

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Walter Yeager is visiting friends in Eugene.

S. P. Devin was down from his Willow creek farm on Tuesday.

O. J. Cox, of Rhea creek transacted business in this city Saturday.

W. B. Tucker, Black Horse farmer was in town on business Saturday.

Chas. Thomson and wife are attending the State Fair at Salem this week.

Frank Glasscock, Black Horse farmer was a business visitor in town Saturday.

Mrs. Arthur Hunt and son were Heppner visitors Saturday from their ranch west of town.

Albert Bowker and wife were members of the Heppner special train to the Round-up.

Walter Robison, prosperous wheat grower of the Eight Mile country, was in the city on Saturday.

The annual meeting of the State Editorial Association will take place at Oregon City on October 16 and 17.

L. N. Harrison and wife of Monument, former residents of this city, were in town several days this week.

M. J. Devin, well known Sand Hollow farmer and stockman, was in the city last Saturday looking after matters of business.

Clyde Brock, assistant cashier of the First National Bank departed Sunday for Salem, where he is taking in the State Fair.

Mrs. Mary Conner came over from her home near Olex, the first of the week. She was accompanied by her little granddaughter.

Robert Hart, the confectionary man, this week purchased from Mrs. Mary E. Conner, her residence property in Ayers addition in South Heppner.

Jas. Johnson and family were over from their home at Range, Grant county, for a few days the past week, visiting with their relatives in this city.

George Sperry, local stockman, returned to his ranch Tuesday after spending a day at the Pendleton Round-Up, and a few days in this city.

T. J. Mahoney attended the Round-Up at Pendleton, where he was the guest of Dr. Frank E. Boyden. He made the trip in his car and was accompanied by M. V. Gentry.

Harvie Young has accepted a position with Chas. Stanton of Eight Mile, and is already assisting Mr. Stanton in moving his 1914 wheat crop to the local warehouse.

E. E. Vickers has opened up a paint shop in the first building north of the Fair store. He has repapered the interior of the same which presents a very pleasing appearance.

Wm. Haylor is installing a new show case in his jewelry store which adds greatly to the attraction of the same. The case was made by T. G. Denisee, who is a specialist in cabinet work.

The losses of the German army to date are estimated by the Kaiser at 104,589 men. This includes the killed, wounded and missing. The total number of killed is placed at 15,000.

Unlike the wars of the past, the present European conflict is taking up both day and night. Battles of consequence have gone on without interruption through the night as well as day.

A. E. Chambers, representing the International Correspondence School of Scranton, Pa., manager for Eastern and Central Oregon, was in Heppner last week on business connected with his office.

W. G. McCarty was in from his Sand Hollow farm the first of the week. We understand that Mr. McCarty is contemplating the renting of his farm to a competent party and moving to town to reside.

Nels Magnusen is enjoying a stay at McDuffy Springs, where he goes every year. He terms it "the fountain of youth." During his absence Jas. Fritz is taking care of the stock and poultry and otherwise looking after the property.

W. O. Bayless departed for Salem on Tuesday to take in a part of the State Fair. On the way down he stopped off a day at The Dalles to see the Rodeo and make comparison of agricultural displays with those recently shown at our county fair.

J. W. Morrow, tax collector and right of way adjuster of the O-W-R. & N. Co. with offices in Portland, was in the city on an official visit the last of the week. Mr. Morrow enjoyed the pleasant greetings of many of his old friends while in the city.

Elmer Lewis and two sons, Roy and Floyd, departed yesterday morning for Cozad, Nebraska where they will spend the winter. They will be joined there by Mrs. Lewis who has been visiting for some time past with relatives in the state of Pennsylvania. Mr. Lewis expects to return to Morrow county in the Spring and engage in farming here again, as he feels there is no section of the country that is ahead of this, and he will undoubtedly be stronger in this opinion after having spent the Winter in the Middle West.

Will Howard was in from Butter creek Wednesday.

George Perry was in town this week from his ranch on Rock creek.

Albert and Ora Adkins were Round-Up visitors, going over on the special train.

W. B. Potter returned to Heppner Sunday after attending the Pendleton Round-Up.

Natt Webb, Jr., is down from his Walla Walla home on a visit to his brother, Paul Webb.

An up-to-date line of rings. Sets guaranteed to stay in. Seeing is believing. Try one. Haylor.

Postmaster Richardson and wife took in the "Epic Drama of the West" at Pendleton last week.

RAMS FOR SALE—I have Lincoln and Shropshire. Both lambs and yearlings. C. A. MINOR.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Keitchly and children were in the city on Sunday from their Eight Mile farm.

