LEXINGTON ITEMS

Miss Ethel Picketts is entertaining a friend from Heppner this week.

Born—On last Thursday morning to the wife of Clark Davis, a daughter.

Dan Summers is blasting out the side of the hill on his town property, and will erect a barn.

Some sneak thief entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Way. Beyond opening a letter belonging to Mrs. Way, no other damage was done.

The well drillers had a streak of bad luck because they lost a bunch of tools down the hole where they were drilling at Nealy White's.

Don't forget the meeting of Farmers' Union next Saturday with a basket dinner, and a general good time.

The spelling contest held at Ione on Friday was attended by some from Lexington, who were not very well pleased. Full particulars could not be obtained.

One of the Miller boys, while employed by O. S. Hodson was seriously injured by an enraged bull. The boy was rescued by Bert Smith, but not before he had received a broken leg and other injuries.

We see the Socialists of Morrow County have their ticket out for the coming election on May 15th, with two of our citizens on it. W. R. Munkers is running for treasurer and D. A. Porter is seeking the nomination for coroner.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Keene died on Monday morning at 8 o'clock. The child was only a few days old. The funeral was held about 5 o'clock in the evening of the same day. Mrs. Keene was formerly Miss Anne Campbell. The sorrowful parents have the sympathy of the community in the loss of this, their first child.

There was not a very large crowd in attendance at the entertainment given for the benefit of the Home Mission Society on Friday night on account of the threatening weather. The entire program was very well given and we are sorry that there was not a larger crowd present. About $26.00 was taken in from the sale of tickets.

FOREST NOTES.

China imports wood pulp from Great Britain, Sweden, Norway, and Germany.

The highest mountain in Montana, Granite Peak, with an altitude of nearly 13,000 feet, is in the Bear-tooth national forest.

Norway has 144 tree planting societies. The first was founded in 1909, and since then 26 million trees have been planted, more than two million having been set out last year.

In many parts of the west the snow is leaving the mountains earlier than usual. Foresters say that this may mean a bad fire season, and they are making plans for a hard campaign.

New Jersey is said to have the greatest proportion of railroad mileage of any state in the country, or one mile of railroad to every three square miles of territory. This makes an unusual risk of forest fires set by railroads.

The heavy storms in southern California during the past rainy season wiped out many miles of trails in the national forests of that part of the state. They are now being rebuilt for the coming summer, for use in fire protection. They are also of great use to tourists, campers, and prospectors.

The city of Heppner has some extensive street improvements under way in the south end of town. The old bridge which formerly crossed Willow creek on South Court street, has been moved over to cross the creek at Cannon street. A new bridge is being constructed on Court. Cannon street will be graded and put in first class condition, having been unused since the Heppner flood, eleven years ago.
