

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Style Book and complete line of Samples for Suits and Coats of VICTOR LADIES TAILORING COMPANY have arrived, and are now ready for your inspection. This is a very handsome line this season, and prices are very moderate.

I am also displaying a fine line of velvets and brocades, suitable for trimmings—something you have been unable to buy in Heppner heretofore. These go at wholesale prices. A complete assortment of ribbons, extra wide, and suitable for girdles.

These are in all the popular varieties and styles.

My Full Stock of Fall Millinery is Soon to Arrive.

MRS. L. G. HERREN

The "Greater Oregon"
With new buildings, better equipment, enlarged grounds, and many additions to its faculty, the University of Oregon will begin its thirty-ninth year Tuesday, September 15. Special training for Business, Journalism, Law, Medicine, Teaching, Library Work, Music, Architecture, Physical Training and Fine Arts. Largest and strongest departments of liberal education. Library of more than 10,000 volumes, two splendid gymnasiums, eleven buildings fully equipped. New $100,000 Administration Building in course of construction. Tuition Free. Dormitories for men and for women. Expenses low. Write for catalog and illustrated booklet. Addressing Registrar, UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, OREGON.

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Ralph Beckett was a business visitor in Heppner Tuesday.
Rufus Cochran was up from Ione for a few hours last Monday.
George Chapin was down from Hardman the first of the week.
Guy Huston and children were visitors in our city last Monday.
Frank Turner was in the city from his farm northeast of here, Saturday.
F. E. Bell, Blackhorse farmer and dairyman, was in Heppner on Saturday.
Martin Lovgren brought a load of wheat to town from his Eight Mile farm Monday.
Jesse O. Turner and Ed. Davison of Sand Hollow visited with friends on Heppner Flat Sunday.
W. J. Beymer, the Grant county stockman, took two carloads of beef cattle to Portland last week.
James McNamee and Will Ball returned on Tuesday from their vacation spent at Penland prairie.
What's the score? The Germans lost 8,000 killed and wounded and the allied forces lost equally as many.
The Newlon well drilling outfit is busy at the farm of Spencer Akers on Heppner ut where a new well is being bored.
George Vinson, for many years a farmer on Little Butter creek, was in Heppner Monday, after a load of supplies for his ranch.
Whit Mauldin and Percy Jarmon, prominent Butter creek farmers, were attending to matters of business in this city Monday.
Mrs. C. H. Ham, of Hardman, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Myrtle Ham, of Portland, was visiting in Heppner on Monday.
W. K. Corson spent several days in this city last week. Mr. Corson's home is in Ione, where he is connected with the F. S. Bender Co.
Mrs. F. Luper returned from Portland last Friday evening, after spending several weeks in the metropolis selecting her line of Fall millinery.
Mrs. Claude Andrews and daughter spent Friday in this city, returning to their home in The Dalles Saturday. Mr. Andrews is conductor on the local train.
Frank Evans, prosperous wheat raiser of the Lexington section, was a Heppner visitor Monday. Mr. Evans harvested another bumper crop this year.
Tom Hayward and F. Z. Putman, cattlemen of the Monument section, arrived in Heppner on Saturday evening with two cars of fat cattle which were shipped to the Portland market on Sunday.

Mrs. Ed Farnsworth and daughter of Rhea Siding, visited on Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Farnsworth, in Heppner, returning to their home Tuesday.
Emerson Keithley and family were in Heppner from Eight Mile Monday. Mrs. Keithley and the children departed for Idaho to visit with her parents for a short time.
Mrs. C. E. Ffll, of Redmond, who has been spending the past three months in Morrow county, departed on Monday for Boise, Idaho, where she will visit with a daughter.
Wm. Rhodes, who is at present engaged in hauling wheat to town for E. E. Adkins, is making preparations to prove up on his homestead located in the vicinity of Reid's mill.
John Elder came over from his home at Ritter Tuesday. He pronounces conditions excellent in that section of Grant county. There is an abundance of grass and the hay harvest was a bountiful one.
Marion Rounds, of Monument, was in Heppner the first of the week on his way to Salem with his son who is suffering a broken leg that is not healing properly. Mr. Round is taking the boy below for expert treatment.
A forest fire last Friday between Caplinger and Dutch Billy creeks, in the vicinity of the old Slocum Mill, burned an area of two hundred acres. Many valuable logs were burned before the fire could be put under control.
Chas. Morey drove in from Strawberry on Thursday, trailing behind him the Newlon automobile which was so disabled that its engine would not work. Mr. Newlon is busy with the machine this week and will have it going again.
Robert Owens, who has been held at the county jail in default of bail, on a charge of cattle stealing, was dismissed from that place by Sheriff Evans on Monday, the bail having been raised. C. E. Woodson is acting as attorney.
R. E. Allstott, of Eight Mile, has joined those who will henceforth travel in style. He purchased a Ford at Heppner Garage on Monday, and after taking a few lessons from Orve Rasmus, pulled out for home to give the wife and children a joy ride.
Emil Grotkopp was in town Monday to get some repairs for one of his wagons. He says the grasshoppers are numerous in his locality and he thinks they have taken his potato crop, at least they have eaten up all the vines, and if he finds the potatoes, it will be only by plowing for them.
G. W. Thompson has moved his family to town for the winter, and they are domiciled in their home here, preparing for the opening of school. Mr. Thompson is contemplating retiring from the farm for a time and rented his place to Emmett Jones who has been farming a portion of the Dutton land just west of town for the past three years.

