

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Fresh ice cream every day at the Palm.

Prewitt Cox went to Portland last Sunday.

Mrs. Roy Missildine of Blackhorse went to Newport last Friday.

Dick Turpin, the lone barber, was a visitor in Heppner on Tuesday.

R. F. Wigglesworth, Butter creek rancher, was in Heppner Saturday.

Ed Keeney, postmaster, of Monument, was in Heppner Thursday last.

Mrs. Louis McGowan departed for Portland Monday on an extended visit.

For choice cold meats for your lunch, call on Peoples' Cash Market.

William Hughes and his son, Will, are in Heppner this week from Portland.

M. L. Case went to Portland Wednesday to take in a portion of Buyers' Week.

C. E. Shaw, traveling auditor of the O.-W. R. & N. Co., spent Tuesday in Heppner.

Waldo Vincent and wife, of Butter creek, are visiting in Heppner for a few days.

Those electric fans from the Heppner Light & Water Co. can certainly stir up a breeze.

L. E. Bisbee and family are at present enjoying a vacation in the mountains at Parkers Mill.

Dr. C. O. Prentice went to Wasco Monday, where he will probably be permanently located.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Luper, accompanied by Miles Potter, came over from Spray yesterday.

L. E. McBee, prominent alfalfa farmer and stockraiser of Cecil, was in Heppner on Monday.

W. L. Smith returned home Monday evening, after taking a vacation of two weeks in Portland.

Oscar Otto returned on Monday from a business visit of two weeks in the John Day country.

Inquire about the prices of Compound, fresh Dried Beef, and Lard at the Peoples' Cash Market.

Hiram Clark and wife are visiting this week at the home of Mrs. Clark's sister, Mrs. Vincent, at Monument.

If you want spring chicken for Sunday dinner, leave orders on Friday. Peoples' Cash Market.

A. L. Hudson, the Hardman merchant, was in Heppner Monday on his way to spend Buyers' Week in Portland.

An electric iron for 75 cents per month. Pay for the current at this rate for 12 months and the iron is yours.

Mrs. Kate Lane and children are visiting with relatives in Heppner. Mrs. Lane formerly resided at Lexington.

Chas. Stanton has begun the transfer of his wheat crop from his fields on Eight Mile to the warehouse in Heppner.

Percy Jarmon, of Butter creek, visited Heppner on Friday last. Mr. Jarmon continues to rapidly recover his health.

Electric fans are just the thing these warm days. The Heppner Light & Water Co. can install one for you at any time.

O. B. Gates returned to his Portland home Sunday after remaining in this city several days, looking after business interests.

Mrs. George J. Currin departed on Tuesday morning for Gresham, Oregon where she will visit for a short time with relatives.

E. G. Noble returned from a visit to watering places on the Columbia below The Dalles, where he has been to recuperate his health.

Misses Cora Mae and Mary Crawford are spending the week at the mountain home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Keithley on Ditch creek.

Greenwood Thornton, accompanied by his grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Ayers, left for Portland last Friday, where they will remain for two weeks.

S. P. Garrigues came up from Portland yesterday and will spend ten days or two weeks in Heppner looking after business interests here.

Miss Bess Huddleston and niece Miss Ruth Huddleston, left Monday morning for Portland and Seattle. They will be gone several weeks.

R. G. Sheldon spent a few days at Portland and Eugene the past week. He returned home Monday and has resumed his duties at the Palace hotel.

T. J. Humphreys and two children and Cecil Humphreys and family are at the Ditch Creek camp where they will spend a few weeks of the heated term.

J. S. Baldwin and family spent Sunday at Lexington, visiting at the home of Andrew Reaney and Mrs. S. E. Lee. Mrs. Lee will leave soon for California.

Mrs. Clyde Brock and daughter Katherine returned on Wednesday from a visit of a month with relatives in the Willamette Valley at Salem and Lebanon.

L. C. Cramer, representing the Union Meat Co., of Portland, is in Heppner and vicinity this week working up business for the creamery operated by these people.

Miss Ethel Howey, trained nurse from The Dalles who was called to wait on J. J. Adkins, was called home Sunday by the sudden and very severe illness of her mother.

E. R. Huston was in from Eight Mile on Tuesday. While weather has been hot out his way, it has been good for harvest and much has been accomplished along this line.

Shaniko Star: Station Agent Feldman and family left Saturday for a vacation. He was relieved by Mr. Kirkpatrick of Portland, who is filling the vacancy until the Feldmans return.

Commissioner Young, who was in from his farm on Saturday, has finished his heading and is well pleased with his outlook for a good return when it goes through the threshing machine.

