Albert Adkins was in from Rhea creek on Tuesday.

See us before buying your years supply of flour. We can save you money. HEPPNER MILLING CO.

Jack McCullough of upper Willow creek, transacted business in this city on Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. D. M. Ward visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. T. Knappenberg, in Ione on Saturday.

Albert Slocum returned from Portland Friday evening, after spending several days in the metropolis with his family.

R. F. Wiglesworth and wife were in Heppner from their Butter creek ranch on Monday and attended the I. O. O. F. anniversary exercises.

Mrs. James Burnside and Miss Viva Jones departed on Monday for Pendleton and will spend some time visiting in that city.

About three inches of snow fell on the Heppner foothills last Sunday evening. It did not last long when the sun came out the next morning.

Wm. Hughes of Portland, came up from that city last Saturday to look after business interests which he holds in Morrow county.

J. T. Knappenberg, Wes McNabb, J. A. Waters, Walt Smith, Frank Engleman and W. H. Cronk were Ione boosters in Heppner on Saturday afternoon to attend the Creamery Association meeting.

Frank J. Haybelt, section foreman on the west end of the Heppner branch with headquarters at Rhea Siding, was a visitor in Heppner on Monday to enjoy the celebration of the Odd Fellows.

A pick-up nine from Heppner went to Lexington last Sunday and defeated the ball tossers in that town by a 22 to 0 score. Blakely did the pitching for Heppner and the score indicates that he received good support from his team mates.

The Heppner Base Ball Association is arranging for games with Umatilla and The Dalles to be played here within the next month. The first game will probably be played about the 8th of May.

Roscoe Day, formerly a resident of this vicinity, is here from St. Johns, Oregon, where he now resides. He came to attend the funeral of the late D. M. Potter, a brother-in-law, and remained for several days to visit with old-time friends.

The married men defeated their bachelor brothers in a slow five inning game at the association grounds on Friday afternoon. The score stood 9 to 6 at the end of the game. Dr. Allison twirled for the married men and Bill Fisk pitched for the singles.

Gil R. Jones and Warren Ashbaugh, two former Morrow county residents are now located at North Yakima, Wash., where they are engaged in doing carpenter work. Mr. Jones writes this paper that they are doing well and like the Yakima valley very much.

Jack Mills and wife and son and Mrs. George Swagart were up from Jordan Siding on Monday evening to attend the I. O. O. F. anniversary celebration. The Swagart ranch gives promise of a large yield of fruit this season, and up to date no injury has been suffered by these people.

Lee Slocum came down from the Willow creek saw mill on Friday, suffering with a badly inflamed eye. He was unfortunate enough to get hit in the eye with a whip and the injury required the attention of a physician. No serious results are expected, however, and aside from the necessity of keeping the eye under cover for a time, Mr. Slocum is suffering no inconvenience.

Improvements are going on apace in Heppner. Clyde and Dick Wells this week added to the attractiveness of their barber shop by the installing of three new chairs of latest design, these taking the place of those used for a number of years. Being all alike, they add to the harmony of the shop. The boys are contemplating still further improvements to the interior of their shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vaughn, Mrs. F. P. Vaughn and Leonard Gilliam, and Spencer Akers and family started on a trip to Goldendale, Wash., last Saturday morning. While nearing the railroad crossing at Ione the Vaughn car met with an accident and one front wheel went off so crippling the machine that the trip had to be abandoned. Mr. Akers brought the people back to Heppner, having to make a couple of trips for it, and then he and his family proceeded on to Pendleton. The other car was repaired and brought back to town on Sunday.

Fresh ice cream every day at the Palm.

Oscar Minor made a shipment of six Poland China sows to Roy C. Brock, a farmer of the Hood River valley, on Monday morning.

Mrs. Clarence Rice of near Hardman, was visiting at the home of Dan Rice in this city Tuesday. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Grace Bellenbrock.

Our "devil" made a mistake a week ago which we wish to call to the attention of our readers. The political announcement of R. F. Fraser was set to read, "To the Republican Voters" and should have read, "To the Democratic Voters."

