STATE NEWS ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Portland, Ore., June 30 (Special)—The fostering of agricultural development was endorsed as the most important work of Oregon communities at the annual convention of the State Bankers' Association at Medford, and at that of the Retail Merchants' Association at LaGrande. Resolutions were adopted by both organizations urging bankers and business men to continue their efforts to bring experienced farmers into the state, help them to locate on lands at reasonable prices and assist the farmers now here to an increased prosperity. The depression in lumber, building and railroad construction is more than counterbalanced in Oregon, in the opinion of the bankers and merchants, by success in agricultural lines. Good crop prospects were reported from every county in the state.

P. E. Schwabe, in charge of the German immigration work connected with the Oregon State Immigration Commission, has been inspecting the Oregon coast country in company with prospective colonists who are seeking locations on low-priced, logged-off or burned-over land. He found desirable lands valued by their owners at from $7.50 to $20 per acre. Correspondence with prospective German and Scandinavian homeseekers is growing steadily in volume and every few days sees some families located.

Cove, in Union county, will hold a cherry fair on July 16. A Norwegian family, the Stacklands, has led in building up a great cherry industry at an altitude of 3,000 feet in the foothills of the Blue mountains. At this high altitude cherries, while not so large or luscious as some raised on lower levels, have remarkable keeping qualities and the output will be disposed of in carloads in the Eastern markets.

O. M. Plummer, general manager of the Pacific International Livestock Exposition, announces that the National Duroc-Jersey Record Association, of Peoria, Ill., has appropriated $125 for the livestock show to be held in Portland this fall, thus placing this event in the ranks with the other large stock shows of the United States, a recognition which has not heretofore been made.

For the first time since loganberry culture has become a fixed industry in the Willamette Valley, the fruit is being shipped to the East in large quantities. During the season at least 25 carloads will be shipped to Chicago, St. Louis, Lincoln, Neb., Kansas City and Denver. These shipments will consist of fresh fruit and will not include the great shipments of dried berries which will be made later.

That the population of Oregon is increasing very rapidly is indicated by the fact that unusual number of communities have found it necessary to erect new school buildings to relieve congestion. New schools are being built at Amity, Molalla, Newport, Astoria and Vida, and in addition, several large school buildings will be erected in Portland before the end of the year.

Within the last week 7 carloads of Oregon wool were shipped from Madras to Boston. The shipment aggregated 290,000 pounds and was sold at prices somewhat in advance of those of last year.

HEPPNER, ORE.

Louie Groman Found Dead.

Louie Groman, a stone mason, and for many years a familiar figure about Heppner, was found dead near the warehouse of the Heppner Milling Co., last Saturday morning by Andy Hayes, foreman of the warehouse.

Groman, who had a habit of throwing epileptic fits and falling to the ground helpless, was taken to the pest house last Friday, having been exposed to the small pox. However, during the night sometime, he succeeded in breaking out of the pest house, which is on the hill above the warehouse. When found dead, he was laying between the warehouse and the railroad track, with his head on one of the rails. The coroner's jury, consisting of J. J. Nys, T. J. Morgan, Elmer Beaman, John Kirk, Wm. Walbridge and Chas. Williams, pronounced their verdict as death from natural causes, or as one doctor said, "death caused from alcoholic exhaustion." The body was buried on Saturday.

Louie Groman was about 55 years of age and came to Heppner 13 years ago from Pendleton, and was employed by the county during the construction work on the courthouse. It is said that he left a wife and daughter in Iowa several years ago, and it is rumored that they are in excellent financial condition, while Groman died penniless.

L. Carlson, prosperous young farmer of Gooseberry, was in Heppner Saturday to attend the Farmers' Union meeting.

H. V. Gates, president of Heppner Light & Water Co., left for Portland on Saturday after spending a few days in this city.

E. R. Lundell and G. M. Akers were two Gooseberry farmers in town on Saturday to attend the meeting of the County Farmers' Union.

A young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Cox was operated upon very successfully at the Heppner Sanatorium on Friday for appendicitis. She is rapidly recovering at this writing.

Lee Padberg, Vice President of the Morrow County Farmers' Union, was in Heppner on Saturday to attend the meeting of that organization held at the court house in the afternoon.

Mrs. A. M. Slocum and daughter, Miss Dorothy and young son, Earl have joined the other members of the family here and will visit in the city for a while. These people are planning an extensive trip which will include numerous points in Oregon and Washington, to be taken in their Cadillac touring car.

SMILE!

Foozled.

John Henry was keeping company with Myrtle Marie, and when the father of the latter returned from the office one evening he was timidly approached by his pretty daughter.

"Papa," said the fair one, "did John Henry call on you this morning?"

"Yes," answered the paternal one, "but I couldn't make out much of what he said."

"Couldn't make out what he said?" returned Myrtle Marie, wondering. "What do you mean?"

"As near as I could understand," explained papa, "he said he wanted to marry me; that you had enough money to support him, and that we had always loved each other, so I told him to go home and write it out in plain English."—Washington Post.

"Vell, Mamma," said Mr. Solomon, "for fishing I should go."

"Are you going alone, Moe?"

"No, I am going to take Chakey with me."

"Vy don't you take Ike? He's got the worms."
