

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

A son was born on Monday to Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Gentry in this city.

Mrs. Josie Jones was an incoming passenger Wednesday evening from Portland.

Ladies—Get away from the heat of the stove and do your ironing with an electric iron.

Ellis Hendricson has accepted a position with Minor & Co. in their grocery department.

Those electric fans from the Heppner Light & Water Co. can certainly stir up a breeze.

M. S. Corrigan, president of the First National Bank, spent several days in Heppner this week.

Any one wanting a lady to do cooking during harvest may call at Gazette-Times office for address.

Carpet weaving and rugs. Satisfaction guaranteed. See Wm. Driscoll, south of Catholic church.

Gary Ingalls, foreman of the French ranch on Hinton creek, took out a load of feed grain last Tuesday.

Our electrical supplies are on display in the Scrivener building. Call and inspect them. Heppner Light & Water Co.

Electric fans are just the thing these warm days. The Heppner Light & Water Co. can install one for you at any time.

An electric iron for 75 cents per month. Pay for the current at this rate for 12 months and the iron is yours. See the Company about it.

W. E. White, merchant, was over from Monument on Wednesday. He was accompanied by his family and they departed for Portland this morning.

Drs. Lowe & Turner, eye specialists of Portland will be in Heppner again at Palace hotel parlors Saturday and Sunday, July 25th and 26th. Consult them.

Why burn wood and coal and heat up your house these warm days. Get one of those electric irons of Heppner Light & Water Co. and be cool while doing the ironing.

Olin Hayes returned last week from Lost Valley in Gilliam county. Olin says that the crops over there resemble those here, inasmuch as they are good in spots.

Mrs. Frank Hawn and daughter, Miss Derva, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Hawn's mother, Mrs. L. N. Christensen. They expect to remain about a month.

W. W. Smead this week moved his office in with W. T. Goulder in the Scrivener building and the headquarters of the Morrow County Fair Association has been established there.

Mrs. F. W. Sears, of Ione, was in Heppner on Wednesday circulating a petition in behalf of her father, Hon. Will E. Purdy, of Newberg, who is a non-partisan candidate for governor of Oregon.

The ladies of the Christian church will conduct a window sale of good things for the Sunday dinner, at the millinery store of Mrs. F. Luper. Articles will be displayed about 10:00 a. m. on Saturday.

R. J. Carsner and R. J. Roper, stockmen of Spray, arrived from Portland on Wednesday. These gentlemen had been below with a shipment of 5 cars of fat cattle which they disposed of to the Portland buyers.

Hugh Johnson and wife arrived at Heppner on Tuesday on their way to their home at Monument. They have been in the Willamette valley for several weeks past on a visit at the home of the parents of Mrs. Johnson who reside near Albany.

Morris Bigbee and LaVerne Van Marter, prominent students of the University of Oregon, arrived in Heppner last Monday evening and will work in the harvest fields. Mr. Bigbee was a member of the championship baseball team at the U. this year.

H. R. Blair, of Portland, is in Heppner this week. Mr. Blair is an experienced dairyman, is a recent arrival in the Northwest and is here with a view of getting hold of a dairy farm. He is greatly pleased with this section and may decide on locating here permanently.

Nels Johnson, extensive wheat farmer of Gooseberry, was in Heppner Tuesday. He begins his wheat harvest at once and will have a fair crop. Mr. Johnson is one of the farmers of that section that suffered loss last season from a destructive hail storm. He hopes to head off any disaster of this sort this season and will get his heading done as rapidly as possible.

J. Garfield Crawford, brother of the G.-T. editor, who has been holding a position for the past five years on the Star-Telegram at Fort Worth, Texas, has removed to Dallas, the largest city of the state where he has a good position with the Dallas News, the oldest paper in Texas. A letter from him this week states that it is mighty warm at present in the "Lone Star" state and the depressing heat would about put a tenderfoot out of business.

Joe Hayes went down to Portland last Friday.

Try our sundaes, the best in the city—the Palm.

G. W. Chapin was in from Hardman on Tuesday.

Wanted—Sewing to do, plain or fancy. Mrs. Ralph Jones.

For choice cold meats for your lunch, call on Peoples' Cash Market.

Victor Wigglesworth and wife of Butter creek, were Heppner visitors Tuesday.

Glenn Hayes took out a new header last week, and Jeff Neel set it up for him.

Ell Maddock came up from Portland on Monday to visit in this city for a few days.

Assessor Wells went to Irrigon this morning to attend to matters in connection with his office.

A. L. Sparling returned from Portland on Tuesday where he has been for the past two weeks.

A. M. Slocum and family returned Sunday from a trip by auto into the North Yakima country.

Vaughn & Sons are putting in a water system for Andy Rood, Jr., on his Heppner Flat farm.

Rev. T. S. Handsaker departed on Monday for his home near Eugene to be absent for a couple of weeks.