ALASKAN TOURS. This is my ninth consecutive year in tours to and through Alaska. Join my personally conducted party or let me arrange your trip and give you the benefit of special rates. Write for descriptive literature. Mrs. A. H. Carlisle, 708 Selling Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

We call your attention to the serial which begins with this issue in our farm and home magazine section. "A Fool and His Money" by George Barr McCutcheon, the well known novelist, is the story that will come to you weekly hereafter. Start with the beginning and don't miss any of it.

McCullough brothers, who are extensive sheepman on upper Willow creek, have been obliged to enclose their corrals with wire netting to protect their sheep from cougars. These men have lost several sheep this year by the cougar route. The cougars would grab their prey from outside the corral and then eat it through the openings in the panels.

C. A. Minor was one good roads enthusiast who did not let the bad weather on Monday decrease his enthusiasm. He put his men on the road with a scraper and worked the highway from the main gate on the Hager farm to the middle of Walter Bray's place. The work was effective and Mr. Minor should receive due credit.

Spencer Akers and family autoed to Pendleton on Saturday on a visit to the family of L. M. Akers, a brother. They returned on Sunday and encountered pretty severe showers on the way. Mr. Akers made note of the fact that he saw no better crops about Pendleton than we have over this way, and much of the grain over that way is not so good as that in the Lexington section.

J. H. Cox has been busy the past week raising the old building at the plant of the Heppner Light & Water Co. This is done for the purpose of putting under it a new concrete foundation. The company is busy now on the work and it is their intention to thoroughly overhaul and rebuild the machinery so that it will be practically good as new. This will take a few weeks yet and then the day current will be turned on.

DOG TAX DUE TODAY.

All owners of canines within the limits of the City of Heppner will take note of the fact that they are required to pay a license of $1.00 for each member of the dog family claiming their protection. That license is due today, April 30, and should be paid either to Recorder Williams or Marshal McCraw. Failure to pay this tax means death to the dog. The owner will be spared.

NEW TENNIS CLUB.

The "South" Heppner Tennis Club is a new organization which has rented the vacant lots on Chase street recently occupied by the Morrow County Fair Association. The club was started at the suggestion of Dr. H. T. Allison and the organization perfected. A board of managers consisting of Dr. Allison, Ray Rogers and Terah Mahoney, already have the grounds in good shape. The Heppner Tennis Club has been organized for several weeks with H. A. Van Winkle and Drs. Christenson and McMurdo at the head. This club has a well constructed court on the property of the Episcopal church. The two clubs are planning on games in the near future, and as the rivalry is keen, some fast contests should be the result.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Galt

Call at the Palace Hotel, Heppner, Monday and Tuesday, May 4th and 5th and Mrs. Lowe and Turner will show you the new double vision glasses which have no unsightly lines or seams in the lens to catch dirt, strain the eyes or come apart. One light solid piece of glass, which looks like a single pair yet answers the purpose of two, enabling you to read or do close work and see distant objects perfectly. Free demonstration and satisfaction guaranteed. Drs. Lowe and Turner will be in Heppner every three months.

LEXINGTON ITEMS

Mrs. Harry McCormick is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. E. A. Pointer and R. W. Snyder have been on the sick list for the last few days.

W. H. Cronk and Mr. Bender of Ione were visitors here Tuesday evening.

Sunday evening a welcome summer rain fell, accompanied by thunder and hail.

Ed McMillan and wife and Mrs. Lon Bradley made a flying trip to Heppner last week.

Johnny Helms returned to Lexington after spending a few days in Pendleton.

The frosty mornings make it an uncertain guess in regard to the fruit, whether there will be any left on not.

Several immigrants rested their teams here for a few days. All are going to different parts of the country.

Frank E. Bell of Black Horse has increased his dairy herd of milk cows by purchasing six head of Jerseys from R. B. Wilcox.

Dr. Culbertson of Heppner was in Lexington to attend Mrs. Harry McCormick one day last week. Mrs. McCormick is quite sick.

Mrs. Clara Way returned from Newberg Friday evening, where she has been visiting her parents and friends.

B. S. Clark, who lives near Sand Hollow, reports crops looking good in his vicinity. Early fall grain is growing very rank.

