

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

Fresh ice cream every day at the Palm.

A. L. Sparling is up from Portland for a few days.

J. H. Kinsman returned on Saturday from a visit to towns in Idaho.

John Kilkenny and wife, of Sand Hollow, spent yesterday in the city.

For choice cold meats for your lunch, call on Peoples' Cash Market.

Master Max Rogers departed Saturday to join the folks at Rockaway beach.

Chas. Stanton, of Eight Mile, was in town after a load of wheat sacks on Saturday.

Those electric fans from the Heppner Light & Water Co. can certainly stir up a breeze.

S. J. Ritchie, a north-end farmer, was doing business in Heppner on Friday.

Born—In Heppner, Friday, July 24, to the wife of Grover Swaggart, a daughter.

Heppner Milling Co. have a new ad. in this issue. Give it your careful attention.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Robison of Hardman, were visitors in Heppner on Wednesday.

Ladies—Get away from the heat of the stove and do your ironing with an electric iron.

Wm. Ayers, hotelman of Hardman, accompanied by his wife, spent Tuesday in Heppner.

Postmaster E. T. Perkins, of Ione, is reported to be very sick at his home in that city.

If you want spring chicken for Sunday dinner, leave orders on Friday. Peoples' Cash Market.

Elmer Beaman and Jim Simons were released from the quarantine station on Monday.

Born—On Friday, July 24, 1914, to Mr. and Mrs. Lee White, of Sand Hollow, a daughter.

Storage batteries charged at Heppner Light & Water Co. Prices range from $1.50 to $1.75 for recharging.

Born—In Ione, Oregon, Tuesday, July 28, 1914, to Rev. N. O. Williams and wife, a daughter.

Mrs. Fisher, mother of Mrs. Glenn Y. Wells, is visiting at the home of her daughter in this city.

Holgate is at the City Meat Market. Call for one of those Hamburger specials. You remember them.

Mrs. Clyde Wells and young son, Horace, left on Sunday on a visit to relatives at Gold Hill, Oregon.

Oscar Schaffer was over from Monument on Wednesday to look after some business affairs in this city.

Any one wanting a lady to do cooking during harvest may call at Gazette-Times office for address.

James Sheridan, who is running the Harry Jones ranch, was a business visitor in Heppner yesterday.

Born—At their home in Blackhorse, to Mr. and Mrs. Kent Rakes, on Thursday, July 23, 1914, a daughter.

Did you read our new adv.? We will furnish you the goods and give you a square deal. City Meat Market.

Guy Huston and wife motored to town on Friday afternoon from their Eight Mile home to do some shopping.

J. L. Swift and wife of Hardman, returned on Monday from a visit at Portland. They went out home on Tuesday.

Get away from the heat of baking during these warm summer days and buy the necessaries at the Heppner Bakery.

W. C. Lacey is up from Portland to look after his interests in this county. He will remain here for two or three weeks.

Deputy Clerk Mallory returned on Sunday evening from his vacation of two weeks spent at Portland and other outside points.

S. W. Wattenburger returned on Tuesday to his home at Pendleton after spending the past week here looking after his property.

An electric iron for 75 cents per month. Pay for the current at this rate for 12 months and the iron is yours.

W. E. White and family returned from a three weeks visit in Portland on last evening and departed this morning for their home at Monument.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thomson departed Monday for Fort Collins, Colorado where they will visit at the home of Mrs. Thomson's parents for a time.

If you want anything special in the meat line—crown roast lamb, mutton, English or French chops—you can get them at the City Meat Market.

W. O. Minor and family departed on Tuesday for Rockaway beach, Tillamook county, where they will take up their abode for the next couple of months.

Harry L. Hill, an artist and sign writer, of Brooklyn, New York, was in Heppner on Thursday. While here Mr. Hill did some fancy window signs for Patterson & Son.

Good, home cured bacon; extra fine homemade lard. Low prices Peoples' Cash Market.

F. M. Courter, formerly a prominent farmer of the Eight Mile country in this county, came over from Centralia, Wash., on Sunday on a short visit to the old home.

G. F. and S. G. McMillan, of Lexington, purchased tickets at Heppner on Wednesday and departed this morning to spend a short season of recreation at Rockaway Beach.