Dr. E. R. Hunlock left for Fossil this morning. He expects to remain there several days on business.

If you want spring chicken for Sunday dinner, leave orders on Friday. Peoples' Cash Market.

G. W. Swaggart, alfalfa farmer and owner of fine Jerseys and numerous swine was up from Jordan siding on Tuesday.

Dr. Allison announces the arrival of a patriotic daughter at the Butter creek home of Mr. and Mrs. John Brosnan on July 4, 1914.

Mrs. J. P. Conder and Harry Morgan went down to Portland last Friday to be with their brother, Will, who is sick in a hospital at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Driskell, who reside at The Dalles, are spending the summer at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Glenn Hayes on Rhea creek.

O. A. Carden, editor of the Echo News, was in Heppner on Tuesday and gave this office a fraternal visit. He was accompanied by Robert R. Lewis, mayor of Echo.

LOST—Somewhere on the road between the John Hughes place on Willow creek and Heppner, a pair of gold rimmed spectacles. Finder will please leave at this office.

R. E. Allstott, of Eight Mile, was in town on Tuesday. He is ready to begin harvesting his big crop of wheat which he expects to about equal his yield of two years ago.

E. C. Keeney, wife and daughter returned to their home at Monument this morning after a visit of several days at the home of Mrs. Keeney's sister, Mrs. D. M. Ward, in Heppner.

Mrs. M. L. Oney has gone to the farm of Adam Knoblock on Rhea creek where she will work for a couple of months and assist in caring for Mrs. Knoblock, who is an invalid.

J. H. Heims, of Lexington, was quite severely injured one day last week by a kick from a horse. No bones were broken, however, and his attending physician announces he is getting along all right.

R. Hogeland and wife and Walter Drumm and wife were in the city from their homes near Hardman the first of the week. Mrs. Hogeland is much improved in health, after being in the hospital for several weeks.

When you have used one of those electric irons you will never again be without one. There are many other conveniences also that day current makes possible for you, and that will lighten your burdens. See Heppner Light & Water Co.

Oiling of Heppner's side streets is in progress this week under the direction of Councilman Hager. Before the oil was put on the streets received a good wetting down which made the oil lay much better and the experiment proved to be the right system.

Dr. A. D. McMurdo informs us that he made the trip to Ditch creek last Sunday in his machine. He says the road all the way up is in fairly good condition. Doc caught a nice lot of trout and thinks the creek is an excellent one for fishing. He was accompanied by Mrs. McMurdo. So far as we know, this is the first auto to make the trip to Ditch creek this year.

THE FEDERATED CHURCH.
Bible School at 9:45, a. m. Divine worship at 11:00, a. m. Pastor Ferris will speak on "Ways that seem right." Evening service at 8:00 o'clock. Theme of sermon, "Is it nothing to you?" Special music at both services. This will be the last service of pastor until vacation is ended which will be spent in Portland and Seattle accompanied by his daughter Margaret. The services on the following Lord's Day will be of special interest. All are cordially invited.

Strangers welcome.
M. E. Church, South.
Regular services Sunday as follows: Sunday School at 10:00 a. m.; Preaching at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m.
W. T. GOULDER, Pastor.

LEXINGTON ITEMS

Some warm weather. 99 degrees in the shade.

R. W. Scler went to Walla Walla last Sunday.

Dr. McMurdo of Heppner was a caller Sunday.

Ed. Pointer is now in possession of a new Ford auto.

James Doherty of Black Horse was in town Tuesday on business.

Burchell's and Swaggart's combines begin harvesting this week.

Andrew Reaney is the latest possessor of a new Buick passenger car. John Helms made a business trip to Pendleton to be gone several days.

Lots of people attended the celebration at Ione. Saturday was the big day.

Mrs. Hattie Lee of California is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Reaney.

Judge Patterson, Prof. Hoffman and John Hughes were visitors in our city Tuesday.

John B. White returned to his Portland home to assume his duties in the police department.

Ralph Finley was in from the Finley ranch for a load of supplies. He reports harvest in progress.

W. B. Barratt was a Lexington visitor from Heppner Monday evening. He came down in his new Ford.

J. B. Coxen and wife have moved into their new home recently purchased from Gene Gentry on Main street.

Mrs. Nettie Crow of Dog Pond, Alberta, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Booher and also her son, W. T. Crow.

Sunday the town had a good attendance of farmers looking for help. When the day was over everybody had a place that wanted one.

The new garage is nearing completion. It is 30 by 60 feet in size and will no doubt fill a long felt want to the traveling public.

Karl Beach has finished his new residence and it is ready to be painted. When painted, the residence will be an ornament for any town.

C. R. McAllister and family stopped in Lexington a few days. They are on their way to Grass Valley, Sherman county, to work in harvest.

R. B. Wilcox, the dairyman below town is now the owner of a Ford auto, and makes his delivery of cream much quicker than by team.

The holidays are over and the header crews are taking advantage of the cool weather in getting the grain cut and in the stack ready for the thrasher.

