

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

FOR SALE—Mammoth Bronze turkey toms. ORA ADKINS.

George Flint, of Lexington, was in town Monday.

Wm. O'Sullivan of Morgan, was in the city Tuesday.

Ralph Marlatt is visiting with relatives in Spokane.

Leonard Anderson, of Gooseberry, was a Heppner visitor Saturday.

Sheriff McDuffee made a business trip down the branch line Wednesday.

Martin Reid is making extensive improvements to his Main street residence.

C. B. Sperry, lone business man, was a Heppner business visitor on Monday.

W. T. Campbell, Social Ridge farmer, transacted business in the city on Monday.

James Carty, Lexington hotel man, transacted business in Heppner Tuesday and Wednesday.

W. H. Padberg, well known farmer of Clarks Canyon, was in Heppner on business last Monday.

T. J. Mahoney is spending the week in Portland and Salem. He will return home Sunday evening.

E. F. Day returned to his home in St. Johns Wednesday, after spending several days in Heppner on business.

Mrs. Frankie Luper went down to Salem Wednesday to visit with her son, Ray, and family for a few weeks.

Frank Barlow, Rhea creek farmer, was a business visitor in Heppner on Monday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Barlow.

J. C. Owens and wife came down from Hardman Monday, and Mr. Owens attended the meeting of the Heppner Commercial Club.

Dalbert Bellenbrock took out a big load of heavy bridge timber on Tuesday to be used as stringers for a new structure the county is building.

Mr. Paddock, general secretary of the Congressional Board of Oregon, will preach at the Federated church next Sunday morning and evening.

Nels H. Justus, who has been critically ill at his home in Heppner for the past three weeks with pneumonia is much improved and his rapid recovery is looked for.

Mrs. LeRoy Jones departed on Wednesday for her home in Eugene after a visit of a couple of weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford.

Frank Engleman, of Ione transacted business in Heppner on Monday. He was accompanied by his daughter Miss Ruby and Mrs. Ruth Petts.

Richard Burke of Pendleton, has been convicted of manslaughter for the killing of Ed Kirkpatrick, a well known Umatilla reservation farmer. Burke is an Indian buckaroo.

Pete Brunton departed for his home at Etna, Wash., on Tuesday after a stay of three weeks in Heppner looking after matters connected with the farm he purchased here some two years ago.

R. F. Hynd, president of the Heppner Milling Company, arrived in the city Monday from Portland. He will remain in Heppner several days looking after business in the interests of his company.

Made Right Here

THE PRODUCTS OF THE HEPPNER FLOUR MILL None Better

Prices and Quality Guaranteed

Our payroll is larger than any manufacturing concern in the county

R. V. Whitels, lone merchant spent Sunday in Heppner.

Neal Crawford went out to Curt Rhea's ranch yesterday.

G. M. Allyn, of Lexington, was in Heppner Tuesday evening.

John H. Luck, horse buyer, came over from Pendleton Tuesday.

Stacy Roberts was down from Hardman the first of the week.

George Perry, Jr., came over from Rock creek the first of the week.

Dan Stalter returned from a business trip to Pendleton last Sunday evening.

Bert Smith was in the city from the north end of the county several days this week.

C. E. Jones and wife were in the city from their Eight Mile home the latter part of last week.

Earl Forbes, of Ione, motored to Heppner Wednesday afternoon to look after some business matters.

Patrick Connell, of Castle Rock, was attending to business matters in Heppner last Saturday.

J. E. Cronan, president of the Bank of Ione, was doing business in Heppner on Wednesday.

Chas. Stanton, extensive wheat grower of Eight Mile, was in Heppner the first of the week.

Work will begin soon on improvement of the main highway down Willow creek between Heppner and Ione.

Nat Webb, Jr., of Walla Walla, came down Sunday to be with his brother Paul, who is ill at the Heppner Sanatorium.

Willie Webster spent a couple of weeks on Butter creek hunting rabbits. He reports conditions excellent in that section.

C. R. Johnson and W. T. McNabb, of Ione, are busy hauling up baled hay to the Ione warehouse for shipment to outside points.

Mrs. Mae Severance of Lexington, was a Heppner visitor last Saturday. Miss Severance is an instructor in the Lexington High School.

J. L. Yeager is having a dwelling constructed on his Gale street property. His son, O. M. Yeager, is doing the carpenter work.

C. A. Rhea came up to Ione from Portland on Saturday and went out to the home of his son, C. C. Rhea, where he contemplates remaining for some time, possibly all summer.

O. E. Farnsworth returned the past week from a short visit to Portland, where he met a brother he had not seen since he was a small boy. This brother is a business man of Chicago.

We have for sale a number of Barred Rock Cockerels, both cockerel and pullet mating. Choice birds. Wightman Bros., Heppner, Oregon. Call at ranch or write. Phone 39 F 23. F11-1m.

Ben Patterson is in Portland this week on business. It is understood that while below, he will place an order for a new Cadillac of the latest model for Phill Cohn, and will also return with a Dodge demonstrator, having secured the agency for that car.

