

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Watch Found—Inquire at Haylors.

SHOW CASE—8-foot show case cheap. Phelps Grocery Co.

5000 Posts For Sale. Phelps Grocery Co.

Chas. Hemrich and wife were in town Saturday.

A. L. Ayers was down from Parkers Mill Tuesday.

E. E. Rugg, Rhea creek farmer, was in town Saturday.

A. A. McCabe of Ione is attending court in Heppner this week.

L. K. Harlan visited friends in Arlington and vicinity last Sunday.

Frank Turner, prominent young farmer, was in the city last Saturday.

Lee Mead, operator at the depot, spent several days in The Dalles this week.

E. O. Neill, Butter creek stockman was in the city several days this week.

John Kinsman shipped a car load of hogs to the Portland market last Monday.

Miss May Severance, teacher in the Lexington schools, spent Sunday in Heppner.

Sheriff Evans went to the Junction on business connected with his office last Monday.

Rev. N. O. Williams, of Ione, spent Sunday in Heppner, the guest of Rev. T. S. Handsaker.

J. T. Knappenberg, well known Ione attorney, attended court in Heppner this week.

WHITE STAR FLOUR—Made from Morrow County's finest wheat. Ask your grocer for it.

Mrs. W. T. Campbell and son, Arthur, of Lexington, were visitors in Heppner Saturday.

Rev. T. S. Handsaker departed for Walla Walla, Wash., on Monday for a visit during the week.

W. B. Potter, the Wheeler county stockman and farmer, was over from Spray the last of the week.

A. J. Hunt, prosperous Clark Canyon farmer, is serving as a juror in the circuit court cases this week.

Harold Cohn returned from Portland last Thursday, where he spent several days on business and pleasure.

I. C. Cox, well known Butter creek farmer and stockman transacted business in Heppner for several days this week.

Rev. W. N. Ferris, pastor of the Federated church, has handed in his resignation, to take effect the last of December.

Ed Hunt has joined the host of Morrow county farmers who are now riding in automobiles. He purchased a Buick last week.

J. W. Vaughn was down from his mountain home on Saturday. He has been on the sick list for several days past and confined to his bed.

Henry Schwarz, the butcher, who has been confined to his home the past two weeks, with lumbago, is now able to be at his shop again.

Only a few sacks of Digestor Tankage left. Call and get some while it lasts.

HEPPNER MILLING CO.

Mrs. Ed Patterson departed yesterday morning for Mexico to join her husband. She will stop off at Eugene for a few days to visit with her mother.

Judge Gilbert W. Phelps and J. S. Beckwith, court reporter, came over from Pendleton last Saturday and are in attendance at the session of Circuit Court.

Attorney W. H. Wilson, of The Dalles, attended Circuit Court in Heppner this week, being associated with C. E. Woodson in the defense of Robert Owen.

Frank Cramer and wife and daughter, Mrs. J. A. Gibbons were passengers to Castle Rock last Monday. Mrs. Cramer will spend the winter with her daughter at that place.

L. G. McGowan was called to Camas, Wash., last Sunday morning, on account of the serious illness of his wife. Mrs. McGowan underwent an operation at a hospital there this week.

County Clerk Elect Waters was up from Ione a few days this week, an interested spectator at the opening of Circuit Court and incidentally getting on to some of the duties he will take up after the first of the year.

Marion Cork, prosperous young rancher of the Monument section was in Heppner over Sunday returning to his home on Monday. The people of his section would appreciate a little rain as it is getting quite dry for plowing.

H. A. Emerson went to Portland Monday to bring home his wife and daughter, who have been visiting with Mrs. Emerson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Horner. Mrs. Emerson has almost fully recovered from her recent operation.

Considerable excitement was caused Saturday morning at the corner of the Palace hotel, when a weasel, who had evidently lost his bearings, tore frantically back and forth on the side walk on the south side of the building. He finally found his front door under the edge of the walk and disappeared from view.

O. R. Huff of Arlington is starting a dairy a short distance south of that town.

John Edwards and wife of Sand Hollow were Heppner visitors last Saturday.

Bert Mason, well known Ione merchant, transacted business in Heppner Tuesday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis of this city last Tuesday, an 8 1/2-pound daughter.

Banker J. E. Cronan of Ione, was attending to court matters in Heppner the first of the week.

A. T. Wood of Ione, attended court in Heppner this week, having been called here to serve on the jury.

William Scott, who now farms the Lawson place south of Heppner was in town on business Tuesday.

