

S. A. LOON CO.

T. H. E. DEVIL, President. W. HISKEY, Vice President.
AL COHOL, Secretary.

Dear Voter:

We are out for your support. Please remember us kindly at the polls next Tuesday.

Our business is making drunkards of boys. We are now doing a fine business in Heppner and would like to continue.

S. A. LOON CO.

The same money will not buy dry goods and "wet" goods.

The principal hop section of Oregon is now dry under local option. Not afraid, eh? Mr. Hopgrower?

Are you such a coward that you will vote with a crowd that tell you prohibition won't prohibit because they will defy the law?

Have you noticed that the crowd who have heretofore fought local option in Morrow County are now in favor of local option? They will be shouting for prohibition next.

It is not necessary to have prohibition to have bootleggers as is shown by recent happenings in Heppner and Hardman.

When Oregon goes dry our state law, enacted in 1913, and the Webb-Kenyon law, enacted by Congress, will take care of the "distribution" which the "wets" are weeping over so much.

To keep up the drunkard army every fifth home must furnish one boy. Have you a boy to spare?

$10,000,000.00 for drink spent in Oregon each year. $900,000.00 paid back in license. Question: How much is Oregon ahead on the deal?

Saloon license in Heppner amounts to $5600.00 per year. In other words Heppner citizens are sold out for $4.50 each. An ordinary shoat will sell for more.

Wet orator to crowd of Illinois farmers: "What will you do with all the corn when the state goes dry?" A voice from the crowd: "Raise more hogs and less hell."

The real issue before the voters is: Have we had enough of the saloon influence?