Mrs. Harriet M. Stephens, of Hardman, brought her young daughter to Heppner on Friday last. The girl was quite sick and will have to remain in town for a time to receive treatment.

Rev. W. N. Ferris, pastor of the Federated church, will return from his vacation on Friday, and will resume regular services at his church on Sunday, preaching both morning and evening.

Mrs. C. H. Johnson, daughter-in-law of A. W. Johnson, residing just south of Heppner, returned to her home at Red Bluffs, Calif., on Wednesday after an extended visit with her relatives here.

Miss Anna Hooper, a teacher from Oklahoma, has been visiting in the county this week and may decide to accept a school and remain here. She and her brother may take up homesteads if they can find suitable land.

Rev. W. A. Orr, presiding elder of the Southern Methodist church, will be in Heppner over Sunday. He will preach both morning and evening at the M. E. church and the public of Heppner are cordially invited to attend.

R. D. Kelly, of the O.-W. R. & N. water service, and M. Duffy, division road master of the same company, with headquarters at The Dalles, were in Heppner this week attending to work in their respective departments.

Dr. Dye, Charley Jayne, Henry Cohn and Whit Maulden formed a party that left Heppner on Sunday, their destination being Desolation Lake. They will spend several weeks of an outing in various parts of the mountains.

Ben Hunlock, of Portland, is visiting with his father, Dr. E. R. Hunlock at Heppner this week. He is accompanied by his chum, Donald Robertson, and the boys will try to get work here for a short time in the harvest fields.

J. O. Hager and family, Dr. A. D. McMurdo and S. A. Wright departed this week for the Greenhorn. They go by auto as far as they can, their destination being the Stalter mine, and expect to be absent some two weeks or more.

Mrs. Mary A. Bartholomew, accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Ruth Saling, departed for Estacada on Wednesday. Mrs. Bartholomew will visit for a time with her daughters residing there, the Mrs. Clyde and E. E. Saling.

Alonzo Wright, who was quite seriously hurt in the fire at Hermiston last week, came over to Heppner on Friday and is now at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wright. He is slowly recovering from his injuries.

Mrs. Willard Herren left for Portland on Monday where she goes to meet the representative of the millinery establishment from the East that she purchases her goods from. While there she will lay in her Fall and Winter stock of millinery.

W. K. Livingston of Eugene, arrived in Heppner Sunday to join his wife, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Brown. Mr. Livingston has been engaged as an instructor in the Pendleton High School for the coming year.

Mrs. Mollie Johnson, formerly of Heppner, but of late years engaged in the real estate business in Walla Walla in which she has made a success, has entered politics over that way and is a candidate for representative in the legislature at the coming election.

W. C. Howard and family, who have been spending the summer at the Rhea creek home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Adkins, will depart the coming week for their new home at Stanfield, Oregon, where Mr. Howard has the principalship of the school for the coming winter.

Miss Winnifred Winnard arrived in Heppner Sunday to visit with relatives and friends. At the present time she is at the home of her uncle, Dr. N. E. Winnard. Miss Winnard was formerly engaged as a grade teacher in the local school and has many friends in this city.

Miss Etta Adams, daughter of J. A. Adams, of Hardman, and a graduate of O. A. C., 1914 class, took an examination before County Superintendent Notson the first of the week for a temporary certificate. Miss Adams will teach in the Hardman school this coming winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Jones, of Pasco, Wash., arrived at Heppner on Saturday evening and are visiting with the parents of Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Crawford, and other relatives in this city. Mr. Jones returned on Wednesday and Mrs. Jones will remain here for some weeks yet.

Oscar Borg now has installed at his jewelry store a new wireless equipment which enables him to get in touch with all the stations along the coast. Oscar put in this system primarily for the purpose of getting correct time which is sent out from the Mare Island station near San Francisco twice each day—12:00 M. and 10:00 P. M., and he should now be able to report to an interested public the most important of the war news as it comes along via the radio route.

Rev. H. S. Shangle, formerly of Milton and well known to Heppner people, has been forced to resign his pastorate of the Corbin Park Methodist Episcopal church, South, in Spokane where he has been pastor for the past two years. Mr. Shangle was presiding elder of the Milton district for four years and also financial manager of Columbia college at Milton before going to Spokane. His resignation is owing to ill health.

Jack Bower, who has been in this city for several days past working for the Chicago Portrait Co., was taken before Justice Cornett on Friday and fined $2.50 for driving his auto on the streets of Heppner after night without his lights. This gentleman is not the only person who has been guilty of this offense in Heppner of late, but perhaps others will now take heed of the law that he has been made an example of.

