Harry Morgan returned from Portland last Friday evening where he had gone to see his brother, Will, who is in a hospital there. Harry says that Will was hurt pretty bad about two months ago at Huntington, where he had been working in the railroad yards. He was loading some heavy machinery into a car, and a truck load of it, losing its balance, fell over on him, hurting his back. The injured man was taken to Portland, where it was found that he was in a far worse condition than was first thought. He is slowly recovering.

Drs. Lowe & Turner, the well-known eye specialists of Portland will be in Heppner again at Palace hotel parlors, Saturday and Sunday, July 25th and 26th. Don't fail to consult them about your eyes and glasses. They have had years of hard, practical experience, and know their business thoroughly in all its branches. They give your eyes a most thorough, searching and scientific examination, and when they prescribe glasses it is with positive and absolute certainty that they are the best and only kind suited to your eyes. If you do not need glasses they most positively will not recommend them. Drs. Lowe & Turner do not go from house to house. Consult them at their Hotel office. Remember the date. Scores of references.

Dillard French, of Big Butter creek returned home on Tuesday via Heppner from Portland where he had been making a delivery of three cars of beef cattle.
