J. R. Nunamaker, Hood River fruit grower, returned to the strawberry city last Wednesday morning after spending several days in Heppner looking after business interests.

Mr. Nunamaker informs us that his apple grader, which he recently invented, is proving to be a big success.

Heppner school dismissed for the holidays last evening and will resume work again on Monday, January 4th. This was a day sooner than at first arranged, but upon petition of a number of the teachers who desire to go to their homes for Christmas the board decided to close for the holidays as above with the understanding that the additional time is to be made up later on.

C. W. Barlow and wife of Mabton, Wash., are visiting with his brother Jerre Barlow and other relatives in Morrow county, and will remain here until after Christmas. Mr. Barlow is a farmer of the Mabton section, but at the present time is working a farm in the Yakima valley. He was a visitor in Heppner on Tuesday in company with Will Barlow, a nephew.

Elmer Hunt returned Sunday evening from a visit of three weeks to Seattle and other Puget Sound cities. He says that he saw only two stormy days during his visit in that section. Mr. Hunt saw Palmer Brunton at Centralia, with his same famous smile. Mr. Brunton will probably return to Heppner in the spring, according to his talk with Mr. Hunt.

A young man by the name of Davis was taken before Justice Cornett Tuesday on a charge of giving liquor to Jake Dexter, a miner. Prosecuting attorney, Glenn Y. Wells had charge of the case for the state and Sam. E. Van Vactor was attorney for the defendant. Davis was turned loose on account of insufficient evidence on the part of the state.

Wightman Brothers, dairymen, have just received their new milk wagon which takes place of the one destroyed some time ago. From all appearances the new wagon is a much better one than the old, being easier to get in and out of, and more attractive. The wagon was shipped direct to Heppner from the factory in New York.

Some excitement was caused last Sunday morning when the report reached Heppner that a cougar had killed about 3 head of sheep in the McCollough herd at the forks of Willow creek. Several of our local hunters went out to round up the animal, but he made his get-away.

Frank Duval, of Ione, who has been in the hospital at Heppner for the past two weeks for the repair of a badly broken leg, is reported to be getting along well by his physician. The break was of such a nature that it will take some time yet for the healing process to be complete.

I have 980 acres of land near Portland which is surveyed in 20 and 40 acre tracts. The same is being sold at $40 per acre. I will exchange this for general grain and stock farm at cash value. Write for further particulars to Claud Cole, 4312 46th St., S. E., Portland, Ore. 3t.

Has Two Brothers in English Army.

W. A. French, son-in-law of H. C. Gay and a resident of this county, has two brothers in the English army. One of them has been up against the real fighting with the allies during the present war, has been wounded twice and is still on the firing line. Mr. French hears from his people in England frequently and is able thus to get reports concerning his brother who is fighting in Europe. The other brother is with the army in Australia and he has had no word from him since the war began.

Christian Church Notes.

Subject of discourse next Sunday morning: "The Lord's Day and Its Observance." Special music. Christian Endeavor 6:45.

In the evening the congregation will meet with the Federated church. The annual meeting of the church will be held the first Lord's day in January. There will be services morning, afternoon and evening. Lunch will be served at noon.

The Lena Mail Route.

The new mail route from Echo to Lena is scheduled for twice-a-week, leaving Lena on Tuesdays and Saturdays at 9:15 a. m., and arriving at the Thomson schoolhouse at 12:15 p. m. where it will meet the rural carrier route No. 1 from Echo. At this point the mail will be exchanged and the Lena carrier will leave on the return trip not later than 1:30 p. m. When this route is fully established the postoffice at Galloway will be discontinued. Bids for the contract of carrying the mail from Feb. 1, 1915 to June 30, 1918, will be open until Dec. 29, 1914.