M. S. Corrigal, president of the First National Bank, was in the city on Tuesday from his Butter creek ranch.

Ed Musgrave was down from his home near Hardman last Monday. He reports conditions good in his section.

Mike and John Marshal, prominent residents of Castle Rock, were in Heppner on matters of business this week.

B. F. Swaggart, extensive farmer and stockman, who resides northeast of Lexington, transacted business in Heppner Tuesday.

Max Rogers and Jasper Crawford entertained a number of their friends with a party last Friday evening. There were twelve present.

Mrs. Della Hallock has gone to Bellingham, Wash., to visit with her sister, Mrs. Taylor Dodson and also Sidney Hallock, her son, who is attending business college at that place.

Miss Ethel Reid arrived from Lebanon on last evening and will visit for a while at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brock in this city.

Judge Phelps and Reporter Beckwith returned to Pendleton this morning after having finished with the work of the November term of Circuit Court for Morrow county.

Hugh B. Rankin, formerly head official in the forest office at Heppner, came up from Eugene on Wednesday to look after some private affairs here. He will return home tomorrow.

Cecil Humphreys, for the past 11 years with the Heppner Light & Water Co., departed last Sunday for Marcus, Wash., where he has been appointed to the charge of the power plant. His family will move up there at a later date.

Carl E. Tuggle, state registrar for the American Extension University, with offices in Los Angeles and Portland, was in Heppner Monday and Tuesday looking after the interests of his school. He will visit at Lexington and Ione while in the county.

I have 980 acres of land near Portland which is surveyed in 20 and 40 acre tracts. The same is being sold at $40 per acre. I will exchange this for general grain and stock farm at cash value. Write for further particulars to Claud Cole, 4312 46th St., S. E., Portland, Ore. 3t.

FOR SALE—One grade yearling fine wool ram; sheared 24 lbs.; price $12.50. Also, two spring Du-roe Jersey Boars, ready for service; exceptional prize strain; will register at $15.00 each. See them at my Sagenhurst Farm, 9 miles South of Heppner. B. H. PECK.

B. P. Fowler of Warden, Wash., was in the city a few days this week seeking a location. He has been in both the Willamette and Hood River valleys, but this section of the country looks better to him he says, than those visited. If he finds the right proposition he may return here to locate.

Work on the new building which Henry Ashbaugh is erecting on Main street for his blacksmith shop, is progressing rapidly and the frame is nearly completed. This building adds greatly to the appearance of the street at that point, and will make Mr. Ashbaugh a thoroughly modern shop when completed. It will be two stories high.

A movement is on foot by leading Oregon boosters to arrange with the railroads of the country to secure a round trip fare for eastern tourists by the way of Oregon and Washington to the Panama-Pacific exposition in 1915, at the present rate that is charged direct or by the southern route. At the present time, prices on tickets via Oregon and Washington, will cost $17.50 more than by the lower route.

Fred Elder is enjoying a pleasant visit from his father, Chas. Elder, who is here from his home in Wyoming and will spend a few weeks with his mother, Mrs. Lucinda Elder, and his son. It has been twenty years since Mr. Elder left Heppner and he is pleased to be here again and greet many old-time friends. Numerous changes have transpired since his leaving here but yet there is much that is familiar and many of the former friends still remain.

M. E. Rood, manager of the Tuma-Lum Lumber Co. at Lexington, was in Heppner Saturday. Mr. Rood is managing the Lexington high school foot ball team and serving them as coach. He says he is meeting with a hard proposition, since most of his material is absolutely green. They play Ione Saturday, and are trying to arrange a game with Heppner in the near future. Carl Miller, a former Heppner boy, is showing up the best according to Mr. Rood.

Wm. Haylor went to Portland last Sunday to visit with relatives.

Cookies, cakes, pies and a full line of groceries at the Heppner Bakery.

R. Hogeland was in the city from his home near Parkers Mill yesterday.

W. G. Scott, the Lexington banker transacted business in Heppner yesterday.

L. V. Gentry has rented the Mar-latt farm on Hinton creek, northeast of town.

S. W. Wattenburger of Pendleton, is looking after his business interests in this city.

W. P. Dutton is transacting business and looking after his interests in Heppner this week.

Why go to the trouble of baking when you can buy the best of bread at the Heppner Bakery.

FOR SALE—30 tons of good rye hay at my place near Lexington.

J. H. Wilt and S. E. Moore, prominent business men of Ione, were in the city on business Tuesday evening.

Before buying your winter's supply of oil you had better investigate the prices offered by the Heppner Garage.

