T. W. Rippee and wife were visitors in Heppner from Eight Mile yesterday. Mr. Rippee has not quite finished all his threshing yet and he is among those of his section who are agreeably disappointed in the outcome. His wheat has turned out much better than he was expecting, making him an average of 2 1/2 bushels.

Robert L. Notson, brother of our fellow-townsmen, S. E. Notson, has recently been appointed to the position of postmaster of his home town, Herlington, Kansas, by President Wilson. Mr. Notson is the only one of a large family that lines up with the present administration, and he is receiving his reward for breaking away from the traditions of his people.

A. E. Anderson, of Eight Mile, was in Heppner on Thursday last. He had just finished his harvest of 800 acres of grain which is now in the stack ready for the thrasher. He fully expects a yield of 20 bushels to the acre, and like many others of his section, will have A No. 1 wheat. It has been an excellent season, and from beginning to the end of the run of the headers but one quarter of a day was lost on account of rain.

W. L. Copenhaver and son were in Heppner on Saturday from their farm near the Hodsdon schoolhouse. These gentlemen, besides raising good wheat crops, are extensively engaged in the poultry line and have a lot of the finest turkeys ever produced in Morrow county, this season. Lonie Copenhaver took first prize on his turkeys at the poultry show in Heppner last winter, and expects to be there stronger than ever this season.

Mrs. W. C. Shurte, of Arlington, is in Heppner looking up a residence in which to move her family and remain for the winter to take advantage of our schools. Her husband, W. C. Shurte, was at one time principal of the Heppner school, this being a great many years ago.

John Vaughn and Chas. Cox and their wives returned home at the end of the week, from an auto tour which extended as far as Tillamook. They report a splendid time, stopping at Portland and witnessing the ball games and the newsboys strike. Mr. Cox is suffering at the present time from a bad case of polson oak.

Dr. F. N. Christensen returned from his vacation, spent at Portland, last Thursday. He had intended to go to Tillamook for a few days, but his time was all taken up meeting old friends in Portland and his time limit expired before he had an opportunity to visit at the seaside. He was accompanied home by his niece, Miss Walva Farley.

Ora Yeager has decided to engage in the contracting and building trade at Heppner. He will begin work on the construction of an extensive addition to the farm residence of R. F. Wigglesworth on Butter creek this week, and as soon as this job is finished, Mr. Yeager will construct the new school house for District No. 3, near the Jas. Hayes place on Rhea creek.

The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement in this issue of Mrs. L. G. Herren. Mrs. Herren has just received the style book and samples from Victor Ladies Tailoring Company of Chicago, and the ladies of Heppner and vicinity are invited to call and inspect it. The styles are peculiarly nice and appropriate this season, and just now the prices are very moderate. All lines of dress goods are beginning to advance rapidly, and if you are contemplating getting a new suit you should call on Mrs. Herren and leave your order now. She may receive notice any day that prices have advanced. The line of new ribbons now on display is particularly appropriate to the present styles.

J. A. Gibbons, schoolmaster of Castle Rock, returned to his home at that place on Saturday after having spent the summer in the mountains in the vicinity of Parkers Mill. Mrs. Gibbons remained at Hardman to visit her people for a short time. Mr. Gibbons is much impressed with the prospects for the future of his section of Morrow county. There is promise now that a goodly portion of that country will be brought under irrigation, and when this happens the country round about Castle Rock will become very valuable. It can be made one of the best irrigation projects of the Northwest and there is prospect now that a large portion of it will be brought under the government ditch. Mr. Gibbons will teach the Castle Rock school again this winter.
