

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

W. H. Clark, stockman of Butter creek, was in town Monday.

Ernest Lundell of Gooseberry was a Heppner visitor on Saturday.

A. V. Templeton of Spray, came over from Wheeler county Tuesday.

J. H. Loomis of The Dalles was an incoming passenger Tuesday evening.

J. J. Simas, merchant of Monument, was in the city the first of the week.

Fred Ashbaugh and son Roy, were in from their home near Hardman on Saturday.

E. H. Gardner and Claud Gardner were in Heppner from Echo last Sunday.

Frank Anderson of Eight Mile purchased a Ford from the Heppner Garage last week.

Judge W. P. Dutton returned to Portland on Saturday after a visit of a week in Heppner.

E. K. Wyland, prosperous young ranchman of the Hardman section was in Heppner Tuesday.

Frank Glascock, young farmer of upper Blackhorse, transacted business in this city Saturday.

Attorney C. E. Woodson has purchased a new Buick automobile from that agency at Pendleton.

Frank Akers, now farming in the Ione section, accompanied by his wife made Heppner a visit on Saturday.

H. M. Olden, Ione farmer, was among those attending the county meeting of the Farmers' Union here Saturday.

Emerson and Claud Keithley of Eight Mile attended the meeting of the Farmers' Union in Heppner last Saturday.

Mrs. Martha Callaway, of Brownsville, is visiting at the home of her brother, George J. Currin and family in Heppner.

Conductor Chas. Fiske, who recently moved with his family to Portland, is making the run on No. 1 out of Portland on the Main line.

Willford Meadows departed Monday for his home in Portland after visiting through the week with relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. Walter O. Hill and children returned on Saturday from a visit of several weeks at the home of her mother who resides in Portland.

Mike Kenny, one of our prosperous stockmen, recently bought a Case "35". The deal was made through Vaughn & Sons, who have the local agency.

Chas. Shaver and wife, residents of Ione, were in Heppner for a few hours on Monday. They made the trip by auto and were accompanied by Mrs. C. H. Ward.

Albert Bowker and Orve Rasmus made a business trip into Grant county the latter part of the week. They were accompanied by Misses Nora Cecil and Iva Clark.

Echo Correspondent in the East Oregonian—Mrs. Grace Conser nee Wattenburger, formerly of Heppner but now of Ferdinand, Idaho, is here visiting relatives and friends.

J. W. Shipley, former school superintendent of Morrow county but now living at Underwood, Wash., is now running for the office of county commissioner for Skamania county.

Chas. E. Canada, of Portland, representing the General Electric Co., is in the city on business connected with the Heppner Light & Water Co., and the installing of the day service.

Mrs. E. C. Fell, of Redmond, Oregon, who recently underwent an operation at Heppner Sanatorium, is reported to be getting along well and should soon be able to leave the hospital.

Chas. Grogan has purchased the Keithley residence in north Heppner. This property borders on that of Victor Grogans. Mr. Grogan is contemplating some extensive improvements.

L. R. Sohns, special representative of the R. L. Polk & Co., publishers of city, county and state directories, is in Heppner getting data for the next directory of Morrow and Umatilla counties.

Gilbert Jones and Warren Ashbaugh, former residents of Morrow county, are engaged at the present time, building a large packing house on a fruit farm near Wapato, Wn., the farm consisting of 200 acres.

Nine Ford cars have been disposed of to Lexington farmers the past few days. After the crops are harvested, this county will be over run with automobiles. But they are proving an economic necessity to the farmer.

Leonard Ashbaugh, who farms in Lost Valley near Lone Rock, was a Heppner visitor on Saturday, attending the meeting of the Morrow County Farmers' Union. He reports a fine outlook for crops in his section.

Dick McElligott was up from Ione on Saturday night. He states that the people of his section will begin their harvest in about another week. Mr. McElligott is one of the big farmers of the lower Gooseberry section and has made a success of the business.

W. G. Scott, accompanied by Mrs. Scott and their daughter, were in Heppner on Monday evening from Lexington. Mr. Scott states that heading is now quite general around Lexington, and some of the farmers are also threshing and the new wheat is No. 1 quality. The yield of this section will be about up to what it was two years ago, and of better quality. This is the first instance in the history of wheat raising in Morrow county when harvest was begun before the fourth of July and Mr. Scott states that the season is fully three weeks in advance of any former year.

Marion Cork, of Monument, was in Heppner on Tuesday to look after business affairs. Mr. Cork is a young ranchman of the Monument section and is running a part of the Emmet Cochran place down the river about four miles below Monument. Extensive rains in his section has kept back crops to some extent but Mr. Cork states that the present warm weather is bringing them out and big yields of hay and grain are looked for. This office acknowledges a pleasant call from Mr. Cork.

