Eastern Oregon Hospital to Ask for Less Funds Next Year.

That the Eastern Oregon State Hospital turned back to the state $45,000 of its appropriation this year and will ask for $12,000 less from the next Legislature than it received from the last, despite an increased number of patients was announced yesterday by Dr. W. D. McNary, head of the institution. "We have, I believe, the most modern hospital for the insane in this state," said Dr. McNary. "The last Legislature appropriated $187,200 for our use. This amounted to about $22 a month for our 350 patients. We still have about $45,000 of it. This year we will ask for about $12,000 less than our last appropriation.—Oregonian.