Sam E. Van Vactor spent several days in Portland the past week.
Bert Stone, harness maker for E. G. Noble, is on the sick list this week.
S. P. Garrigues visited with W. G. Scott and family in Lexington on Thursday last.
C. T. Humphreys and family have returned from a vacation of two weeks at the Ditch creek camp.
Frank Robinson, prominent lone attorney, made a business trip to the county seat Tuesday evening.
L. K. Harlan and Glenn Wells made a trip by auto to Condon over the week-end. They returned home Monday.
W. T. Matlock, former Heppner resident and Morrow county stockman, is in the city from his home in Portland.
Paul Webb returned from a visit with his parents at Walla Walla Tuesday. He went out to the ranch yesterday.
Greenwood Thornton returned to Heppner from Portland Tuesday. He spent three weeks in the metropolis and had a very enjoyable time.
Arthur McAtee and Raymond Thornton departed for Independence Tuesday, to secure work at hop-picking for the next few weeks.
Mrs. Wilson O. Bayless was a passenger for Portland on last Thursday where she goes to visit with her sister, Mrs. Clarence White and family.
M. S. Corrigan, president of the First National Bank of Heppner and extensive farmer and sheepman of Butter creek, was in the city Tuesday.
Frank Fuchs, the baker, has purchased Elmer Beaman's Ford. This car is practically as good as new and Mr. Fuchs feels that he got a good bargain.

O. G. Crawford is moving his family and household furnishings to the Keithley residence in West Heppner. The house was formerly occupied by L. G. McGowan.
Mrs. H. A. Emerson and baby daughter left for Portland Thursday and will spend some weeks in that city visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Horner.
Josephine Richardson departed on Thursday for Union, Oregon, where she will spend some two weeks visiting at the home of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Goodbrood.
Miss Maude Griffiths went to Oregon City last Monday. Miss Griffiths has been visiting for the past several months at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John Patterson. Her home is at Hillsboro.
Jesse Hale has rented the Bayless house in South Heppner, recently occupied by Henry Schwarz, and has moved his household effects thereto. Mr. Schwarz is again domiciled in the Freeland house in the southeastern part of town.

W. O. Minor came up from Rockaway beach on Friday and remained over Saturday, closing up a deal for his Mountain Valley Farm. He returned to Rockaway on Monday where his family is enjoying a fine summer's outing.
A. J. Walker, general agent of Western Mutual Life Association, an insurance organization for Masons only, was in Heppner a few days this week interviewing members of the order here and interesting them in the good qualities of the Association.
W. K. Livingston returned from Pendleton last Thursday where he had gone in quest of a house for renting purposes. He says that Pendleton, like Heppner, is very short on houses for rent. He was unable to secure a house, all of them being filled at this time.
East Oregonian: Dr. Frank E. Boyden, who has been absent in Europe for several months and who has been taking some extra work in the east since landing in New York, is enroute home today in response to a summons from Mayor Matlock who is seriously ill. A telegram reached him in Chicago last night. The trip to Pendleton will require about three days.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fitch

FIGURE IT OUT.

BECOME A PROPERTY HOLDER

Lots valued from $25.00. Located in the heart of California—the great resort center near San Francisco.

2	—	6
—	5	—
4	—	8

In order to advertise directly, we will give deed and title to one of our 25 x 100 foot lots to a limited number of persons sending us the exact solution of the above problem.

PROBLEM: Fill in the missing numbers now represented by dashes so that the sums of each column will be 15 each way; that is, horizontally, vertically, and diagonally.

Address replies to Central Building & Financing Company, 723 Chamber of Commerce Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

AT MINOR & CO'S.

For September Only

1000 Votes will be given for every dollar paid on book accounts between the

1st and 19th of September

BE QUICK TO ACCEPT THE ADVANTAGES OF THIS OFFERING AND REMEMBER THERE ARE ONLY FOUR WEEKS REMAINING OF THE CONTEST. EVERY MINUTE SPENT NOW IN ACQUIRING VOTES MEANS A BIG ADVANCEMENT OF YOUR EXCELLENT POSSIBILITIES.

THE CONTEST, LASTING THROUGH THE "BIGGER AND BETTER" MORROW COUNTY FAIR GIVES YOU OPPORTUNITIES, OTHERWISE LOST. YOU WILL BE ASSOCIATED WITH PEOPLE FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY THUS ENABLING YOU TO BOOST YOUR STANDING, AS YOU WILL.

LIST OF PRIZES GIVEN SEPT. 19

- 1st. $200 De Luxe Grafonola.
- 2nd. "Columbia Queen" Sewing Machine.
- 3rd. Gold Watch, 20-Year Case.
- 4th. Handsome Gold Watch.
- 5th. Beautiful Toilet Set.

THE GAZETTE-TIMES PRINTERY

COMPLETELY EQUIPPED TO HANDLE ALL CLASSES OF JOB PRINTING. Try them once and you are a steady customer. Anything from a calling card to a fancy catalogue.

New Fall Suits

You'll find displayed at our Store all the late Fall weaves and color tones in the handsomely modeled

Collegian Clothes

Navy Serges, finished and unfinished worsteds, hairline stripes and novelty woollens, in box back and conservative models, modestly priced

$15.00 TO $25.00

Something new in four-in-hand ties:
BUNNY HUG TANGO and BALMACAANS

THOMSON BROS.