Victor Groshens is contemplating the erection of a two story concrete building on his Main street property. If his present plans materialize he will put up a building that the town will be proud of, and that will be an ornament to that corner of the block.

The many friends of Mrs. Jack Devore will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly recovering from the severe operation she recently underwent at Pendleton. She is still under the care of Dr. F. E. Boyden at that place who now pronounces her out of all danger.

H. O. Ely, of Morgan, pleasantly remembered the G.T. on Saturday. Mr. Ely speaks a good word for his section of the county, is greatly rejoiced over the good rains they have received and feels that conditions generally for his section could not be much better.

Wm. Kummerland was in town yesterday making arrangements for a pumping plant to be installed at the well on his place. After going a depth of 316 feet, a fine vein of water was struck and now Mr. Kummerland is facing the problem of getting it to the surface where he can use it.

FOLGER'S COFFEE SALE

one week only
FEBRUARY
15 to 20, 1915

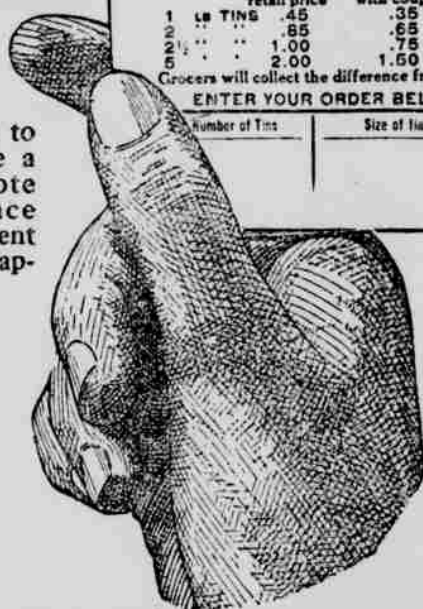

45c Coffee
45c Quality

THIS COUPON IS GOOD FOR
10c. TO 50c.
IF PRESENTED AT GROCERS
FEBRUARY 15th to 20th, 1915
FOLGER'S GOLDEN GATE COFFEE

	Regular retail price	Special sale price with coupon
1 lb. TINS	.45	.35
2 1/2 lb. TINS	.85	.65
5 lb. TINS	1.00	.75
10 lb. TINS	2.00	1.50

Grocers will collect the difference from us
ENTER YOUR ORDER BELOW

Our object is to give everyone a chance to note the difference between 45 cent coffee and cheaper grades.

Hand the coupon to your grocer at your door or at his store. If he has no Folger's Golden Gate Coffee he can get the special value offered as we cheerfully forward him a single package at trade price, through any channel he designates. He makes his regular profit.

J. A. FOLGER & CO., San Francisco
WE REDEEM THEM

HAND TO OUR SOLICITOR OR DELIVERYMAN

MINOR & CO.
Heppner Distributors

ARRIVING DAILY

OUR SPRING LINE FOR 1915

Apron Gingham, 8 1-3c yd.

Dress Gingham, 10, 12 1-2, 15.

Dress Zephyrs, 15, 20, 25.

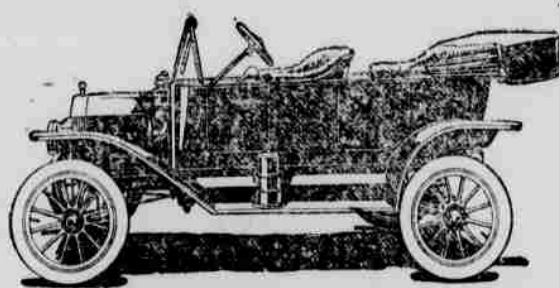

Ripplettes in all colors, 15c.

Flaxons, 20c; Madras, 20c; Costume Crepe, 25c; Wash Fabrics, 20c to 75c; Merc. or Silk Finish Linens, 50c & 75c; Indian Head, 20c; Voile, 50c; Lace Stripe Novelty, 35c.

Other goods, too numerous to mention, coming in every day.

Come in and look. We are always pleased to show goods.

THOMSON BROS.

THE 1915
FORD

F. O. B. Heppner $559

THE OREGON GARAGE

HALL & VANCE, Props.

WE HAVE the agency for the above popular car, and make deliveries on a day's notice. We carry a complete line of FORD repairs and accessories for other cars.

Our New Garage Will be Open to the Public About March 1st.

HALL & VANCE

DUROC JERSEYS—A bunch of gilts and boars, fall pigs. Registered or pedigreed. Best of breeding. For prices and particulars write or call on Wightman Bros., phone 39 F 23, Heppner, Oregon. Alfalfa Lawn Dairy. F 11-1m.

That snap table at Gilliam & Bisbee's supplies everybody. Go and see it.

J. J. Adkins, who has been afflicted with paralysis of the legs for several months, was taken to Hot Lake Wednesday morning. He was accompanied by Mrs. Adkins and their son, Albert. It is thought that the treatments at that place will prove beneficial.

SEED POTATOES—Anyone can get potatoes at 3 cents a pound. Burbanks or Early Rose. Leave orders with Phelps Grocery Co. or Sam Hughes.

J. A. CARMICHAEL.