

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Leo Gay was in from Rhea creek on Saturday.

Dan Hanshaw was in from Black Horse Saturday.

Robert Sperry, of Morgan, was a Friday visitor in Heppner.

Claus Johnson of Gooseberry was a Heppner visitor Saturday.

Anson Wright was in the city Saturday after a load of supplies.

Olaf Bergstrom of Eight Mile is now hauling his wheat to Heppner.

Ernest Moyer, Blackhorse farmer, was doing business in Heppner on Saturday.

George Sperry and bride returned home from their honeymoon trip on Thursday last.

Frank Turner was in town Saturday after a hired man. He took one out with him.

Dr. John B. Dye, the lone dentist, spent Sunday in Heppner with his brother, Dr. F. Dye.

H. V. Gates came up from Portland last Thursday to look after business interests in this city.

Mrs. Jim Carty and family were week end visitors in our city from their home at Tub Springs.

Miss Muriel McCarty went to The Dalles Monday, where she will re-enter school for the winter.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Hart at their home in Heppner on Friday, Sept. 4.

Walter Drum was down from the Parkers Mill section Monday. He was accompanied by his wife.

H. V. Gates, president of Heppner Light & Water Co., departed on Tuesday for his home in Portland.

George Flint, one of Lexington's hustling young business men, was up to the county seat town last Friday.

Ed. Adkins finished his threshing last Saturday and pulled in. He made a run of about four weeks.

Mrs. Louis Campbell of Pendleton is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Campbell in this city.

Ralph Bengt and W. H. Padberg, successful Clark's Canyon farmers, were visitors in Heppner Saturday.

Judge W. P. Dutton came up from Portland last Thursday and is spending several days in this city on business.

Jeff Jones passed through town with his threshing outfit Saturday. He has a two week's run before he will be through.

Rev. T. S. Handsaker made a trip to Portland the first of the week where he was called on business. He returned home on Wednesday.

Rev. W. T. Goulder returned from Weston Monday evening where he had gone to attend the annual conference of the Methodist church, south.

Frank Glasscock was doing business in Heppner Saturday. He is one of our farmers who realized a big price for his grain, getting $1.02 1/2 per bushel.

Geo. J. Currin, accompanied by his little daughter, Virginia, went to Wasco on Sunday and they will spend a few days in Sherman county with members of Mr. Currin's family residing there.

Mrs. Mike Szopaneck and two little children were visiting with Mr. Szopaneck in Heppner on Monday. Mrs. Szopaneck lives on their Sand Hollow homestead in the northern part of the county.

Mrs. W. Smith and son, of Portland, relatives of G. W. Dykestra, arrived in Heppner on Friday evening on a visit of a few days with Mr. Dykestra and other relatives in the vicinity of Heppner.

The family of Pete Brunton departed on Thursday last for Etna, Wash., where they expect to reside on a place they own there. Mr. Brunton has given up his place near Heppner, and will follow his family as soon as he gets his crop out of the way.

C. A. Minor and family returned on Friday last from their trip to the Yakima country in Washington. Mr. Minor states that there seems to be no end to the immense peach crop over there, and there is no market sufficient to handle it, large quantities going to waste.

The announcement heretofore made that the Gillman, Cox and Harlan cars would be withdrawn from the streets during fair time, is not true. This paper is authorized to state upon knowledge furnished direct, that No. 348 is to lead the parade and the others will follow. This is official.

Echo correspondent E. O.: M. B. Galloway of Clarkston, Wash., is here on business this week. Mr. Galloway attended school here at one time, later he was a successful photographer at Heppner, Ore., but for the last ten years he has made his home at Clarkston. His many old time friends were glad to see him.

M. H. Kapple arrived the first of the week from Astoria and is now at work installing his new line of goods in the Fair building. Mr. Kapple believes that he has chosen a good community and will make a strong bid for the business that has been going to the mail order houses in the past. He will be open for business by the end of the week.

Dave Brown of Black Horse was in the city Saturday.

A. L. Ayers was down from Parkers Mill on Tuesday.

Ralph Hymér was a Friday visitor in this city from Ione.

J. M. Hayes came in from his Rhea creek ranch yesterday.

Miles Potter of Spray spent several days in our city last week.

Mrs. C. E. Woodson and children are visiting in Portland this week.

David Hynd of Sand Hollow transacted business in Heppner last Friday.

Emmet Cochran and wife came over from their Grant county home last Friday.

W. B. Tucker was in town from his farm in the Black Horse section last Saturday.

Wm. Burger, the lone harness maker, attended the benefit ball in this city last Friday.

George Moore came down from his mountain home with a load of wood the last of the week.