O. S. Hodsdon, prominent farmer of the Strawberry section, was a visitor in Heppner on Friday. Since adopting the "Ford Method" of travel, Mr. Hodsdon finds the distance between his farm and the county seat greatly shortened.

Jesse Hale and wife returned to Heppner on Saturday from Marshfield, Oregon, where they have been living for the past year, and where Mr. Hale has been engaged at the carpenter's trade. They will make their home here again.

When you have used one of those electric irons you will never again be without one. There are many other conveniences also that the day current makes possible for you, and that will lighten your burdens. See Heppner Light & Water Co.

Rev. H. O. Perry, District Superintendent of The Dalles District of the M. E. Church, will preach at the Federated church Friday evening, at 8 o'clock. Everybody cordially invited. A meeting of the official board will follow the preaching service.

Pendleton E. O.: L. K. Harlan, who was located here for a time several years ago and is a baseball pitcher of some renown, was here last evening. He is preparing to establish a paper at Echo. He will use the plant that was formerly in use at Ione.

Ralph Benge, Social Ridge farmer, was doing business in Heppner on Saturday. He is right in the midst of his wheat harvest and expects a yield of 20 bushels, taking the place all over. Some of his wheat is doing better than this, and a portion will be a little short of this estimate. It is all A1 grain.

B. R. Patterson and wife returned from Portland by auto on Monday morning. They have been absent visiting in the city for the past two weeks, and were accompanied home by Mrs. H. W. Bartholomew and her two granddaughters, the Misses Margaret and Katherine West who will visit here for two or three weeks.

Karl Beach was up from Lexington on Friday. He states that W. G. Scott and W. E. Leach are just completing an up-to-date garage building at that place which will be equipped with all the latest repairing machinery and automobile accessories. Mr. Beach, with his partner, Mr. Allyn, will have charge of the repair department.

Ora Adkins, who was in town on Saturday from his home on Rhea creek, reports that his father, J. J. Adkins, who was so seriously hurt a short time ago, as slightly improving but yet a very sick man and not entirely free from the partial paralysis caused from his injuries. The many friends of Mr. Adkins are hoping for his early recovery.

Mrs. E. D. Brown, who has been absent from Heppner for several weeks visiting with relatives in Dakota and Minnesota, is now enjoying a visit with her brother residing at Saskatoon, and with friends at Edmonton, two beautiful cities of the Canadian Northwest. She expects to return home in about three weeks, via Vancouver, B. C., where Mr. Brown's mother resides.

Pendleton E. O.: W. G. Copley, who has been here gathering statistics for the government, left for Heppner where he will do similar work. While here he got figures on the valuation of property owned by city and county and these figures will be sent to Washington for publication by the government. This is the first time in ten years that such a census has been taken in this country.

Frank Wyner, who recently came to Heppner from Salem, has decided to locate here. He is engaged in the business of buying hides, pelts and furs, and is well pleased with the outlook. He is on the road a good deal of the time in connection with his business, and anyone wanting to consult him can get in touch with him through the office of Phill Cohn. Mr. Wyner hopes to become a permanent resident of Heppner.

Two interesting and instructive addresses were delivered in Heppner on Sunday by S. W. Grathwell, of Pacific University, of Forest Grove. Mr. Grathwell is a gifted young man and an orator of much ability who is doing good work in stirring up enthusiasm for the "Out to Win" campaign of the Prohibition forces. He will address the people of Morrow county at other points along the points of the railroad and may decide to visit Heppner again before the campaign is over. He should be heard to be appreciated.

A short visit to the Eight Mile section on Tuesday revealed the fact that the farmers out there are a very busy set of people these days. Headers and combined harvesters are running in all directions, and many are the fine stacks of grain that are piling up to receive the thresher a little later, while the combines are dropping hundreds, and even thousands of filled sacks over the fields where they are working. Some report the crop a little short on the average yield of what it was two years ago, yet there is a lot of mighty fine grain being harvested, and we opine it will be well into the winter months before the most of it is in the warehouses along the railroad.

S. A. Simpson and wife, who have been visiting for the past month at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Simpson in Heppner, departed Monday on their return trip to their home in Indiana. On the way east they will visit at several cities of the Northwest, among them being Portland, Seattle and Spokane, making stops of several days at these places to see the sights. Mr. Simpson is engaged in the hotel business at Medairyville, Indiana.

