

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

Try our sundaes, the best in the city—the Palm.

John Sheridan was up from the sand country on Saturday.

Newt Whetstone made a business trip to Stanfield last week.

Jack Hynd, stockman of Cecil, was in Heppner on Tuesday.

H. C. Gay, the Rhea creek dairyman was in the city on Monday.

Roy Whitels, the lone merchant, transacted business in Heppner Monday.

Percy Hughes was a Heppner visitor from Little Butter creek on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Anderson, of Eight Mile were Heppner visitors on Saturday.

B. P. Doherty, sheepman of the lower Sand Hollow section was in Heppner on Monday.

Andrew Rood returned on Saturday evening from a short visit to Portland and other outside points.

See our ad on another page giving reduced prices on flour.

HEPPNER MILLING CO.

Mrs. Walter Becket of Eight Mile departed for Willamette Valley points on Saturday to visit with relatives.

Thos. Quaid, of Portland is in Heppner this week looking after business interests and visiting old-time friends.

Howard and Alfred Anderson, prominent farmers of the Eight Mile section were attending to business affairs in this city on Monday.

Mrs. Eva Saling of Estacata returned to her home in that city on Saturday. Mrs. Saling has been visiting with relatives and friends in this section for the past three weeks.

Jas. Elder and Jas. Kirk took out two wagon loads of White Star flour to Hardman Tuesday. This flour went to the Bleakman store. The Heppner Milling Co. were the shippers.

The ladies of the Christian church announce that they will hold a window sale at the office of W. W. Smead on Saturday next, and will be prepared with provisions for the Sunday dinner.

J. F. and W. L. Barlow, Rhea creek and Eight Mile farmers were doing business in Heppner on Tuesday. Everything is booming in their respective localities since the big rain of last week.

E. E. Lovgren, prosperous young farmer of Eight Mile, was a pleasant caller at this office while in town on Saturday. Good rains in his locality have freshened up the crops and the farmers are happy.

Fred Elder and his grandmother, Mrs. Lucinda Elder, returned to their home in this city on Sunday evening from Baker. Mrs. Elder has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Belle Bucknum for the past several weeks.

Mrs. Celsus Keithley and Miss Leah Minor departed for Portland on Thursday last to be absent for ten days or two weeks; the former to receive treatment at the hands of a surgeon and the latter to visit with friends.

Carl Her and family, of Timber, Oregon, who spent a week visiting with relatives in Heppner, departed for home on Thursday last. Mr. Her was interested in looking over some of our farm lands with a view of locating here.

Dan Hanshaw, who was in town on Saturday from his Black Horse ranch, is rejoicing over the excellent condition of his crop. He expects his section to turn out a big yield this season. A good rain fell there on Friday and conditions have been greatly improved thereby.

Some slight damage to crops, caused by two days of north wind last week is reported from different parts of the county. This has been slight, however, and the rains and cooler weather since have largely restored the grain to its normal condition, and also relieved much of the anxiety of the farmers.

Andy J. Cook departed for Irrigon on Monday with a crew of men. They will put the finishing touches on the new Heppner-Irrigon road, which has been open to the public for some time. A little more sage brush macadam will greatly improve the lower end of this road, where much sand has to be contended with.

A general rain fell all over Morrow county on Thursday night and so far as we have been able to learn no section was overlooked. While there was no apparent suffering of crops the rains have done a lot of good. Continued favorable conditions will result in the harvesting of the largest crop in the history of the county.

Dr. J. H. Fell is reported to be getting along nicely. His injuries are confined to the fracture of the right leg in the hip joint and it is believed that he will fully recover, although it will be some time before he will be able to be out. Dr. Fell received his injury last week, when his automobile went over the grade between here and John Day.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

Emmett Smith of Rhea creek was trading in Heppner on Monday.

The Jones Weeders are nearly half gone. Have you got yours yet? Better hurry.

Wright Saling of Hardman, delivered a fine bunch of fat hogs in Heppner Saturday evening.

Dock Hudson, a merchant of Hardman was doing business in Heppner on Saturday.

Thomas Ross and wife, of Echo, arrived in Heppner on Thursday evening and visited in our city for several days.

Ralph Adkins was a Sunday morning passenger for Milton. He will spend some time visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. C. Howard.

Ana B. Thompson, Echo Irrigationist and base ball fan accompanied the Echo ball team to Heppner last Friday.

A. W. Gammell of Lexington was a visitor in Heppner on Monday. This office acknowledges a pleasant call.

Walter Cochran and Robert Sperry, lone ball players assisted the locals in their struggle with Echo last Friday.

Ralph Hymer came up from Ione last Friday to witness the Echo-Heppner ball game. He remained over and furnished music at the dance the same evening.

Miss Josephine Follette returned to her Portland home Saturday morning after visiting with friends at the home of John Patterson for several weeks.

Mack Gentry has been very ill the past week, being confined to his bed much of the time. The services of a doctor were required. He is improved at this time.

Albert Bowker of the Heppner Garage, spent several days in Portland last week looking after an order for Overland cars which he has sold to local people.

Ione defeated Condon at Ione last Sunday by 5 to 0 score in a one-sided game. Sperry pitched for the winners. Several people from Heppner witnessed the game.

Wm. Lasson will leave in a few days for the Greenhorn mountains, where he will join Dan Stalter and E. S. Duran. The three will work in the Mayflower mines during the summer.

H. L. McAllister, of Lexington, accompanied by his mother, departed on Monday morning for McMinnville where he goes as a delegate from Lexington Lodge, I. O. O. F. to the grand lodge of Oregon which meets in that city this week.

The majority of the sheepmen throughout this section are taking advantage of the prices offered for wool and are contracting their clips before taking them to market. J. W. Chapman being one who contracted his clip to Phil Cohn of Heppner, receiving 16 2-3 cents per pound.—Long Creek Ranger.

Mrs. T. J. Humphreys and children departed for Portland on Tuesday morning. She will be present at the graduation of her daughter, Miss Leta from the School of Pharmacy of North Pacific Dental College, which takes place this week, and will then visit with relatives in Multnomah and Washington counties for a short time.

The graduation exercises of the Ione High School took place on Friday evening last at Walker's hall, and were preceded by a class play, "The Sweet Girl Graduates," at the same hall on Thursday evening. At the graduation exercises, Supt. Notson, of Heppner, was the principal speaker. A class of three received their diplomas.

Mrs. Mary Hendriksen, Mrs. Clyde Wells, Mrs. Bert Stone, Mrs. John Vaughn and Mrs. Chas. Cox departed for McMinnville last Sunday. They go as delegates to the grand lodge convention of the Rebekah lodge which holds forth in that city this week. Mrs. Stone will remain in Portland for some time before returning home, to receive treatment for her eyes.

W. E. Severance who is one of the successful farmers of the Hardman country, was in Heppner on Saturday. The abundant rains up that way have kept the farmers back with spring work somewhat but Mr. Severance reports everything coming along fine at present with one of the best crop prospects they have had in years.

H. P. Preston, of Waitsburg, Wn., accompanied by Walter Scott, of the Garden City Milling Co., of Walla Walla, passed through Heppner on Saturday on their way from Seattle to Eastern Washington by auto. Mr. Preston is an old-time friend of the editor of the G.-T., and they were playmates and schoolmates together more than 40 years ago. It has been many long years since they last met and time and circumstances have separated them in different walks of life, but the meeting was none the less one of much pleasure.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Mitchell

Fresh ice cream every day at the Palm.

We have an abundance of old papers for sale at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hogeland, of Parkers Mill, are visiting with relatives in Heppner this week.

Monterestelli Bros., builders of monuments and tombstones of Pendleton, placed several monuments in Heppner cemetery this week.

A wedding ticket was issued by Clerk Hill on Tuesday to Mr. Guy Chapin and Miss Elvie Coats, young people of the Hardman country.

Miss Amy McHaley, accompanied by Mrs. Lizzie Coats, a niece of the late J. H. McHaley, arrived from Portland on Saturday. The ladies will visit in Heppner for the next three or four weeks.

D. E. Gilman returned from a business trip to Portland and other points down that way on Saturday. He found business pretty dull compared to what it usually is, this being especially so in the line of real estate.

W. O. Allison, of Ukiah, arrived in Heppner on Tuesday on a short visit with his sister, Mrs. Carrie Vaughn, and to look after farming interests he has here. Mr. Allison still owns the farm he ran in Morrow county a number of years ago which is now operated by Egbert Young.

Hanson Hughes and wife were passengers to Portland Sunday morning. Mr. Hughes is on his way to McMinnville where he goes to attend the grand lodge I. O. O. F. in session there this week. Roy Her was also a delegate from Willow Lodge of this city and left by the same train.

Having been nominated to make the race for commissioner on the democratic ticket, Jeff Jones has decided to get into the running in proper shape. He is now the owner of a new Case auto which he purchased this week from Vaughn & Sons and got in with his machine Tuesday evening, being accompanied by John Vaughn.

Delvin Cox, who has a position as pressman with Glass & Prudhomme Co., big printing house of Portland, is here on a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Cox, of Rhea creek. Delvin went to Portland about 18 months ago and securing work has been on the job ever since and holding down a good position.

A dinner party was given in honor of the Senior Class of Heppner High School at the home of Dr. Culbertson and daughter on last Friday evening. The High School teachers, Misses Lillah Clark, Lucile Culbertson and Marion Long were the hostesses, and the entire class were present to partake of the delicacies prepared for them.

Rev. G. T. Notson, of Huron, South Dakota, is visiting with the family of his brother, Supt. S. E. Notson, in Heppner. Mr. Notson, who is a Methodist minister and at present Dist. Supt. in his home city, is on a short visit to the Northwest and is now on his return home after a few days spent with relatives in the Willamette valley.