Lou Zeigler, mechanic with the W. P. Scribner shop, is on the sick list this week. A bad cold seems to be the ailment.

Left at this office, one plain, gold cuff link with the Initial G engraved thereon. Owner may have same by calling at this office.

The Heppner Light & Water Co. is extending the water mains to the lower residential section in West Heppner, opposite the depot.

A party consisting of Harold Cohn, Gus Mallory, and the Misses Josephine and Mabel Cameron and Helen Ames, made the trip to Pendleton Saturday in the Cohn car.

Henry Vance went to the Round-Up Saturday morning in his Ford. He made the trip in three hours and a half but was a little longer returning on account of a blow-out.

Mrs. Nellie Taylor, of Sumpter, spent several days in this city with her grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Ayers, while on her way to Portland, where she will enter the North Pacific School of Pharmacy.

The First National Bank recently installed some new office desks, the "made in Heppner" kind and manufactured by T. G. Denisee. The home product is as good and often excels that which is brought in from the outside.

Robert McKillip, of Centerville, Wash., is visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Crawford. Mr. McKillip is a prominent farmer of the Kllekkitat country. This is his first visit to Morrow county and he is well impressed with our section.

The local high school will be represented on the foot ball gridiron with a very good bunch of huskies this year, according to present prospects. E. G. Harlan has offered his services as coach, and he has already had the boys out for their first practice.

Eugene is to be a closed town to the extent of soda fountains and cigar stores on Sunday. J. M. Devers, district attorney says that the law is there and that he is going to enforce it. Furthermore he says that it may offend some people, but if they don't like it they can change the law.

The family of Jas. E. Porter, of Monument, arrived in Heppner from Seattle on Saturday last. Mr. Porter was here to meet them and they went out to their new home near Monument on Monday, having recently located there on a farm purchased from the J. H. McHaley estate.

John Gates and wife of Spray spent several days in this city last week. Mr. Gates is a prominent stockman of the Spray section. Mrs. Gates will be remembered by her many friends here as Miss Grace Stamp, formerly one of the leading school teachers of Morrow county.

Clyde Wells is making active preparations to begin the construction work on his new residence below town. The Johnson boys will do the carpenter work, but they are engaged at the present time in putting the finishing touches on the fine new residence of Dillard French on Butter creek.

We overlooked mentioning the fact last week that Robert Allstott of Eight Mile suffered the loss of his barn on the Haines place by fire. One horse and a mule and a small amount of grain were burned. The total loss is placed at $450. Mr. Allstott has the Haines place rented from J. W. Becket of Portland.

Miss Leta Humphreys, of the Slocum Drug Company, expects to leave in about two weeks for Portland where she will take the examination before the State Board of Pharmacy. Miss Humphreys graduated last Spring from the North Pacific School of Pharmacy at Portland and since that time has held a position in her father's drug store.

James Lewis and wife of Hamilton, were visitors in Heppner Saturday evening. They were on their way to the State Fair and after seeing the sights there, will proceed on up the valley for a visit of several weeks. Their son, William Lewis brought them to Heppner and returned home Sunday. He is a brother-in-law of Mrs. T. E. Childsey.

Fred Ashbaugh and wife of Hardman, returned on Thursday evening last from a visit of a few days at Walla Walla where they took in the county fair and saw the "Frontier Days" wild west show. While there they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stanton. Mr. Stanton has been quite sick but at the time of the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Ashbaugh, he was somewhat improved.

Travel over the Columbia highway is now possible as far as Warrendale.

O. M. Whittington, Rhea creek farmer, was in the city yesterday on business.

C. F. Savage, the Underwood typewriter man, made his regular visit to this city this week.

Lowell Twitchell has accepted a position with Chas. Cox, who recently rented the Her farm.

Persy Jarmon, Butter creek farmer and stockman, transacted business in Heppner yesterday.

County school superintendent, S. E. Notson, made a trip into the country, visiting schools, Tuesday.

Brown Leghorn cockerels for sale. Single comb. Good birds. W. B. TUCKER, Heppner, Ore.

Drs. Lowe and Turner were in the city the first of the week looking after their business in the optical line.

Dr. McMurdo was called to Lexington the first of the week to attend Mrs. Grant Coppie, who is quite ill.

L. K. Harlan went to Echo last Thursday, and took in part of the Round-Up at Pendleton before returning home.

Sherman Wakefield was in from his farm on Heppner Flat Wednesday. He finished his wheat harvest last Saturday.