Clarence Rice, prosperous young Morrow county farmer, was down from his farm near Hardman Wednesday.

Miss Marlon A. Long entertained a number of her friends at her home last Saturday afternoon. The hours were spent in needle work.

Earl Gordon will leave tomorrow, (Friday) for Middleton, Idaho, where he will spend the winter with his father, William Gordon. Earl will attend high school at that place.

W. W. Smead went down to Portland this morning to resume charge of the Morrow county exhibit at the Land Products Show and to be present during the closing days of that successful event.

We need several thousand fancy No. 1, Dry-picked Turkeys to arrive November 23d. Write us for prices, also number you will have to offer.

HAZELWOOD COMPANY, Portland, Ore.

Dan Hanshew, well known Black Horse farmer, is making many improvements to his home these days. He has carpenters at work remodeling his house and making other changes. Henry Johnson and Frank Smith are doing the work.

Len Mattison, formerly a resident of this city, where he was well known was killed by a revolver shot in Shoshone, Wyoming, where he had been making his home for some time past. Friends and relatives here did not learn the full particulars of the tragedy.

Henry F. Blahm, prosperous farmer who resides a few miles below town, purchased, through the Jack Rabbit Garage last week, a new 6 passenger Hudson 40. The car was secured through the Pendleton agency, Norton Winnard taking Mr. Blahm and his wife to the Umatilla city over a week ago, that they might see this car and pass judgment. Henry is satisfied with the car, and thinks is the best he could buy for the same amount of money.

Will Hold Apron Sale.

The ladies of the Federated church will hold an apron sale at the home of Misses Lula, Marie and Sybill Hager on Wednesday, Nov. 18, from 3 to 5 o'clock.

DRS. LOWE & TURNER, the well known eye specialists of Portland will be in Heppner again Friday and Saturday, Nov. 27-28. They do not go from house to house. Consult them at Palace Hotel Parlors.

HOT LAKE MANAGER WOULD LIKE NOTICE OF ARRIVAL IN ADVANCE.

Persons contemplating a visit to Hot Lake Springs, Oregon, who require the service of a wheel chair or other special convenience, are requested by the management to give notice of arrival in advance, so that proper care and attention may be assured. (Paid Advertisement.)

Good Restaurant Business FOR SALE.

Old Established. Good Trade. Excellent Location on Main St. I have a desire to move to another locality. Reasonable terms can be made. Call and see me.

GONG LANE, Elkhorn Restaurant.

I wish to close up my business accounts. Bills against the business will be paid when presented. Those owing me will please settle.

The Federated Church.

Rev. Will N. Ferris, Pastor. Our Motto: With thyself practice the utmost strictness as touching the things that thou shalt believe and do; unto all others grant the utmost liberty.

Bible School at 9:45 a. m. Divine worship at 11 a. m. The theme of sermon will be, "Things that accompany Salvation." Young peoples' meeting at 6:30 p. m. Evening sermon at 7:30 p. m. Theme, "Am I my Brothers Keeper." A cordial invitation extended to all. Strangers always welcome.

A Lively Showing Of Mens Thanksgiving Clothes

The eyes of all America are fastened on the calendar now, for the 26th will soon be here.

THANKSGIVING will be a day of gathering together to celebrate the joy of living—the blessings of good fortune—to renew family ties. It will be NEW CLOTHES time, too, just as Easter is for Spring.

You want a new suit and probably a new overcoat to help you better your appearance and especially because you'll need them for Winter.

From among our showing of SINCERITY CLOTHES is where you should select it, for its natural to want to get the most for your money. And the cut, the style, the fabrics, the fit that we give you in Sincerity Clothes spell big values or else we don't understand the term.

$15 to $25

The "SINCERITY-BAL" is a model you should not overlook if in search of an overcoat that is smart looking yet very serviceable for many occasions. $15 to $25.

MINOR & CO., Sincerity Clothes, Heppner

THE GAZETTE-TIMES PRINTERY

COMPLETELY EQUIPPED TO HANDLE ALL CLASSES OF JOB PRINTING. Try them once and you are a steady customer. Anything from a calling card to a fancy catalogue.

Sale Extraordinary

Having Decided to Close Out Entirely the Following Lines:

All LADIES' WAISTS
Cotton and Silk

LADIES' PETTICOATS

LADIES' DRESSES

CHILDRENS' DRESSES

They will Go at Half Price

Many Rare Bargains Here

Thomson Bros.