Sam. Hughes and Chas. Thomson left for Portland on Monday to represent the Heppner merchants at the festivities in connection with Buyers' Week, and to make minute speeches putting Heppner before the rest of the Northwest as the best town on the globe. They are just the fellows to do this as they both have reputations as public speakers, and will surely sustain their reputations on this important occasion.

According to news received here, Mr. George Kiser, the husband of Mrs. Amanda (McAtee) Kiser, died at his home in Portland on Saturday, August 1st. Mr. Kiser was a well-to-do citizen of Portland and interested in a line of river steamers. He had a fine home at 660 Water St. The many friends of Mrs. Kiser, residing at Heppner, extend their sympathy in this hour of bereavement.

Peter Sushauer shipped a carload of melons from his Irrigon farm up the Heppner branch on Saturday. These were distributed to parties at Ione, Lexington and Heppner. He was accompanied by L. B. Kicker. These gentlemen expect to be here ere long with a shipment of Irrigon peaches but did not announce just when to expect this as the fruit is ripening slowly.

Edward Notson, second son of S. E. Notson of this city, left Heppner Monday morning for Dunlap, Iowa, where he will remain through the winter at least, with his grandmother and his brother, Lee. He will have company on the entire trip. Miss Marcia Winnard, who goes East to visit relatives in the vicinity of Dunlap, will accompany him.

Attorney Van Vector suffered a severe break on his Franklin car one day last week while journeying to the mountains. This has laid the machine off for a time and it is banked out along the road near the L. A. Florence place. Mr. Van Vector has ordered the new part from the factory and in the meantime will have to be content to walk.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hall, accompanied by Mrs. T. E. Chidsey and daughter Neva, departed on a visit to relatives in Grant county on Friday, going in the car of Mr. Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will visit at John Day and other points nearby, and Mrs. Chidsey and daughter will stop at Hamilton where her mother resides.

Lou. S. Smith, assistant agriculturist of the O.-W. R. & N. Co. had his stay in Morrow county cut short by the breaking of his motorcycle yesterday, and he takes his departure for Portland this morning. He will not likely get back to this section again before the corn show at Walla Walla.

I. C. Bennett came over from Lone Rock the last of the week, bringing with him his son Alva and daughter Oma who were each suffering from a case of blood poisoning. After receiving treatment from a physician here they were placed in the road to rapid recovery.

Rhea Luper was a visitor in Heppner on Monday, coming over from Spray where he and Mrs. Luper are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Potter. He drives a Ford these days, and was accompanied to Heppner by Mr. Potter and C. F. Walters.

Dillard French shipped a car load of cattle to Portland last Saturday. He accompanied the shipment.

Holgate is at the City Meat Market. Call for one of those Hamburger specials. You remember them.

Mrs. M. O. Clarke, of Condon, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Harlan in Heppner.

Kinsman and Hall shipped a car of beef cattle to the Portland market yesterday.

Misses Margaret and Winnifred Ostin, successful Morrow county teachers, were down from Portland Wednesday.

A 11½ pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Neill, of Butter creek, in Heppner on Friday last. Mother and child reported to be doing well.

Tracy Wilcox, of Portland, formerly engaged in business in this county with the Nunamaker Sheep & Land Co., was in Heppner several days this week on business.

FIVE WEEKS MORE

THE CONTEST FOR 5 BIG PRIZES

- 1st. De Luxe Grafonola.
- 2nd. Colonial Queen Sewing Machine.
- 3rd. 20 Year Ladies Gold Watch. Elgin.
- 4th. Ladies Gold Watch. Midland.
- 5th. Silver Toilet Set.

Will Close on September 19th

The last day of the

2nd Annual Morrow County Fair

Contestants can boost their number by selling TRADE

BOOKS. You get 25000 votes when sold—5000 votes

when book is traded out. Purchaser gets Votes with trade coupons same as cash.

Come in and let us explain.

PINK VOTES MUST BE RECORDED BY WEDNESDAY, AUG. 19TH.

MINOR & CO.

THE GAZETTE-TIMES PRINTERY

COMPLETELY EQUIPPED TO HANDLE ALL CLASSES OF JOB PRINTING. Try them once and you are a steady customer. Anything from a calling card to a fancy catalogue.

Harvest Goods

WHEN you come in for your Harvest Supplies, don't overlook Thomson Bros., who are well prepared to fill your orders with the best goods at the lowest prices in town.

COME IN AND GET OUR PRICES.

THOMSON BROS.