecturer on anatomy, physiology, medical chemistry and a few other subjects.

One day the president of the college met him on the street and congratulated him on his then recent election to a professional chair of medicine.

"Chair!" exclaimed the doctor. "You're mistaken, my dear sir. It isn't a chair that I occupy; it's a whole settee."

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR MORROW COUNTY.

Amy D. Crawford, Plaintiff, vs. Emery O. Crawford, Defendant.

To Emery O. Crawford, Defendant:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of Plaintiff filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before six weeks of the date of first publication of this summons, and if you fail so to appear or answer for want thereof, Plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in her complaint filed herein, which is as follows:
