Salem, Oregon, June 9, 1914. Mr. Burton H. Peck, Heppner, Oregon.

Dear Sir: Your favor of the 6th inst., enclosing clipping from the "Heppner Gazette-Times," is at hand. It really looks as if you are making progress for an exhibit from your county, and I sincerely hope that your efforts may be rewarded. We have good prospects from several other Eastern Oregon counties, and the indications are that that district will be fairly well represented. If we can do anything to assist you, do not hesitate to make your wishes known.

Our premium list will be ready for general distribution within a day or two, and we will take pleasure in sending you a copy. We think that you may be interested in the offering for an individual farm exhibit as well as the premiums offered in other departments.

Yours very truly, FRANK MEREDITH, Secretary.

CROP CONDITION IN NORTH MORROW COUNTY.

The fields in north and adjacent to Lexington are all turning golden yellow, headers are starting up there and an abundant yield is in sight. Some complaint has been heard of the hot winds doing damage to these crops but it appears to us that the damage is very slight and that Lexington will market more than her usual amount of wheat from the north side this season. Crops there are now beyond all danger of further injury and the climatic conditions are ideal for their maturing.

The rabbit crop in that north country can not be overlooked. The black tails are on the increase at a very rapid rate and are going to be, if they are not already, a very serious crop pest. Messrs. Mahoney and Clark did what they could in the limited time at their disposal to exterminate them, Mr. Clark being entitled to the pennant for the most scalps added to his belt. The trip was an enjoyable one because of the pleasure afforded in getting a view of the maturing wheat fields and their promise of abundance.

School Meeting Day in District No. 51

School meeting day in District No. 51 was one of festivity as well as business. The patrons of the enthusiastic little neighborhood decided to kill several birds with one stone. The men talked the matter over and concluded to put up that long neglected fence. Their good wives accompanied them in the morning or came later with well filled baskets, boxes, pails and sacks. The men worked loyally on the fence during the forenoon. Their brows were wet with honest sweat. They earned their dinner which was spread out in the yard in the shade of the pines, and heartily enjoyed by all, men, women and children.

After dinner the annual school meeting was held and business transacted. Mr. Scott Osborn was elected director and Mrs. Tyndal Robison re-elected clerk. After the meeting the men resumed work on the fence and the women and children proceeded to have a good time. Music was furnished by a phonograph. The school room was beautifully decorated with evergreens and ornaments of red and white, the school colors, and the school motto, "I Must Keep Pegging Away."

As evening approached and the fence was completed, the neighbors began preparing to leave for their homes, tired but well pleased with the days occurrences.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Devore and family, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Osborn and family, Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald and family, Mrs. Ed Musgrave and children, Mrs. Harriet Stephens and children, Mr. and Mrs. Tyndal Robison and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Severance and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Chaplin, Mrs. Archie Barnard, Mr. Ed McDaniel and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Johnson and son, and Mrs. Margaret Harrison, who the 32 years of age believes in getting out and having a good social time.
