GOOD JACKS FOR SALE

The People of Morrow and Adjoining Counties

Have the opportunity now to get good Jacks, the best in the Northwest if not in the United States. 22 head to select from. On the EASTERN OREGON JACK FARM, Seven miles northeast of Lexington.

I keep no high salaried men to sell my Jacks and anyone in the market for Jacks who can come to my farm will save commission fees, etc.

If you do not find as good Jacks here as there are in the Northwest or the United States, I will pay expenses of your trip both ways, providing you are a competent judge and know a good Jack when you see it.

Let your wants be known. I solicit your correspondence.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Owing to a demand for better facilities for handling valuable papers for our customers, and to a recent order from the Comptroller of the Currency regulating documents left in the hands of Banks or any of its officers, we have just received for installation a complete equipment of safety deposit boxes and vault fixtures manufactured expressly for this Bank. They are now being installed by a representative of the manufacturers and the public are cordially invited to call and inspect them.

Safety deposit boxes will be offered for rent to firms and individuals on reasonable terms. Each box is controlled by an individual key.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF HEPPNER

EIGHT MILE.

Rob Knighten is plowing for his brother Lewis this week.

Alfred Anderson's visited in the Dry Fork country Sunday.

Vance Jones started to move his cattle to Hermiston Monday.

The weather is fine and every one is getting busy with spring work.

Miss Lavilla Walker is complaining a little since the basket social.

Omar Stanton's little son is reported to have an abscess under his ear.

Oscar Keithley and Sam Esteb went to Heppner Monday on business.

Mrs. Rebecca Knighten is almost unable to speak, but as yet we have not learned what is the cause.

Mr. and Mrs. Mackey left this week for their home at Bear Valley, Idaho. We hope they will visit us again soon.

Ed Adkins and family attended the basket social at Hale Ridge Friday evening and spent the night at Mr. Young's.

Mr. Frank Glascock's baby was not expected to live last Friday evening, but was much better Saturday morning.

Richard Peterson purchased a bunch of hogs from E. R. Lundell and took them to his Rood canyon ranch a few days ago.

Hot coffee and cocoa will be served at the Eight Mile basket socials to all purchasing baskets. Don't forget the date, Saturday evening, Feb. 20.

Emerson Keithley's little daughter has been under the care of Dr. Gaunt the past week. Mrs. Keithley is very much improved in health at this writing.

Mr. J. W. Scrivner is very sick at his home in Democrat Gulch. Lee is considerably better than for a few days and expects to be able to go to work in a few days.

Mr. F. M. Lovgren has a calf that is frothing at the mouth and acts as crazy as a Junebug. He has it quarantined and is waiting to see what will develop.

Jap Walker and family left Sunday morning for Reids Mill. We are sorry to lose them from the community as they are first rate neighbors and take an active part in the literary programs.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Rugg was very sick a few days ago. Dr. Gaunt of Hardman is in attendance. Mr. Rugg is in Hood River at the bedside of his father who is reported to be very low.

Claude Keithley is looking for a cook. Mr. Walker's having obtained employment at Reids Mill leaves Mr. Keithley with no one to do the work in the kitchen and Claude says he is too stout to wash dishes or peel spuds. Look pleasant girls.

Emerson Keithley has closed the deal which leaves him with less land than a rabbit. Lawrence Redding is the purchaser. This place consists of 330 acres of as fine land as the sun ever shown on and brought $25 per acre. Mr. Redding purchased all the personal property that Mr. Keithley wanted to sell. Emerson is moving what few things he kept over to Claude's place until he can arrange his business affairs so that he can go on his way. Your correspondent thinks that Mr. Keithley will probably get homesick and return to "good old Morrow County" in a few years.

The basket social on Hale Ridge was pulled off Friday evening as scheduled. Miss Bowman, the teacher, had arranged as fine a program as was ever heard outside a first class play house. It really couldn't be beat. The baskets sold well and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves immensely. The proceeds of the sale were $34.15 and are to be used in purchasing school furniture. Talk about your pretty baskets! There were some of the most beautiful creations that your correspondent has ever had the pleasure to see. Mr. Geo. Burnside acted as auctioneer and certainly did fine work in the way he disposed of the baskets.

GOOSEBERRY.

Ray Drake is very busy plowing and getting ready to sow some spring grain.

Timan Hogue and family visited with W. W. Brannon's at Hardman Sunday.

Mrs. Floyd Fraser and children visited at Fred Esteb's Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Joe Blank and Herman Hartwig made a business trip to Heppner last Friday.

Oscar Bergstrom was trying his luck at broncho busting a few days ago. He is still able to be around, but he looks so sober.

Fred Esteb is making a lot of improvements on his ranch this winter. He seems to take pride in having things fixed up so they are handy.

Nick Leathers of Hardman stopped one night this week at Fred Esteb's and gave them a rare treat in vocal music. Nick is sure there with the coon songs.

We hear that A. L. Hudson contemplates moving to his Dry Fork ranch soon and that he intends to raze the Dry Fork hall and build a barn on its site.

The final count of the non-union rabbit hunt here was held Saturday evening at the Dry Fork hall, but owing to the night being so dark only about half the participants were on hand to have their scalps counted. Those who came brought in nearly a thousand scalps. Arrangements were made to have the big feed on next Friday evening. This is a free supper and all are invited to attend and bring their best girl, (or their wife). Of course there will be a dance.
