

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

F. H. Gardiner of Pendleton was in the city Sunday.

Mrs. Mary C. Allen came over from Monument last Friday.

H. L. Stanfield of Echo was a Heppner visitor on Sunday.

G. W. Coe of Monument, was in our city the first of the week.

Mrs. Fred Elder is visiting with relatives and friends in Portland.

W. B. Tucker, Black Horse farmer, was trading in Heppner Saturday.

Dr. N. E. Winnard returned home Thursday from a business visit to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Rhea and children of Rhea creek, were visitors in our city on Friday.

E. O. Neill and A. R. Coxen, prominent farmers of Butter creek were in Heppner last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mobley and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Waters, were Sunday evening visitors from Ione.

Theodore Anderson and wife, well known residents of Eight Mile, were Heppner visitors last Saturday.

Winter is coming on. You had better go down to the Heppner Garage and get your winter's supply of oil.

W. E. Wigglesworth and Eugene Freeland were in from the Wigglesworth farm on Butter creek last Friday.

Mrs. A. L. Riggs of Baker, is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cowins, in this city.

Neal Crawford returned Sunday evening from a two weeks visit at Pendleton and Pasco. He reports a very enjoyable trip.

Joe Simas, prominent Grant county citizen, was in our city on business the first of the week. Mr. Simas lives at Monument.

Albert W. Bowker, of the Heppner Garage, made a business trip to The Dalles the last of the week, bringing back a new Buick.

Miss Neva Hayes entertained a number of her school friends at her home last Saturday evening, the occasion being her 17th birthday.

Dick Sheets, a former Heppner resident, but now living at Milton, was in the city the first of the week. Mr. Sheets is engaged in business at Milton.

Theo. Cork, of Monument, who has been visiting the past week with relatives at Lexington, was in Heppner on Saturday, accompanied by Dan Summer.

H. A. Emerson departed for Portland on Sunday morning to join Mrs. Emerson and daughter, and will spend a few days visiting in the metropolis.

Walter Yeager returned last Friday from Eugene, where he had spent a couple of weeks visiting friends. He says the Heppner students at the university are getting along fine.

Mrs. Tom West and Miss Mabel Cameron departed for their homes in Portland last Saturday, after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Patterson for several weeks.

Scott Brothers, who recently were farming the Kincaid place in Black Horse, have rented the Lawson farm south of Heppner, and are making preparations to move onto the same.

M. S. Corrigan, president of the First National Bank of Heppner and extensive farmer and sheepman of Butter creek, was in the city Saturday attending to matters of business.

Joseph M. Hayes was in from the Butter creek ranch on Saturday. He has been suffering from an overdose of Jobs affliction. He has been afflicted for some time but is now getting better.

Dr. C. F. Cropp, Rolla Van Bibber and Emmet Cochran, all well known business men of Monument and Grant county, spent several days in this city the past week. They came over in Mr. Cochran's car.

A. L. Zink and wife were in our city Saturday transacting business. Mr. Zink says his home is about as much in Heppner now as in Lexington. He recently disposed of his property near Lexington.

Elmer Beaman will open up a first class bowling alley and shooting gallery up-stairs in the Roberts building. He has made more room by taking out the stage, which was used when that part of the building was an opera house. The alleys will be of hardwood.

Ed Hunt and wife were in from Rhea creek on Saturday. Mr. Hunt was inspecting some of the late model cars closely, and we surmise that he, also, will join the rapidly increasing number of farmers who are making the automobile an economic adjunct to the farm.

E. R. and Chas. Huston returned from Albany last Thursday where they had gone to see their father, who is in very poor health. Ed went up to Eugene and visited with his son, John, who is attending the University of Oregon. They also stopped off at Salem and took in the State Fair.

C. F. Putnam, of Monument was in the city Tuesday.

Hugh D. Smith was in the city from Echo on Tuesday.

Ora Adkins was in the city from his Rhea creek farm Tuesday.

Waldo Vincent, Butter creek farmer, was in Heppner Tuesday.

A. L. Ayers and wife were down from Parkers Mill on Monday.

The Portland Evening Telegram and The Gazette-Times—$4.50.

Harley Adkins spent the week-end at the farm home on Rhea creek.

D. H. Grabill, well known lone resident, transacted business in Heppner Tuesday.

Frank Turner, one of our hustling young farmers, was in town from his ranch Tuesday.

Alton Basey, a former Morrow county resident, is visiting with relatives and friends in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Broady, of Morgan, left on Tuesday for McDuffee Springs, where they will spend the month of October.

