Del Ward finished threshing his wheat this week. Jeff Jones' machine did the work.

The California ballot is four feet long, states a headline. She hasn't got a whole lot on Oregon.

Silas A. Harris is down from the Hardman country today. The old gentleman is feeling somewhat under the weather of late.

Harvie Young departed for the Willamette valley hop yards yesterday. After spending two weeks there, he will go on to Eugene, where he will enter the University of Oregon as a freshman.

State troops in Montana have mobilized for action in Butte, where they seem to be having a little war of their own. The local officers in Butte admit that the situation of the insurgent miners is beyond their control.

Reid Bros. this week moved their planing machine from the mill on Thorn creek to their mill in Heppner, exchanging it for the one in the Slocum plant. This latter machine will be taken to the mill to do certain lines of work there as the lumber is taken from the saws.

W. K. Livingston and wife went to their new home at Pendleton Tuesday, after visiting for several days at the home of Mrs. Livingston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Brown. Mr. Livingston will take up his new work as a faculty member of the Pendleton high school in a few days.

F. M. Griffin, the Fairview farmer was in the city Monday transacting business. Frank says he has been working all summer so he would have enough to buy a pair of shoes and a new hat, so he could come to the Morrow County Fair. He says crops were mediocre in his district this year.

The Cummings & Bauman thresher that was burned by a smut explosion at the Henry F. Blahm place a couple of weeks ago, is at work again. This is a steel machine and was burned out of the inside, requiring a lay-off of about a week to get the necessary repairs up from Portland. These being placed, the machine is now about as good as new.

O. L. Bates was down from Hardman on Saturday. The Bates Bros. thresher has finished work and been put away for the winter. They have a good outfit, run by gasoline engine and made a fine run, a sample of the work done being the threshing of 8500 sacks in three days and making several moves in the meantime. Mr. Bates is well pleased with the results of the season's run.

W. B. Ewing, who was in Heppner from Cecil a couple of days the first of the week, states that his section is putting up its usual third crop of alfalfa, the grasshoppers having done no damage down that way. He also spoke of the splendid time his family enjoyed on the 25th of Aug. in the celebration of their silver wedding anniversary, which was participated in by many of their friends at their home on this date. Mr. Ewing is interested in a piece of land recently purchased from Minor Bros. on Caplinger and was here for the purpose of buying a bunch of cattle to be run on the Willow creek farm during the winter and then taken to the mountains for the summer range.