R. B. Wilcox returned from Portland where he delivered a car load of hogs. He disposed of them at a very good figure.

Mrs. E. J. Evans returned from Spokane where she was called a few days ago to attend the funeral of her sister who passed away very suddenly.

Gus McMillan's new residence is receiving the finishing touches of painting. When completed it will be a valuable addition to our residence section.

The pupils of Lexington high school are practicing a play to be given during the closing exercises the latter part of next month. The past year has been a very successful one for the pupils and all concerned.

Prof. Reddie, elocutionist of the University of Oregon, gave an interesting entertainment last Monday evening at the Congregational church. This is the second of a series given under the management of the Parent-Teachers Association.

Saturday, the 25th, was Farmer's Day in Lexington. At noon dinner was served at the reading room. After dinner all met at the Hall, where a short business meeting was held, then followed a public meeting to which all were invited.

A game of base ball was played on Park block between Heppner and Lexington last Sunday afternoon, it being the first game of the season. Little interest was shown in the game. The score was largely in favor of the visitors.

Jas. J. Welsh, who was employed on a ranch for some time in this vicinity, departed Saturday morning for the scene of action on the Mexican coast. Mr. Welsh was discharged last November from the U. S. Navy after serving four years in the Pacific.

Mrs. W. H. Gould of Roseburg has been visiting friends in this vicinity for several days. The Goulds lived on the Ham Burchell place before going to Southern Oregon. They have since disposed of their interests here and have a new home in Adams county, Wash.

A traveling representative of the Remington Arms Co., gave an interesting exhibition of arms and ammunition manufactured by that company. The exhibition took place on the Park block north of the public school square. There were many interested spectators, including the pupils from the school.

John Wallace and family were visitors in Lexington a few days ago. Mr. Wallace has a fruit farm near Echo under the Furnish ditch. Prospects for fruit crops are good, although the late frosts are thought to have been somewhat injured by the cold weather. His son-in-law was looking over the situation, with a view of locating an automobile garage here.

Leo Blackman, a former Heppner boy, being the son of Henry Blackman, for many years a merchant of this city, is causing his family no small amount of worry at the present time. He is somewhere in Mexico, probably near Mexico City, but his exact whereabouts cannot be ascertained. Leo has been in Mexico for the past several years, where he follows the life of a mining engineer. Present conditions in that country are very unsafe for Americans, and it is hoped that some trace may be found of Mr. Blackman before many more days pass.

A severe hail storm visited the Dry Fork section Sunday, making the hills white over night. However it came too early to do any damage.

FLY CATECHISM.

First.—Where is the fly born? In manure and filth.
Second.—Where does the fly live? In every kind of filth.
Third.—Is anything too filthy for the fly to eat? No.
Fourth.—a. Where does he go when he leaves the manure pile and the spitoon? Into the kitchen and dining room.
b. What does he do there? He walks on the bread, fruit and vegetables. He wipes his feet on the butter and bathes in the milk.
Fifth.—Does the fly visit the patient sick with typhoid fever, consumption, and cholera infantum? He does, and he may call on you next.

Sixth.—Is the fly dangerous? He is man's worst pest and more dangerous than wild beasts or rattlesnakes.
Seventh.—What diseases does the fly carry? He carries typhoid fever, consumption and summer complaint. How? On his wings and hairy feet. What is his correct name? Typhoid fly.
Eighth.—Did he ever kill anyone? He killed more American soldiers during the Spanish-American war than did the bullets of the Spaniards.
Ninth.—Where are the greatest number of cases of typhoid fever, consumption and summer complaint? Where there are the most flies?
Tenth.—Where are the most flies?

Eleventh.—Why should we kill the fly? Because he may kill us.
Twelfth.—When shall we kill the fly? Kill him before he gets wings, kill him when he is maggot in the manure pile, kill him while he is in egg state.
Thirteenth.—How? Keep the stable dry and clean and don't allow any manure to stay on the premises longer than one week. Have all other filth and trash accumulating on your premises removed or burned at least once a week.
Fourteenth.—If your neighbor fails to comply with these rules and allows flies to breed on his premises to visit you, screen your doors and windows and keep them out.
