Oscar Borg, local Buick agent, has sold a new "25" to Emil Carlson, of Eight Mile, and made delivery of the car to Mr. Carlson on Saturday.

A. L. Sparling returned to Heppner the latter part of last week after an absence of several days. He visited Pendleton and LaGrande and reports business pretty quiet over that way.

Mrs. C. F. Tilton and son Charles departed for their home at Ashland, Oregon, on Friday last, after a pleasant week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Case in this city. Mrs. Tilton is a sister of Mrs. Case.

Oscar Borg has secured the agency for the whole of Morrow county for the Buick car. Heretofore he had but half of the county. Since taking the agency for this car, Mr. Borg has disposed of five machines and has other sales pending.

Mrs. W. W. Smead went to Portland last Saturday to join Mr. Smead, who is attending the grand lodge session of the Knights of Pythias in that city. She will also visit her son Maurice while in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Smead will return home at the end of the week.

A letter from Creston Maddock, who is attending the University of Oregon, at Eugene, states that he is now settled and likes the town and the school very much. He has for his roommate, John Elder, another Heppner boy who is in his first year at the University.

Silas Harris, Civil War veteran, was down from his home in the Parkers Mill district this week, after his winter supplies. Mr. Harris informs us that there is plenty of moisture at the present time in his locality. He recently rented all his range for pasturage.

Chas. Phegley, of Lone Rock, was in the city the first of the week. Mr. Phegley may decide to locate in Morrow county, if he can find just what he wants. We opine he should not have any trouble in getting what he wants, since Morrow county is rapidly establishing a reputation in diversification of industries.

R. F. Hynd, who recently returned from a visit to his old home in Scotland, is in this city looking after his extensive business interests. Mr. Hynd now makes his home in Portland, where he has made considerable investments, but divides much of his time with Heppner, attending to property interests here.

Geo. L. Cleaver, of La Grande, "Dry" candidate for Congress for the second district, was in Heppner over Friday night. He had been billed to address the people here on Tuesday evening last, but failed to make proper connections and did not arrive until Friday evening. After interviewing a number of the voters here and presenting to them his claims for the position sought, he departed on Saturday for other points down the line. He is traveling by auto.

MINOR & COMPANY

NOW COMES THAT QUESTION—

"How Shall We Clothe Our Boys?"

Of course, principally, we must consider APPEARANCE. But the BIGGEST ITEM in clothes selection for Boys is to get an article that stands for "GOOD SOLID SERVICE." We all know the Boys!

Now we want to help you in this selection by giving you ideas on some of the lines we carry for these young fellows.

FIRST—Let us consider Suits:

This year, in addition to our regular, popular "Progress" line of clothes made by the Kock, Schaffner and Adler, we have a complete stock of clothes from the House of Louis Straus, guaranteed all wool garments. These we have secured mostly in the new, neatly-fitting Norfolk styles.

These garments are neatly finished and stylish, and for wear, the "Big Consideration", you will find the weights and weave that means service. This line is excellent value and the prices you will find exceedingly LOW.

We carry full lines of the following:

BOYS HATS AND CAPS—The Gordon Line, consisting of the new styles and colors.

BOYS SWEATERS—The well known Olympia and Pacific Knitting Mills sweaters in red, grey, blue and maroon.

SHOES—These sturdy, man-like shoes of the "Dougherty Shoe Co." Your selection in tans and blacks, button and lace.

WINTER UNDERWEAR—In this we carry the widely advertised "Mentor" garments, the nicest quality garments for boys to be had.

Do your boys need—