Mayor W. W. Smead, accompanied by Mrs. Smead, departed on Wednesday for Portland. The Mayor will be absent from Heppner for 20 days, and after a few days in the city attending to business matters, he will go to the coast to get the benefits to be derived from inhaling the sea breezes for a few weeks. Mrs. Smead will remain in Portland and visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. M. White.

Jake Young and son were Heppner visitors on Friday, coming to town for some supplies for the harvest crew. He is having a good harvest. In fact, Mr. Young states that so far it has been the best season he has experienced since farming in Morrow county. Up to date there has been nothing to interfere with the work and out of fifteen days run the crew has had to lay off but one half day, this being caused by a slight wind and rain storm.

Mrs. F. J. Hawn and daughter, Miss Derva, of Portland, who have been visiting for the past three weeks at the home of Mrs. L. N. Christensen departed on Friday morning for Grandview, Wash. They will visit relatives at that place for some time before returning to their Portland home.

The family of E. E. Vickers arrived on Sunday evening from Walla Walla and are located in the Ayers house on the corner of Court and May streets. Mr. Vickers recently came to Heppner and is engaged in working at his trade of painter and paper hanger.

Mrs. Leo Gay arrived from Richfield, Wash., on Sunday to join her husband, and will visit for a time at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gay on Rhea creek. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss May Carter, of Pomeroy, Wash.

Mrs. Claud Andrews, wife of Conductor Andrews of the Heppner local and their young daughter, returned on Tuesday to The Dalles after a visit of a week with Mr. Andrews in this city. Mr. Andrews expects to move his family here by about the first of September, or at least by the opening of the fall term of school.

R. A. Wilkins and wife of Portland, who are making a trip through the country by auto, visited at the home of J. L. Wilkins and family yesterday and today. Mr. Wilkins is a brother of the Heppner hotel man and is a commercial traveler.

J. T. Ayers, of Galloway, visited Heppner on Friday. He was pretty badly damaged on his second crop of alfalfa by the grasshoppers but the pests have mostly departed from his immediate locality and he expects to get a fairly good third crop.

Mrs. C. L. Keithley returned from Portland on Thursday last. She had been absent for three weeks receiving surgical treatment for a shattered jaw bone and is much improved. Mrs. Keithley has joined her husband at the Ditch Creek forest camp.

Mrs. L. W. Hill arrived at Heppner Saturday last from Hood River and expects to remain in this county for some time. She has been in quite poor health for some months past and hopes that a stay here will be beneficial to her.

Omar Stanton and Herman Neilson of Hardman were in Heppner over Friday and left on Saturday with four-horse teams well laden with supplies for the harvest which begins with them this week. They took out extra wagons and a newly outfitted water tank to be used in connection with their combined harvester.

Mrs. Effie J. Knighten, formerly a resident of this county, and who has been visiting for a time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Robison near Hardman, departed for her home at Centralia, Wash., on Wednesday.

The Connecting Links In The Chain of Health

Folger's Golden Gate

Coffee Spices Baking Powder

Sold on Merit

Minor & Co., DISTRIBUTORS, HEPPNER, ORE.

L. D. Howland, former water master of this district and now assistant water superintendent of Eastern Oregon with headquarters at La Grande lies in a hospital at Ontario with both legs broken and his right foot crushed as the consequence of an auto accident two miles east of Beulah which is 65 miles from Vale. The accident happened on Saturday last.

Mrs. E. F. Lucas, mother of J. F. Lucas, returned to her home at Wasco, Oregon, on Sunday last after a visit with her son and family here. She was accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Thelma Lucas, who will make her home at Wasco for a time.

R. E. Rice of Strawberry, has finished his wheat harvest and is quite well pleased with the outcome. Grain in his locality that has been threshed is turning out far better than was expected.

Judge C. C. Patterson and his two sons, Andrew and Beard, took their departure for the mountain retreat in the vicinity of Herren's mill on Sunday where they will spend a short vacation.

J. W. Becket, of Portland, who is spending a few weeks in Morrow county looking after his crop interests in the Eight Mile section, was a visitor in Heppner on Saturday.

J. L. Wilkins and family, accompanied by Mrs. George Woodbury and son, spent Sunday at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Justus in the foothills east of Heppner.

Fred Lucas and family will depart for the mountains tomorrow where they expect to remain for some time, going into camp near the head waters of Willow creek.