Owing, no doubt, to the illness of Mayor Smead who is confined to his home in Heppner by a severe attack of grip, there was no meeting of the City Council on Monday evening. Councilmen Hager, City Attorney Notson, Recorder Williams and Marshal McCraw were present and after waiting for a reasonable time for the other members to arrive, a motion to adjourn, was made and carried by unanimous vote of the "third house."

Graduating Exercises at Lexington.

The graduating exercises of Lexington High School take place this evening at the Congregational church. Dr. H. W. Bleakney, of Whitman College, Walla Walla, will deliver the address. The class play was given before a crowded house in Artisan hall on Tuesday evening, the students doing themselves proud in the rendition of "Arabian Nights." The caste of characters included the following students of the school: Harvey Bauman, Hulda Burchell, Maudie McMillan, Teddy McMillan, Regmor Beck, E. Bauman, Hazel Delaney, Leona Davis and L. Pomeroy. Prof. Notson, of Heppner, delivered the baccalaureate address on Sunday evening at the M. E. church. A very successful year of the Lexington school has thus been brought to a close.

LENA ITEMS.

Everybody is trying to keep in the shade now days but very few succeed in doing so.

W. E. Straight hauled the last of his wool to Heppner last week.

Miss Hazel Schell of Walla Walla has been visiting friends at Lena the last few weeks.

J. H. Pearson and son George went to Pendleton last week to attend to some business.

Marsh Courtney was in Heppner last week.

Crops are looking good and a few showers along help them greatly.

This vicinity was visited by a heavy rain a few days ago which we were very glad to see. Come again "Mr. Rain" when you can stay longer.

A SEASONABLE SPECIAL

FOR VOTE GETTERS

COMMENCING SATURDAY, 16TH,
We will give 500 votes on the Grafonola Contest with every yard of

PERCALES

Sale will start Saturday, the 16th, and run until Wednesday, the 20th

Last Week for Brown Votes

Be sure to get all your Brown Votes in before

SATURDAY, the 23RD

MINOR & CO.

The Gazette-Times

THE PAPER WHICH CONTAINS ALL THE HOME NEWS.
IF YOU ARE NOT A SUBSCRIBER, WHY NOT?

See us before buying your years supply of flour. We can save you money. HEPPNER MILLING CO.

BOWERS' SHOE REPAIRING SHOP.

We have just opened up for business in the Garrigues Building on Main Street.
We will treat you fair and will appreciate a share of your patronage.

We Can Do All Kinds of Repair Work.

IRRIGON ITEMS

Tom George went to Pendleton
Friday afternoon on business.

L. B. Kicker went to Heppner
Saturday, returning Sunday afternoon.

William Friend was in town last week, leaving Sunday afternoon for Pendleton.

Some of the surveyors located here took a pleasure trip to Hermiston Sunday.

Walter Caldwell and Jesse Davis came down from Castle Rock Sunday, for the day.

The editor of the Umatilla New Era, Willis J. Pegg, was in this town for a short time Friday.

Sidney Taylor was down from Umatilla Sunday and spent the day with the Roadrucks of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Adams are now living here and intend to remain until fall. They are staying in the Hamilton place in the east part of town. Mr. Adams is employed on the Echo-Coyote cut-off and comes to town about every other night.

The news of Mrs. Charlie Dolder's death was received by her many friends here as a great shock and with much sincere sorrow. It is with much regret and heartfelt sympathy for the bereaved ones that we part from her. Mrs. L. B. Kicker, Mrs.
J. S. Cabbage and Mrs. P. Renno drove to Umatilla with flowers, to pay their last respects to her before the body was taken to Hermiston for burial.

To Stable Owners of Heppner.

You have been heretofore notified through the paper, and also by myself, personally, to clean up all manure about your stables, barns and sheds; this is final notice. Those not complying with the request of the City Health Officer or myself in this respect will be put to additional cost and trouble if I shall be compelled to do this cleaning up for them. Prompt action in the premises will save costs.
J. R. McCRAW, City Marshal.

WE CHISEL HIGH PRICES DOWN WHEN WE FIRST PUT PRICES ON OUR HARDWARE. BUY YOUR HARDWARE FROM US AND KNOW
THE PRICE IS RIGHT.

WE LOCK OUR CUSTOMERS TO US BY SELLING THEM NONE BUT HARD WEARING HARDWARE.

THEN WE'VE GOT THE GOODS. YOU CAN GET IT AT OUR STORE.
WE ARE BACK OF WHAT WE SELL. IF ANYTHING GOES WRONG WE ARE HERE TO MAKE IT GOOD. YOU CAN SEE US, TALK TO US, AND CUSS US IF NECESSARY, BUT IT WON'T BE NECESSARY.

COME AND SEE US.

Gilliam & Bisbee

HEPPNER, OREGON