A quiet wedding at the home of Rev. W. T. Goulder at noon on Sunday, June 28, 1914, united the lives of Mr. James B. Coxen, of Lexington, and Miss Edna O. Ayers, of Galloway. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. Goulder. The bride is the daughter of James T. Ayers, prominent farmer of Butter creek, and the groom is a fine young man now engaged in the barber business at Lexington where the young people will make their home. To them we extend our congratulations.

James Angus, a subscriber to the Rural Spirit, writes from Missouri that he is at present on a farm among the Missouri Herefords. He likes the stock, which is excellent, but he finds the climate tough on an Oregon-bred man. He closes his letter as follows: "Since I left Oregon on the first of May I have been all through Tennessee, and I have not seen anything to beat Oregon yet. I hope I will find my way back again this fall."—Rural Spirit.

Thomson Bros. this week added to their store equipment a large McCrea refrigerator which will be utilized in taking care of all lines of groceries affected by the warm weather. It is large enough to accommodate any stock that they might have on hand at one time and will prove a good investment by reason of its ability to preserve and keep in good condition all kinds of perishable goods.

Mrs. Mike Marshall brought her young son over from Castle Rock on Monday to receive the attention of a surgeon. The lad was suffering a broken shoulder caused by falling out of bed and off the porch where he was sleeping. Dr. Allison gave the boy proper attention and his mother returned home with him on Wednesday.

A. C. Petteys has decided to retire from the hard labor connected with running a large farm, and he is offering his place of about 1000 acres, consisting of alfalfa and wheat lands, at a very attractive figure and on good terms. Anyone interested can get in touch with Mr. Petteys on this deal by addressing him at Ione, Ore.

W. W. Abbott, insurance man, has bought the red R. C. H. car from Elmer Beaman. The price paid was around $500. Mr. Beaman is now proceeding to dispose of his Ford. He will sell the watch fob for $2 and give a chance on the machine. Elmer may decide to invest in another car later in the year.

Getting ready for their harvest, Jake Young and son, Robert took out a new Mandt wagon and McCormick header from Vaughn & Sons on Tuesday. Harvest will begin with them on their lower place within a very few days. Mr. Young also purchased a new set of harness for his mules.

A short drive into the Blackhorse wheat belt on Monday reveals the fact that the farmers out there will reap a splendid harvest this season. Wheat and barley will be good and should yield heavy. These people will begin their harvest within the coming week.

At Ione on July 4th the ladies of the Christian church will serve dinner in the basement of the church all day long. It will be good home cooking and if you are in our sister city on that day celebrating, give them a call and get your dinner.

After being confined to his bed for 8 weeks with a severe case of typhoid fever, Emery Hiatt is once more able to be on the street. Emery is regaining his lost health rapidly now and it will only be a matter of weeks until he will be as strong as ever.

Harry Turner and Earn Edwards were in town on Tuesday laying in their supply of extras to put their harvesting machinery in shape to go into the fields which are now ripe unto the harvest in the Sand Hollow section.

C. H. Bartholomew, of Galloway, was a visitor in Heppner on Tuesday. He is finishing off for market some 295 head of porkers that will be shipped into Portland about the middle of July.

Pete Sheridan, of Lower Butter creek, was a business visitor in Heppner on Monday. He came up in his Ford and was accompanied by E. W. Rhea and wife. They returned home in the evening.

H. L. Donevan of Spray shipped two car loads of beef cattle from the Heppner yards to Portland on Sunday. The staff was consigned to the Benson Commission Co.

Fresh ice cream every day at the Palm.

Dr. Copeland, the optometrist, is in Heppner this week.

Tindal Robison was down from Hardman on Monday.

J. H. Wyland was down from Hardman last Monday.

Try our sundaes, the best in the city—the Palm.

Oscar Keithley of Eight Mile, spent Saturday in Heppner.

Wanted—Sewing to do, plain or fancy. Mrs. Ralph Jones.

Fred Kelley and wife of Butter creek, spent Sunday in Heppner.

Mrs. T. J. George, of Irrigon, was a visitor in Heppner on Monday.

Tom Ross, the Echo wool buyer, was in Heppner on business on Monday.

Wm. Penland and wife returned from a short visit in Portland on Sunday.

A. W. Gammell was up from his farm near Lexington the first of the week.

Walter Beckett, Eight Mile farmer was transacting business in Heppner Monday.

M. S. Corrigan, banker, was looking after his Heppner interests the first of the week.

Alfred Anderson of Eight Mile was attending to matters of business in this city Monday.

If you want spring chicken for Sunday dinner, leave orders on Friday. Peoples' Cash Market.

Frank Anderson was in town on Saturday from his farm at the head of Jack Rabbit canyon.

Theo. Anderson, of Eight Mile, states that his harvest will begin about the 15th of July.

The City Meat Market would call special attention to valuable advertising in this issue of the G-T.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kilkenny were in the city Sunday, driving in from their ranch in the new Overland car.

Robt. Wilcox, successful farmer and dairyman of Lexington, was doing business in Heppner on Saturday.

Engineer Brown, of the branch, accompanied by his wife, returned from a short vacation on Monday evening.