R. B. Miller, traffic manager of the O.-W. R. & N. Co., was in Heppner on Saturday, looking after interests of the company here. He came by private car.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold a window sale of good things for the Sunday dinner at the store of Mrs. F. Luper on Saturday.

Banker T. J. Mahoney went to Stevenson, Wash., on Tuesday to attend to some business matters. He will return home tomorrow.

Dr. F. N. Christenson leaves Sunday for a vacation of a couple of weeks which he will spend at one of the coast resorts.

Attorney Glenn Y. Wells and family departed for the mountains on Wednesday to spend a short vacation.

Phill Caples, hardware drummer of The Dalles, was doing Heppner yesterday and today.

The young lady friends of Mrs. Albert Bowker gave her a linen shower Tuesday evening.

W. L. Smith, accompanied by his mother, left for Portland this morning on a short vacation.

E. G. Noble was a passenger to Hot Lake this morning where he goes to spend a short vacation.

Reparation. Judge to prisoner at the bar—So you confess that you robbed the savings bank. Have you anything to urge in the way of extenuating circumstances? The Prisoner—I have, y' honor. I deposited all the money in the savings bank the very next day. —New York Post.

Didn't Want to Lose Her. "Why are you going around in that horrible coat?" "My wife needs a new gown." "You shouldn't spend all your money on her." "Well, if she doesn't get that new gown I'm afraid she'll get a new husband."—Exchange.

What to Take For It. Smart—I know just what to take for seasickness. Waggles (eagerly)—Do you? What is it? Smart—An ocean steamer.

Were Equipped For Business. Several big teams pulled out of Heppner on Friday last laden with household goods, implements, pigs, chickens, and calves, bound for Grant county. They were the outfits of Capt. M. C. Robbins and Mr. James E. Porter of Tacoma and Seattle, the gentlemen who recently purchased through D. E. Gilman, of Heppner, the Gilmore ranch, owned by the J. H. McHaley estate. These gentlemen were also taking out with them a fine bunch of milk cows; in fact they pulled up what they had over in the Washington country that was movable and have transferred the same to their new Grant county possessions, coming thoroughly well equipped to go right to work and get a revenue from the ranch. It took five wagons to load the stuff from the car at Heppner. The families of Messrs. Robbins and Porter will arrive later and proceed to Grant county when the farm over there is put in shape to receive them. In the meantime they may locate at Heppner for a while.

Young Man Hurt. A young man by the name of Murphy, working with the C. D. Huston threshing crew on Eight Mile, was very seriously hurt on Sunday last. He was driving the water wagon and his team ran away, throwing him under the rig. His right forearm was broken in two places just above the wrist and he received other bruises and hurts. The team coming in without driver and wagon was the first intimation that anything was wrong, and going out on the road, young Murphy was found pinned under the tank with the water pouring out over him. Being relieved of his perilous situation at once and taken to the house, Dr. McMurdo was hastily called from Heppner and made proper adjustments of the broken bones and Murphy is now reported to be getting along well. The young man's home is at Bend, and he is over here with his father and another brother who are working in the Morrow county harvest fields.

Eugene Register: Stephen A. Stone for the past year engaged in newspaper work at Eugene, left yesterday afternoon, with his wife, for Pendleton, where he takes a position as managing editor of the Pendleton Tribune. Mr. Stone is a graduate of Whitman College at Walla Walla and has been in the newspaper business for several years. He has been connected with the Morning Register.

His Wife His Business. The hungry tramp told his tale. It touched the kind heart of the lady of the house. He ate the food she gave him and started wearily on his way. "And how," she said sympathetically, "did the hand laundry you were managing come to fall on you?" He glanced round, it might be as if he suspected the dog were within call. Then passing out and closing the gate, he said: "She quit and went home to her mother."—Kansas City Star.

Cause For Complaint. Sandy McTavish was sitting weeping at his fireside. "Eh, Sandy, mon," said a neighbor, peeping in at the open window, attracted by the signs of woe, "what's aillin' ye?" "Oh, dear! Oh, dear!" sobbed Sandy. "Donald McPherson's wife is dead." "Aweel," said the neighbor, "what o' that? She's nae relation o' yours, ye ken?" "I ken she's no'; but it jist seems as if everybody's gettin' a change but me."—August Lippincott's