Jim Helms had the misfortune to be kicked by a horse Friday evening, and required the services of a physician. He is improving at the present writing.

G. W. Lane arrived Monday from east Tennessee for a visit with John Moyers whom he has not seen for many years. His two daughters accompanied him.

R. B. Wilcox is installing a new milking machine at his dairy ranch. Monroe & Christman furnished the machine and a representative of the company is putting it in.

Heading is on in full blast north of Lexington. W. F. Barnett has

No. 3774.
Report of the Condition of
The First National Bank at Heppner in the State of Oregon, at the close of business, June 30, 1914.

Resources.
Loans and Discounts	$458,480.80
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured	4,629.61
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation	25,000.00
U. S. Bonds to secure U. S. Deposits	1,000.00
Postal Savings	$1,000.00
Bonds, Securities, etc. (other than Stocks)	12,539.75
Banking House, Furniture, and Fixtures	14,779.62
Other Real Estate owned	22,400.33
Due from National Banks (not reserve agents)	19,040.84
Due from State and Private Banks and Bankers, Trust Companies, and Savings Banks	23,432.46
Due from approved Reserve Agents	143,544.73
Checks and other cash items	3,965.54
Notes of other National Banks	4,425.00
Fractional Paper Currency, Nickels, and Cents	220.81
Lawful Money Reserve in Bank	—
Specie	$45,468.70
Legal-tender notes	790.00
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (5 per cent of circulation)	1,250.00
Total	$780,999.50
Liabilities.
Capital stock paid in	$100,000.00
Surplus fund	20,000.00
Undivided Profits, less Expenses and Taxes paid	30,707.93
National Bank Notes outstanding	22,800.00
Due to other National Banks	4,834.47
Due to State and Private Banks and Bankers	4,826.85
Individual deposits subject to check	505,540.96
Demand certificates of deposit	4,041.74
Time certificates of deposit payable within 30 days	14,563.41
Time certificates of deposit payable after 30 days or longer	68,685.98
Certified checks	2,269.40
Cashier's checks outstanding	1,414.24
Postal Savings deposits	19.52
Liabilities other than those above stated; Letters of Credit	1,192.00
Total	$780,999.50

State of Oregon, County of Morrow, ss:
I, T. J. Mahoney, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
T. J. MAHONEY, Cashier.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 6th day of July, 1914.
S. W. SPENCER, Notary Public.
CORRECT—Attest:
M. S. GORRIGALL,
E. B. NATTER,
FRANK GILLIAM,
Directors.

Who's Your Tailor?

Are You Seeking Tailoring?

Then consider the question of quality as well as cost. Investigate the satisfaction and service-value found in tailored-to-order clothes. Don't let anyone sell you who can't deliver the goods. Quality is as quality does, when it comes to tailoring.

Ed. V. Price & Co.

Style and service spell satisfaction in clothes you get here. See our new woolens and leave your measure—TODAY. Prices reasonable.

See Minor & Co. About It

BOWERS' SHOE REPAIRING SHOP.

We have just opened up for business in the Garrigues Building on Main Street. We will treat you fair and will appreciate a share of your patronage.

We Can Do All Kinds of Repair Work.

WE SELL THE BEST HARDWARE

LISTEN!

On Monday there was unloaded at Lexington, a brand new Case thrasher and gasoline engine for Wm. Padberg. This is the first gas thrasher in these parts and was the cause of much comment. It was sold by Vaughn & Sons of Heppner.

Wheat has been coming in to the warehouse for several days. It is of a good quality and weighs well. This wheat is from the farm of Andrew Reaney, and the first carload of the season went out from Lexington for Portland last Friday. It was all Reaney's wheat.

Fresh ice cream every day at the Palm.

Bishop Scott School

Yamhill, Oregon. For Boys

Under Auspices
Episcopal Diocese of Oregon

FALL TERM OPENS

Sept. 23rd, 1914.

Grammar School and College Preparatory courses. School estate comprises 100 acres of fertile land. Complete gymnasium, swimming pool, indoor and outdoor athletics. Library, study halls, competent instruction in all branches. Send for rates and booklet: "Where Boys are trained to think."

Address:
BISHOP SCOTT SCHOOL,
Yamhill, Oregon

Gilliam & Bisbee

HEPPNER, OREGON

WE SOCK THE KNIFE INTO PRICES ON HARDWARE. A BIG BUSINESS AT LITTLE PRICES IS OUR WAY OF DOING BUSINESS.

WE ARE NOT AFRAID THAT OUR BUSINESS IS SOON GOING TO BLOW UP. WE ARE HERE TO STAY, BY CARRYING WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT AND BY DOING A SQUARE BUSINESS. TRY US AND FIND OUT WHETHER WE STATE FACTS OR NOT. WE WILL PROVE TO YOU THAT WE MEAN WHAT WE SAY.

COME AND SEE US.