C. C. Rhea and family accompanied W. E. Brock and wife home on Wednesday and will make a short visit with relatives in Umatilla county.

Robert Allstott, the Eight Mile farmer, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Allstott recently suffered the loss of his barn and some valuable animals by fire.

Waldon Straight, who is attending high school in this city, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Straight of Butter creek.

John Rasmus, who was seriously ill at his home in this city, is now sufficiently improved to be able to walk down town. He is on the road to rapid recovery.

Celsus Keithley was called down from the mountains the first of the week by the serious illness of his wife. Mrs. Keithley is much improved at this time.

Miss Josie Eskelson, who is attending business college in Salem, writes that she likes the school and thinks Salem is a mighty fine city. We publish her letter in full in another column.

Phill Hiri, extensive sheepraiser and rancher of Big Butter creek, was attending to business matters in Heppner on Tuesday. Mr. Hiri states that the recent rains have brought up the grass in his part of the country and range is coming out in fine shape.

One of the big sheep deals of the year was made this week, when Jack Hynd of Cecil and D. O. Justus of Heppner bought all of Minor Brothers' lambs. These sheep were contracted for last spring. Each man will take half. It is said that this is the finest band of lambs in this section.

Mrs. E. R. Swinburne and daughter, Miss Faye Bartholomew, who have been guests of Mrs. Sam R. Thompson for the past few days, will leave Sunday. Mrs. Swinburne will motor to Heppner with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brock while Miss Bartholomew will go on to Portland.—Pendleton E. O.

Emery, Jay and Ellis Hiatt departed Monday for Carrolton, Wash. Jay and Ellis expect to remain there through the winter, with their father W. E. Hiatt, who makes his home at that place, but Emery will return home in about three weeks. Chester Holt is working at the Wells barber shop during Mr. Hiatt's absence.

This office was presented with a photograph of the interior of the People's Cash Market this week. During the fair, Mr. Schwartz, the proprietor, had his shop nicely decorated and filled almost to overflowing with a fine lot of meats and other products in his line and he was just proud enough of it to have it photographed.

Miss Grace May, sister of Mrs. Guy Boyer, was thrown from her horse last Monday morning, and suffered the fracture of her shoulder blade. Miss May, who has charge of the school in district 34, was on her way to the school on Willow creek, after having spent the week-end with her sister. She has given up her school for the time being.

Improvements are being made to the ware room at the store of Phelps Grocery Co. this week. Additional storage room is going to be provided by the addition of a new cellar. This structure will all be built on top of the ground, will be double walled and of sufficient cold and heat resisting powers to protect perishable goods in either summer or winter.

C. N. Pickle and wife and children, visited several days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gammell on their farm south of town. Mr. Pickle is an uncle of Mrs. Gammell, and his home is in The Dalles. They came up in their auto and returned home Monday. Mrs. Gammell is also enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. McEntire, of Adams, Ore.

H. C. Ashbaugh has purchased from T. J. Matlock the corner opposite Phelps Grocery Co., and will soon commence the erection thereon of an up-to-date blacksmith and machine shop. Mr. Ashbaugh has a business that has long since outgrown the facilities of the building he has occupied for so many years and the new location will give him opportunity to expand.

C. E. Jones was in from his Eight Mile farm on Monday.

Theo. Anderson and wife, of Eight Mile, motored to Heppner yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Huston of Eight Mile, were Heppner visitors yesterday.

Willie Howard and wife of Butter creek, were visitors in this city on Wednesday.

John Jenkins, prosperous farmer of the Eight Mile section, transacted business in Heppner Monday.

"The Unpardonable Sin," What is it? Who commits it? Hear Minister T. S. Handsaker at the Christian church next Sunday evening.

Heppner Garage this week disposed of a Buick "25" to Prof. Stephen A. Doak of Lexington. Mr. Bowker arrived with the car from The Dalles on Sunday last.

The Ellison-White lyceum bureau will present their course at Lexington. The first number, Elizabeth de Barrie Gill, the harpist, will appear on the 12th of this month.

R. M. Hart is making some changes in his store this week, by moving his large soda fountain to the rear of the store and making preparations to put in a lunch counter.

Chas. Stanton has rented his place, formerly farmed by T. W. Rippee, to Tom Arnold. Mr. Arnold had previously been working on the Frank Anderson ranch in Jack Rabbit canyon.

Chas. Thomson and family and Clyde Brock, returned from Salem Sunday, after spending a week at the State Fair. Mr. Thomson reports a splendid time and an excellent fair.