T. E. Chidsey has accepted a permanent position with Phelps Grocery Co. and went to work there on Wednesday.

Mrs. T. J. Humphreys returned home last Thursday evening after a visit of several weeks at Portland and Hillsboro.

Hugh C. Githens made final proof on his homestead before C. C. Patterson, United States Commissioner, last Saturday.

Rugg Brothers, the extensive stockmen and farmers of the Rhea creek section, were doing business in Heppner on Monday.

Robert Young was in the city from his Eight Mile home Monday. He states that harvest will be under way before many days in his section.

J. J. Simas, business man of Monument, was in Heppner on Tuesday, coming over in the new Ford recently purchased at Heppner Garage.

Mrs. Phoebe Willis Leazer departed for Portland on Tuesday after a visit of a month in Heppner looking after her property interests here.

W. W. Smead returned home from Pendleton Friday, where he had gone on business connected with a Boston wool firm of Hallowell, Jones and Donald.

Walter Robison, a young farmer of the Eight Mile section, was in Heppner over Monday night. He is preparing for his harvest which begins soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace A. Emerson are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby daughter at their home on Monday, June 29, 1914. Mother and child are doing well.

Tom Marlatt is reported to be very ill at his home just east of Heppner, having suffered a relapse of his recent sickness and it is feared by his family that he will not recover.

Get you one of those electric irons from Heppner Light & Water Co. They do fine work and are great fuel savers and do away with that excessive heat generated by the kitchen stove.

John Malmud, of Lone Rock, was in Heppner on Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Malmud is an independent candidate for commissioner in Gilliam county and he will get a solid vote in Heppner.

Mrs. W. R. Irwin and children departed for Portland on Saturday. After a short stay in the metropolis they will go on to Rockaway beach near Tillamook and spend the summer there.

Prof. H. H. Hoffman returned on Sunday evening from a visit of two weeks in the Willamette valley at Eugene and Roseburg. Mr. Hoffman is developing a fruit farm near Roseburg and reports his apples coming on fine.

T. G. Dennisee, the carpenter, was attacked by a very serious illness on Monday which necessitated his removal to the hospital. His attack was in the nature of cholera morbus and quick work of a physician put him on his feet again after a few hours.

N. S. Whetstone and wife were up from their ranch on Cottonwood the latter part of last week trading and receiving sheep that he contracted for some time ago. Mr. Whetstone is a large property owner in Morrow county but always spends the greater part of the summer in Grant county.—Long Creek Ranger.

What Your Tailor?

Are You Seeking Tailoring?

Then consider the question of quality as well as cost. Investigate the satisfaction and service-value found in tailored-to-order clothes. Don't let anyone sell you who can't deliver the goods. Quality is as quality does, when it comes to tailoring.

Ed. V. Price & Co.

Style and service spell satisfaction in clothes you get here. See our new woollens and leave your measure—TODAY. Prices reasonable.

See Minor & Co. About It

The Christian Church.

Next Sunday morning at the Christian church, Minister T. S. Handsaker will speak on: "Workers in the Vineyard." Evening theme: "The Desire of the World." Special music at each service.

John D. Helps Institute.

New York, June 27.—A donation of $2,550,000 from John D. Rockefeller to the Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research has been announced by Henry James, manager of the institute. This gift brings the sum total of Rockefeller's contributions to the institute up to $12,550,000.

F. W. Sears, editor of the Ione Journal, was in Heppner for a short time on Tuesday evening. He states the people of his little city are very busy with their preparations for the big 3-day celebration to which all Heppner is invited.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Bishop Scott School

Yamhill, Oregon. For Boys

Under Auspices
Episcopal Diocese of Oregon

FALL TERM OPENS
Sept. 23rd, 1914.

Grammar School and College Preparatory courses. School estate comprises 100 acres of fertile land. Complete gymnasium, swimming pool, indoor and outdoor athletics. Library, study halls, competent instruction in all branches. Send for rates and booklet: "Where Boys are trained to think."

Address:
BISHOP SCOTT SCHOOL,
Yamhill, Oregon

BOWERS' SHOE REPAIRING SHOP.

We have just opened up for business in the Garrigues Building on Main Street.

We will treat you fair and will appreciate a share of your patronage.

We Can Do All Kinds of Repair Work.

WE SOCK THE KNIFE INTO PRICES ON HARDWARE. A BIG BUSINESS AT LITTLE PRICES IS OUR WAY OF DOING BUSINESS.

WE ARE NOT AFRAID THAT OUR BUSINESS IS SOON GOING TO BLOW UP. WE ARE HERE TO STAY, BY CARRYING WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT AND BY DOING A SQUARE BUSINESS. TRY US AND FIND OUT WHETHER WE STATE FACTS OR NOT. WE WILL PROVE TO YOU THAT WE MEAN WHAT WE SAY.

COME AND SEE US.

Gilliam & Bisbee

HEPPNER, OREGON