Jeff Neel departed yesterday for Portland to spend a holiday and get some much needed rest.

Chas. Burchell, wheat grower of near Lexington, transacted business in Heppner last Saturday.

Several of the Lexington young people came up for the dance at the Fair pavilion Friday evening.

Roy Ashbaugh is now riding in a Ford, the same being purchased last week from the Heppner garage.

Oscar Borg has received another new Buick to take the place of the one he recently sold to Lefe Penland.

F. E. Bell was in the city from Black Horse Saturday. Mr. Bell is now driving a fine team of black horses.

Luther Huston, Eight Mile farmer and breeder of fine horses, was attending to matters of business in the city Saturday.

J. T. Knappenberg and wife attended the benefit ball at the Fair Association grounds in this city last Friday evening.

Miss Lora Murphy passed through Heppner last Friday, on her way to Monument, where she will teach school through the winter.

Lee Scrivener has purchased a 1914 Hupmobile with all the improvements through Mr. Blake, the Morrow county agent for the car.—Cannon Times.

Rev. E. R. Beach and wife were Heppner visitors from Lexington on Thursday last. Mr. Beach has not been well of late and comes to Heppner to receive treatment.

M. S. Corrigan, president of the First National Bank of Heppner, came in from his Butter creek ranch Saturday and spent the day looking after his business interests.

W. L. Barlow, a prosperous farmer of the Ione section, was in Heppner last Friday transacting business. Mr. Barlow states that crops were fairly good down there this year, but conditions, generally, are pretty dry.

Amos Wineland and Nellie M. Miller were married last Wednesday evening in this city at the parsonage of the Methodist church, south. Rev. W. T. Goulder performed the ceremony. The young people are from Fossil.

L. B. Kicker of Irrigon, well known in this city, has accepted a position in the Milton schools for the coming year. Mr. Kicker and family moved to Milton this week. They still have their ranch at Irrigon and will return in the spring.—Hermiston Herald.

A. J. Hicks who recently went out of the general merchandise business here, departed for Stanfield, Oregon, where he thinks of going into the newspaper business. He was a newspaper man long before he went into the mercantile business.—Skamania County Pioneer.

Miss Florence Lusted, formerly a teacher in the Heppner schools, arrived from Portland on Tuesday and is spending the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Phelps. She is engaged to teach in the Pendleton schools the coming year and is on her way there to take up the work.

Miss Helen Bucknum and Mr. Loren D. Davis were married recently at Baker. The bride made Canyon City her home with her parents for several years and is well and popularly known. Mr. Davis is in the employ of the Sumpter Valley railway at Baker.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

While attempting to get his mules into position at the warehouse platform at Morgan, T. M. Benedict was thrown to the ground under the heels of the animals, one kicking him on the head, cutting a severe gash over the left eye. The doctor took nine stitches to close the wound.—Ione Journal.

Spencer Akers has secured an abundance of water on his Heppner Flat farm. The well, which was drilled by W. D. Newlon, is 155 feet deep and continuous pumping, according to Mr. Akers, makes no appreciable decrease in the supply. He estimates that the well flows 1000 gallons per hour.

Dr. J. H. Fell returned from Portland Wednesday. He is reported to be much better and it is believed that within a few days he will be able to get around on crutches. For nearly four months he has been bedfast as the result of a broken hip sustained in an automobile accident.—Canyon City Blue Mountain Eagle.

Stephen Irwin returned from Rockaway last Saturday.

FOR SALE—Several dozen fruit jars. Mrs. W. T. Goulder.

A son was born on Friday last to Mr. and Mrs. Phill Jones, of Heppner.

James Murtha, Rock creek sheepman, is transacting business in this city.

Adam Knoblock transacted business in Heppner several days last week.

W. T. Campbell, extensive farmer of Social Ridge, visited Heppner yesterday.

Joseph Putnam and wife of Monument were in Heppner the last of the week.

Lafayette Penland is confined to his home and is reported to be quite seriously ill.

W. P. McMillan, wheat buyer and warehouseman, was up from Lexington yesterday.

Miss Ina Jones returned home Sunday from an extended visit at Portland and Oregon City.

Albert Bowker and wife left for Portland on Monday where Mr. Bowker goes on business for the week.

Emmet Smith harvested a good crop of cord wood this summer and is now busily engaged in making deliveries to various parties in Heppner.

Mrs. Herb Voruz, of La Grande, was in Heppner a couple of days this week on a visit to Mr. Voruz's mother who resides here. She returned home on this morning's train.

Ed Driscoll and family left this week for Lewiston, Idaho where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Driscoll's father, See Driscoll, resides at that place.