W. E. Leach and W. F. Barnett, two well known and prosperous business men of Lexington were in Heppner Tuesday evening. Mr. Barnett reports that the farmers in his locality are quite busy at this time, putting in their crops.

R. E. Allstott was in from Eight Mile on Tuesday and laid in a supply of horse millinery at the local saddlery. In the fire at his place, recorded last week, he lost ten sets of harness, and with other property destroyed his loss reaches a total of $610. There was no insurance on the property.

A letter to this paper from Mrs. C. C. Bray, formerly Miss Essie Leezer, of this city, announces that she and her family are now living at Blodgett, Oregon, where they have bought a stock ranch and are enjoying the mountain air and the best of health. Mr. and Mrs. Bray now have a family of three children, a daughter and two sons, and feel that they are very pleasantly situated at the present time. Mrs. Bray's friends will wish them abundant success in their new venture.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Brock, of Pendleton, accompanied by Mrs. Hannah Swinburne, of Portland, arrived at Heppner on Sunday afternoon, coming by auto from the Umatilla county capital. Mr. and Mrs. Brock visited with relatives in and about Heppner for several days, returning to their home yesterday. Mr. Brock is a leading hardware dealer of Pendleton and was at one time engaged in the drug business at Heppner.

An interesting meeting was held Sunday afternoon at the Christian church under the guidance of the W. C. T. U. of Heppner. Pastor Ferris of the Federated church presided, and the main feature was an address by T. S. Handsaker, pastor of the Christian church on the subject, "Uncle Sam's Golden Calf." It was suggested by Mr. Ferris that more gatherings of this same nature be held by the Christian people of the town, that questions of interest touching the welfare of the community might be discussed. The suggestion will no doubt be acted upon, and more meetings held under direction of the W. C. T. U. with the purpose in view of educating our citizens more fully along the lines of good citizenship.

REVIVAL
The revival at the Christian church continues to draw a good crowd of interested listeners.
The subject of tonight (Thursday) discourse will be, "The Greatest Question in the Bible."
Friday night: "The Conversion of the Chief of Sinners."
Saturday night: "The Conversion of a Moral Man."
Sunday morning is Men and Women's Day in the Bible School. Fifty men and women are expected in the Bible Class at 10 o'clock.
The subject of discourse at 11 o'clock will be: "A Church Inspected."
Meetings will continue next week.

Good Restaurant Business FOR SALE.
Old Established—Good Trade Excellent Location on Main St.
I have a desire to move to another locality. Reasonable terms can be made. Call and see me.
GONG LANE.
Elkhorn Restaurant.
I wish to close up my business accounts. Bills against the business will be paid when presented. Those owing me will please settle.

MINOR & COMPANY

NOW COMES THAT QUESTION—

"How Shall We Clothe Our Boys?"

Of course, principally, we must consider APPEARANCE. But the BIGGEST ITEM in clothes selection for Boys is to get an article that stands for "GOOD SOLID SERVICE." We all know the Boys!

Now we want to help you in this selection by giving you ideas on some of the lines we carry for these young fellows.

FIRST—Let us consider Suits:

This year, in addition to our regular, popular "Progress" line of clothes made by the Kock, Schaffner and Adler, we have a complete stock of clothes from the House of Louis Straus, guaranteed all wool garments. These we have secured mostly in the new, neatly-fitting Norfolk styles.

These garments are neatly finished and stylish, and for wear, the "Big Consideration", you will find the weights and weave that means service. This line is excellent value and the prices you will find exceedingly LOW.

We carry full lines of the following:

BOYS HATS AND CAPS—The Gordon Line, consisting of the new styles and colors.

BOYS SWEATERS—The well known Olympia and Pacific Knitting Mills sweaters in red, grey, blue and maroon.

SHOES—Those sturdy, man-like shoes of the "Dougherty Shoe Co." Your selection in tans and blacks, button and lace.

WINTER UNDERWEAR—In this we carry the widely advertised "Mentor" garments, the nicest quality garments for boys to be had.

Do your boys need—

MACKINAW
OVERCOATS
SHIRTS

MITTENS OVERALLS
RUBBERS

WE HAVE THEM

"Everything For Boys"

MINOR & COMPANY

THE GAZETTE-TIMES PRINTERY

COMPLETELY EQUIPPED TO HANDLE ALL CLASSES OF JOB PRINTING. Try them once and you are a steady customer. Anything from a calling card to a fancy catalogue.

FALL AND Winter

1914—1915

We have secured the agency of the famous

Percival B. Palmer & Company

Coats and Suits

THE Palmer GARMENT

These are on display at our store

THOMSON BROS.

