

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Watch Found—Enquire at Haylors.

SHOW CASE—8-foot show case cheap. Phelps Grocery Co.

Robert Allstott, Eight Mile farmer was in the city Monday.

Waldo Vincent, of Butter creek, was in the city on Monday.

Emil Swanson, the Ione wheat buyer, was in the city Monday.

Chance Wilson was over from Monument the latter part of last week.

Roy Sheldon, recently of this city, is now visiting with his parents in Iowa.

The Heppner Light & Water Co. have finished their pipe improvement on Court street.

E. R. Huston, democratic nominee for the office of county clerk, was in the city Monday.

An 8-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Swindig in this city last Friday, Oct. 23.

John Jenkins and wife of Eight Mile, were among the out of town visitors on Monday.

Andrew Rood Jr., took out a load of harness to his ranch this week, preparatory to seeding.

County Clerk Hill has been very busy this week sending the ballots out to the various precincts.

Mrs. Oscar Borg went down to Portland Monday to visit for several weeks with relatives and friends.

John Ulrich, a native of Russia, is making preparation to take out his second set of naturalization papers.

Hiram Tash and wife departed on Monday morning for Buhl, Idaho, where they will visit with their son, John.

Chas. H. Bulls of Hardman, was a caller at this office on Monday. He reports conditions excellent in his district.

Ralph Swinburne, well known Seattle dentist, is in the city looking after business interests. He arrived Monday evening.

The Corn Show will be held at Walla Walla, Wash., on November 25, 26 and 27. Morrow county farmers will take notice.

Percy M. Garrigues, a former Heppner boy, is now visiting in Mexico. He recently returned from a trip to the South Sea islands.

Attorney J. T. Knappenberg, of Ione, was transacting business in Heppner on Monday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Knappenberg.

Emerson Keithley, the progressive Eight Mile farmer, recently installed gas lights in his home, and he says that he now has lights which are unexcelled in the county.

Gus Wilcox, who recently purchased the Jordan place from Swagart and Mills, moved with his family onto the same this week. This farm is considered one of the best of its kind in Morrow county.

J. B. Huddleston, genial agent at the O-W-R. & N. depot, is taking a few days vacation from his work here and is visiting at the home of his brother, Ray Huddleston, on the Huddleston ranch near Lone Rock.

W. W. Smead, secretary of the Morrow County Fair Board, left for Portland last Sunday, where he will have charge of the prize winning Morrow county exhibit at the Land Products Show, which is now holding forth at the Portland Armory.

Rev. C. A. Phipps, general secretary of the Oregon State Sunday School Association, spent Saturday and Sunday in Morrow county attending the annual meeting of the Morrow County Sunday School Association, at which he was one of the principal speakers.

William Webster and wife and son are visiting at the home of Mrs. Webster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith. They may remain through the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Webster have been making their home in Portland since they left Heppner.

LOST—From the Walter Rood ranch, southwest of Heppner, 5 head of ewe sheep and 1 wether. Bell on one ewe and the wether. Reward will be paid anyone furnishing information that will lead to the recovery of these sheep. Address Walter Rood, Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rood of Portland are in Heppner for a few days, after taking a trip through the East and South, spending several weeks, having left their Portland home on the first of September. While in Texas Mr. and Mrs. Rood visited at the homes of Heppner Blackman and Garfield Crawford, two former Heppner boys.

Mr. Benjamin B. Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Cox of Hinton creek, and Miss Viola Floren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Floren, of Willow creek, were united in marriage in this city last Sunday afternoon, Judge C. C. Patterson conducting the ceremony. Only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties were present. The young people will make their home on the Floren farm. The Gazette-Times joins the host of friends of the newlyweds in extending congratulations.

Dr. C. C. Chlek and wife, of Ione, were Heppner visitors last Friday.

George Blackman, leading citizen of Hardman, was in the city Monday.

J. H. Edwards, the Sand Hollow farmer, was trading in Heppner on Saturday.

Miss May Sovereign, teacher in the Lexington school, was a Heppner visitor on Sunday.

Jay Devin and son, Oatin, were attending to matters of business in this city on Saturday.

Glin Hodson and wife, and Chas. Roberts and wife, of near Lexington, attended church in Heppner last Sunday.

S. P. Davin, who recently purchased a farm on upper Willow creek was in the city Saturday transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers and Mrs. S. W. Spencer of Heppner are among the visitors in Pendleton.—East Oregonian.

Mrs. Bert Stone returned to her home in this city last Friday after a visit with relatives for several weeks at Baker.

Frank Moyer, well known Black Horse farmer, was among the many out of town residents transacting business in Heppner Saturday.

John Olden, of Rhea creek, transacted business in Heppner last Friday. He was accompanied by his father, who is visiting his boys in Morrow county.

Frank Parker and wife and son, of Walla Walla, visited for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Wells in this city. Mr. Parker is a brother of Mrs. Wells. He formerly lived at Lexington.

Mrs. Cassie Adams, of Canby, Or., a niece of Mrs. S. A. Wright is one of the late ones whose name has been placed on the Gazette-Times list. Mrs. Adams is a former resident of Morrow county.

