

WATCH THIS PAPER FOR THE TRUTH ABOUT PROHIBITION

Here is the exact issue that confronts you

The prohibitionists ask you to adopt an amendment to the State Constitution to prohibit the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages, except for medical, mechanical and sacramental uses.

The adoption of this amendment means the entire wiping out of the present splendid home rule and local option laws.

Thereafter the regulation and control of the liquor traffic in Oregon would pass from cities and towns and be retained exclusively by the state.

Note carefully there is no mention of prohibiting "distribution," "transportation" or "use" of alcoholic beverages. Only of manufacture and sale. Distribution, transportation and use intentionally were left out by the prohibitionists. Shipment of liquors into the state, or through the state, or drinking of liquors within the state would not be prohibited by the amendment.

Washington, Idaho and California naturally would immediately begin shipping liquor into Oregon and throughout Oregon. The saloon, where it now exists, would merely have given away to the "blind pigger," "bootlegger" and "moonshiner." All cities and towns now either wet or dry would be at the mercy of the state police authorities and state law makers.

Present "dry" cities and towns would realize that they had come nearer to voting themselves "wet" than they now are under the splendid home rule and local option laws.

If the state authorities were derelict or failed to enforce the law, as they are in Kansas and Maine, the cities and towns would realize that they had voted away their present direct control and regulation of the liquor traffic. These articles will show later that Kansas and Maine authorities are derelict and do fail to enforce the law. To undo the mistake Oregon would have to repeal a constitutional amendment and not a mere law—a very difficult undertaking. Deceit and perjury in securing liquor illegally would have been substituted for what today is a steadily improving, healthier public opinion regarding true temperance, and true temperance would have been done an irreparable injury requiring many years to recover from.

Kansas is pointed to by prohibitionists as the model prohibition state. They want Oregon to become a Kansas. Watch these articles with a fair, open mind and learn what thirty-three years of prohibition law has done for Kansas without prohibiting or advancing true temperance.

All figures will be taken from latest United States Government Reports

N. B.—Prohibitionists are spreading the opinion that, if the proposed amendment is defeated, the present dry towns and cities will become wet again. This POSITIVELY IS NOT SO. The present home rule and local option laws would remain just as they now are.

"What's funnier than a bull in a china shop?"
"A bear in a bucket shop."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Her Answer.

The new clergyman was sent for by an elderly lady. "Oh, sir," she said. "I hope you will excuse me asking you to call, but when I heard you preach and pray last Sunday you did so remind me of my poor brother, who was took from me, that I felt I must speak with you." "And how long ago did your poor brother die?" asked the clergyman sympathetically. "Oh, sir, he isn't dead," was the reply. "He was took to the asylum."—Boston Transcript.

The Brand Didn't Matter.

The mother of a St. Joseph (Mo.) tot gave her a nickel and said: "Run down to the grocery and get me 5 cents' worth of loose salt." At the store she proudly gave the order, but was told by the proprietor that he was entirely out of loose salt. Determined not to come home empty handed, the wee customer replied: "Well, then, I'll take a nickel's worth of the tight."—St. Louis Republic.

Back Yard Scenery.

Belle—How do you and your mother like your new home?
Heniah—We don't like the neighborhood.
"Why not?"
"Oh, we've been accustomed to seeing better looking clothes on the lines wash days."—Youkers Statesman.

Recklessness.

"Aren't you afraid of getting free-elled if you walk in the sun?" asked Maud.
"Yes," replied Maymie. "But what's the use of a shadow skirt if you walk on the shady side of the street?"—Washington Star.

Disastrous Climax.

Mary—Love never did bring me any muck, mum.
Mrs. Smith—Really, I fail to see how that can concern me, Mary.
Mary—No, indeed, mum. Only now I've broken the statue of Venus, mum.
—Judge.

A Certainty.

Mrs. Spurge—I just hope those Cheepflings from their seat in the balcony will see us in this box.
Spurge—They will. They still have our opera glasses.—Philadelphia Bulletin.