Mrs. A. J. Stephenson was quite seriously ill the first of the week, requiring the attention of a physician. She is much better now.

Mike Keeny and son were in town Wednesday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Jas. Farley, who has been visiting at the home of her parents.

J. L. White, of the Ellison-White lyceum course, was in the city the first of the week making arrangements for the course which is booked for Heppner during the winter months. Mr. White attended school with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Notson at Fremont, Nebraska, several years ago. He had an enjoyable visit at the Notson home while in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Scribner and son Clarence, of Heppner, arrived in the city Wednesday by auto on their way to the Round-Up. They left here Wednesday morning accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Scribner of this city. After spending a short time in Pendleton they will tour to Walla Walla, stopping at Athens, Weston and Milton.—Echo News.

Dr. N. E. Winnard is in Portland this week. He is interested in the trial of a case there, in which the collection of some insurance money is involved. The insurance is long past due on some property destroyed by fire, and partially covered by a policy with a mutual company. The equities of the case are being tried out before one of the circuit judges in Portland.

Guy E. Huddleston, of South Bend, Wash., is in this city visiting with his brother, J. B. Huddleston and his sister, Miss Beatrice. Mr. Huddleston, who is engaged in the hotel business at South Bend, had not seen J. B. for 19 years. Ray Huddleston, a younger brother, lives near Lone Rock. Guy visited with him the early part of the week. They had not seen each other for 14 years.

No small amount of excitement was caused Sunday afternoon, when Andrew Stamp's team became frightened at the train near the depot and dashed madly up Main street. The tongue dropped down and was broken and the horses succeeded in freeing themselves from the buggy to which they were hitched. The animals ran into the McRoberts stable, where they were caught. Beyond the broken tongue, no other damage was done.

Paul Aiken, aged 10, son of Geo. Aiken of this city, was knocked unconscious last Tuesday evening when a horse which he was riding ran away with him. The horse slipped on the concrete crossing between the hotel and the First National Bank, and fell, throwing the boy violently to the ground. He was picked up and carried to the office of Dr. A. P. Culbertson, where he regained consciousness. He received several bruises on the face, but otherwise was apparently unharmed.

The Federated Church.
Rev. Will N. Ferris, Pastor.
Our Motto: "With thyself, practice the utmost strictness as touching the things that thou shalt believe and do; unto all others grant the utmost liberty."

Bible School at 9:45 a. m. Divine worship at 11 a. m. Rev. Ferris will speak on "The Federated Church and the Lord's Supper." All those who listened to the sermon of Sunday morning on "The Federated Church and Baptism," will want to hear this, and those who do will better understand and appreciate the New Testament ordinances.

Special music will be provided. The evening service will be at 7:30. The pastor will speak on "The Energy of the Gospel."

A cordial invitation is extended to all. Strangers always welcome.

Christian Church Revival.
The revival at the Christian church continues with growing interest. There will be services each night this week and every night next week except Monday.

There will be special service at 3 p. m. Sunday afternoon to which the citizens of Heppner are invited. Rev. Handsaker will give a lecture on good citizenship, entitled, "Uncle Sam's Golden Calf."

Minor & Co.

Every season demands a change of wearing apparel—to light or heavier garments. Our Gents Furnishing stock of Fall and Winter garments is filled to overflowing.

Cold Weather Is Calling

We call special attention to these lines:

IN MICKINAWES—We are carrying the J. O. Ballard, "All Wool and a Yard Wide" garments. It is a beautiful line that exacts attention. Made in plain and fancy colorings and novelty designs. We know that we can please you.

FLANNEL SHIRTS—This year our shirt stock is the most complete and neatest assortment we have ever had. These shirts are to be had with the new auto collar or plain lay down collar. Colorings are abundant in brown, light and dark grey, dark red, cardinal, tan, khaki, green, blue and many others. This is the famous "RACINE" Line.

THE POPULAR STAG SHIRT with single and double breast you will find here to your measure. In those who have worn this heavy, outer shirt we find loyal boosters, who find them a necessity. You can keep warm in them and work easily without a coat. Come in and see this new line and be convinced of its usefulness.

Minor & Co.

THE GAZETTE-TIMES PRINTERY

COMPLETELY EQUIPPED TO HANDLE ALL CLASSES OF JOB PRINTING. Try them once and you are a steady customer. Anything from a calling card to a fancy catalogue.

FALL AND Winter

1914—1915

We have secured the agency of the famous

Percival B. Palmer & Company

Coats and Suits

These are on display at our store
THE PALMER GARMENT
THOMSON BROS.