F. D. Cox, the well known Hinton creek stockman, was attending to matters of business in town last Friday. He reports conditions excellent in his locality, there being abundant grass for stock feeding.

Willard Herren and Oscar Minor left the last of the week for the mountains, on their annual hunt. They have only a few days left before the season closes, and they say they are going to put in good time while they are out.

Wm. Salzwedel, one of our wheat farmers, was in town from his ranch west of Heppner on Friday. Mr. Salzwedel is a good roads booster, and says he would be willing to give, outright, $100 every year, for good roads, providing everyone of his fellow farmers would do likewise.

R. W. Turner was in the city the last of the week, making preparations to ship the catpillar engine which he purchased last year, back to the company from whence it came. Mr. Turner said the engine failed to give satisfaction, and under terms of the agreement the company is taking back the machine. Mr. Turner will probably buy a larger engine.

YAKIMA POTATOES—Car just received. Phelps Grocery Co.

5000 Pests For Sale. Phelps Grocery Co.

The Howard of Ione, was in the city Friday.

Fred Elder took a day off and went fishing last week.

L. E. McEe, of Cecil, was in Heppner last Saturday.

Robert Young was in from his Eight Mile home last Friday.

J. H. Frad, of Black Horse, was in town after supplies last Friday.

Chris Brown, one of our leading farmers, was in the city on Saturday.

Willard Blake, well known Ione citizen, was in the city on Monday.

Remember the Harvest Home supper on the evening of Friday, Oct. 29, at the Federated church.

O. J. Cox, the Rhea creek dairyman, brought his butter and farm produce to town Saturday.

Paul Hider is this week hauling lumber to his Hinton creek ranch, where he will build a modern residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mason and Mrs. J. H. Wilt and daughter, Miss Dorris, were visitors in Heppner from Ione Tuesday.

Prof. S. A. Doak and wife, of Lexington, visited Heppner on Sunday last and attended the afternoon session of the Sunday school convention.

WANTED—Energetic young man to represent us, selling our line of goods in Heppner, on a commission basis. Address Page & Son, Portland, Oregon.

C. E. Jones was in town from his Eight Mile farm on Tuesday. He states that farmers of his section are now quite busy with their fall seeding which will be rushed to completion as rapidly as possible. After this good rains will be very acceptable.

Emery Hiatt returned home Saturday evening from a visit of several weeks at the home of his father, W. E. Hiatt, at Carrollton, Wash. Emery says his father is enjoying good health, but has an ambition to return to Morrow county, and will probably do so at a later date.

J. L. Yeager returned to his home in Heppner the last of the week after an absence of some time. He was building a new schoolhouse for Dist. No. 3 on Rhea creek and states that the little building is one of the best arranged and best constructed schoolhouses in the county. It will be fully equipped and a 9 months school will be maintained in this district hereafter.

Mrs. Ed Patterson and Mrs. Edgar Ayers of this city have received cards announcing the marriage of Mrs. F. M. Bowman, of Spokane, mother of Mrs. Ayers, to R. W. Patterson, a capitalist of Vermont. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson are now in California on their honeymoon, and will spend the winter in that state. They will return to Vermont to live, where Mr. Patterson has a beautiful home. Mr. Patterson is a cousin of Ed Patterson, our well known barber.

Gordan Hats

Minor & Co.

"Good Goods"

- Sincerity Clothes
- Nap-a-Tan Shoes
- Shawknit Hosiery
- Cooper Underwear
- Headlight Overalls
- Triangle Collars
- Mentor Underwear

Overcoats

An immediate consideration. We have in stock a large showing of the new styles in overcoats. The convertible collar overcoat of medium length, with the belted back is a neatly fitting garment and follows every trend of style.

The popular, new Balmacean, an extremely loose fitting, English model will dress you in the newest and latest in fashions.

In Raincoats—the ever appropriate coat—we are able to show you an assortment of styles containing today's new features.

YOU WILL FIND THESE AT THIS UP-TO-DATE STORE IN BEAUTIFUL MIXTURES AND COLORINGS.

The "EVERY MAN'S" Clothes Shop

MINOR & Co.

THE GAZETTE-TIMES PRINTERY
 COMPLETELY EQUIPPED TO HANDLE ALL CLASSES OF JOB PRINTING. Try them once and you are a steady customer. Anything from a calling card to a fancy catalogue.

The Stove Season IS HERE

Gilliam & Bisbee

HAVE A COMPLETE STOCK OF

Ranges, Cooks and Heaters

THE GREAT MAJESTIC

The Queen of the Kitchen has no Equal

Heaters of all kinds, from $2.00 to $40.00

There is something new in the Mission Combination Heater for Wood or Coal; it is an ornament, a fuel saver and only needs to be seen to be appreciated. When in need of anything in the Stove Line come and see us; only too glad to show and explain any stove whether you want to buy or not.

Gilliam & Bisbee
 HEPPNER, OREGON

FALL AND Winter

1914-1915

We have secured the agency of the famous

Percival B. Palmer & Company

Coats and Suits

These are on display at our store

THE PALMER GARMENT

THOMSON BROS.

Get Our Clubbing Rates To-Day.