S. W. Spencer made a trip to Arbuckle mountain on Monday and had the pleasure of being treated to a genuine snow storm. A thorough wetting was his experience.

Chas. Hastings and Wm. McDaniel were down from Hardman the last of the week. Mr. Hastings having some land matters to attend to before Judge Patterson at the court house.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Robinett, of Lexington, were pleasant visitors at this office on Tuesday. Mr. Robinett is in the blacksmithing business at Lexington where he has a nice new shop.

Miss Minnalena Cameron and Miss Helen Jones of Portland, who spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Robin Fletcher, left yesterday for La Grande to be guests of Mrs. Will Church.—E. O.

C. E. Jones, of weeder fame, was in from Eight Mile over Tuesday night. He is preparing to get out some literature concerning his excellent invention and will have it ready for distribution at the various fairs of the Northwest, some of which he will attend.

Prof. O. J. Steele, recently of Tillamook, is in Morrow county organizing classes in dancing. Since dancing will be one of the strong attractions of the fair, he will no doubt meet with fine success in his instruction. He has classes at Ione, Lexington and Heppner.

J. C. Stapleton has taken charge of the W. O. Minor farm which he recently purchased. His son, Verge Stapleton, who recently arrived from Salem, will reside on the farm with his father, and the property lately purchased from W. A. Richardson, in East Heppner, will be occupied by R. T. Brown and family. Mr. Brown is a son-in-law of Mr. Stapleton.

Reception Tendered Mrs. Allison and Daughter.

An "at home" was tendered to Mrs. Wm. Allison and her daughter, Mildred at the home of Dr. A. P. Culbertson, by Miss Lucile Culbertson, on Saturday afternoon last. Open house was kept from 3 to 5, and many friends of Mrs. Allison and Miss Mildred called to express their solicitations upon the departure of these ladies from our city for the winter. Mrs. Allison and her daughter depart on Saturday for Seattle where Miss Mildred will enter the University of Washington for the coming school year, and her mother will keep house for her. Prof. W. F. Allison, a son, is on the faculty of the University, and teaches in the department of engineering.

Notice of Meeting. There will be a meeting of the Congregational members of the Federated church next Sunday morning after the regular services. All members please bear this in mind.

The Portland Labor Press issued a beautiful Labor Day number, extensively illustrating the many magnificent buildings and sky scrapers of the City of Portland, the splendid bridges spanning the Willamette and Columbia rivers at and near the metropolis, and containing much of special interest to the labor organizations and the general public as well. This Labor Day number excels any other ever put out by the management of this paper and certainly does credit to the great organizations it represents.

SOME OIL REDUCTIONS.

At Heppner Garage: Gasoline in cases of 10 gallons, $2.75; Eocene coal oil, per case, $2.40; Pearl oil per case $2.15. These prices will prevail until further notice.

ALBERT BOWKER.

AT MINOR & CO'S.

For September Only

1000 Votes will be given for every dollar paid on book accounts between the

1st and 19th of September

BE QUICK TO ACCEPT THE ADVANTAGES OF THIS OFFERING AND REMEMBER THERE ARE ONLY FOUR WEEKS REMAINING OF THE CONTEST. EVERY MINUTE SPENT NOW IN ACQUIRING VOTES MEANS A BIG ADVANCEMENT OF YOUR EXCELLENT POSSIBILITIES.

THE CONTEST, LASTING THROUGH THE "BIGGER AND BETTER" MORROW COUNTY FAIR GIVES YOU OPPORTUNITIES, OTHERWISE LOST. YOU WILL BE ASSOCIATED WITH PEOPLE FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY THUS ENABLING YOU TO BOOST YOUR STANDING, AS YOU WILL.

LIST OF PRIZES GIVEN SEPT. 19

- 1st. $200 De Luxe Grafonola.
- 2nd. "Columbia Queen" Sewing Machine.
- 3rd. Gold Watch, 20-Year Case.
- 4th. Handsome Gold Watch.
- 5th. Beautiful Toilet Set.

THE GAZETTE-TIMES PRINTERY

COMPLETELY EQUIPPED TO HANDLE ALL CLASSES OF JOB PRINTING. Try them once and you are a steady customer. Anything from a calling card to a fancy catalogue.

New Fall Suits

You'll find displayed at our Store all the late Fall weaves and color tones in the handsomely modeled

Collegian Clothes

Navy Serges, finished and unfinished worsteds, hairline stripes and novelty woolsens, in box back and conservative models, modestly priced

$15 to $25

Something new in four-in-hand ties:

BUNNY HUG TANGO and BALMACAANS

THOMSON BROS.