

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF HEPPNER

ESTABLISHED IN 1887

We make banking our business.

A sound and efficient home institution, is our purpose.

Capital and undivided profits ∴ ∴ $140,000

CITY MEAT MARKET

J. FRANK HALL, Prop.

Best in the line of meats handled at the lowest possible prices.
FINEST HOME-MADE LARD AND FRESH AND CURED
MEATS.

See Me Before You Sell Your Fat Stock.

Fits-U Eyeglasses

are the best because they give you style as well as comfort. We fit Fits-U Eyeglasses for you to see with and to be seen with as well. Our establishment is headquarters for the genuine Fits-U with the good looking Toric Lenses. Don't delay, come in now.

OSCAR BORG, Jeweler and Optometrist

FREE Turkey

Between now and the 24th of December a nice fat TURKEY will be given to the team bowling the highest score on THE ALLEYS.

The team shall be composed of three men each, and anyone so desiring, may organize and enter a team to bowl for these awards.

The bowler of the highest individual score will also receive a TURKEY.

Try THE ALLEYS

The PALM

has a complete line of
CONFECTIONS, CIGARS and SOFT DRINKS
Try our Pop Corn—always fresh.

R. M. HART

Why not The Mysto Erector?

The newest steel construction toy of them all. Easiest and quickest to build with. Makes more models, builds bigger models, has more parts for your money than any similar toy.

$1.00 and up. For sale by
SLOCUM DRUG CO.

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Chas. Valentine and family were Heppner visitors last Saturday.

Frank H. Robinson, lone attorney was a Heppner visitor last Thursday.

Chas. Fuller, prominent McKinney creek farmer, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Ralph Jones departed on Saturday last for Pendleton for a short visit.

W. E. Cummings was in the city Saturday from his farm west of Heppner.

W. B. Tucker, Black Horse farmer, transacted business in this city Saturday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brock, Thursday, November 26, a daughter.

Guy Cason and W. F. Burger of Ione attended the Thanksgiving dance in this city.

Hamilton H. Hoffman, superintendent of the Heppner schools, spent several days in Portland last week.

M. H. Kopple and brother, Marcus, went to Condon Tuesday, where Mr. Kopple is opening another store.

C. C. Rhea and family were in the city Thanksgiving evening. They returned to their Rhea creek home on Friday.

Mrs. Lillian Cohn went to Pendleton Tuesday, after remaining in this city several days looking after business interests.

Phill Cohn and wife and daughter Eleanor went down to Portland Tuesday to visit with relatives and friends for several days.

T. J. Mahoney, local banker, is listed for a speech before the annual meeting of the state woolgrowers at Pendleton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Minor and son Ellis returned from Portland Sunday evening, after spending Thanksgiving in the metropolis.

J. L. Yeager and wife returned last Friday from Portland, where they had been visiting the past several weeks with their son, Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Clive Huston were in the city Thursday evening for the Thanksgiving festivities. They returned to their Eight Mile home Friday.

Glenn Jones spent several days in Portland last week and witnessed the Multnomah-Oregon game on Thanksgiving day. He returned home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Smith, mother of Mrs. Jack Devore, Emmett Smith and Mrs. Dan Barlow, is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Devore in this city.

Mrs. George Weir of Seattle, Wn., is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Malcolm Church, in this city. Mrs. Weir will remain here through the month of December.

E. M. Ward, representing the Maxwell Motor Sales Corporation of Detroit, Michigan, was in Heppner the first of the week looking after the business interests of his company.

Mrs. Belle Bucknum of Baker, arrived in Heppner Saturday to be with her mother, Mrs. L. Elder, who is seriously ill in her home in this city. Mrs. Elder recently suffered a stroke of paralysis.

J. A. Waters, county clerk elect, was in the city this week making preparations to locate here permanently by the first of the year. His family will remain in Ione until after school closes.

Attorney C. E. Woodson and family returned from Portland Sunday. Mrs. Woodson and the children have been in the Oregon metropolis for several months, for the benefit of Mrs. Woodson's health.

William Hughes, who now makes his home in Portland with his family, is in Heppner this week looking after business interests. Mr. Hughes formerly lived in Morrow county, and still retains extensive interests here.

Another boarder was added to the county bastille last week when Sheriff Evans placed in custody Frank Winer, hide buyer, who was wanted for absconding with the team belonging to Dan Rice. The team was recovered and will be returned to Mr. Rice.

M. A. Bates was down from Hardman on Tuesday and made this office a pleasant visit while in the city. It is quite dry out that way and Mr. Bates states that they have not yet had any winter weather and the usual amount of moisture at this season of the year is not forthcoming.

Rev. T. S. Handsaker and wife went out to Hardman on Tuesday last where they began a protracted meeting to last for several days. G. A. Bleakman came in after them in his car. Hardman has been deprived of religious services much of the time and they are now ready to lend encouragement to any minister that will come and preach for them.

T. H. Huddleston, of Seattle, Wn., has been visiting with his brother and sister in this city. J. B. Huddleston and Miss Beatrice, and also Ray Huddleston of Lone Rock. Mr. Huddleston, who is in the employ of the government, has charge of the work on the government canal at Seattle. This canal which is now under construction, is said to rank second only to the Panama canal in importance and size now being built by the United States. This canal will connect the salt waters of Puget Sound with Lake Washington.

MINOR & CO.

For Your WINTER Needs

With every day the weather grows colder. Old Winter is exacting in her demands and we must make concessions and buy the necessary clothes to prepare for her.

WHY NOT

Give yourself the advantage of buying from full, complete stocks. Why not buy where you can get choice and find what you want.

We Want the opportunity of showing you our splendid winter lines

Turn your attention to these items:

J. O. Ballard Heavy Woolen pants.	Lined gloves and mittens 25c up to $4.
Dry Sox Shoes—For the man who does not like to wear rubbers.	German Sox and Rubbers.
Mufflers.	1-Buckle and 4-Buckle Overshoes.
Cups.	Rubber and Cloth Rubbers.
	Heavy woolen sox.

AND

Everything Necessary For Cold Weather.

Make Our Store Your Winter Headquarters.

MINOR & COMPANY

THE GAZETTE-TIMES PRINTERY

COMPLETELY EQUIPPED TO HANDLE ALL CLASSES OF JOB PRINTING. Try them once and you are a steady customer. Anything from a calling card to a fancy catalogue.

Sale Extraordinary

Having Decided to Close Out Entirely the Following Lines:

All LADIES' WAISTS
Cotton and Silk

LADIES' PETTICOATS

LADIES' DRESSES

CHILDRENS' DRESSES

They will Go at Half Price

Many Rare Bargains Here

Thomson Bros.