

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Yourex is built for wear.

Emerson Keithley was in from Eight Mile on Friday.

John Hossner, lone resident, was a week-end visitor in this city.

C. Guy Wakefield and wife came up from Lone Saturday evening.

R. W. Turner of Sand Hollow was a week-end visitor with his family in this city.

Fred Ashbaugh was a Heppner business visitor from Hardman on Saturday.

H. B. Coffey was in town from the Joe Hayes ranch on Butter creek last Saturday.

I. C. Cox, Butter creek farmer and stockman, was a visitor in our city on Saturday.

George Mead, of Lexington, was among the many farmers who spent Saturday in our city.

G. A. Bleakman, Hardman merchant, was in the city last Friday transacting business.

Chas. Stanton, one of the leading wheat farmers of Eight Mile, was in Heppner on Saturday.

T. E. Chidsey has accepted a place with the Case Furniture Co., and begun work there to-day.

Jack McCullough, ranchman and stockraiser of upper Willow creek, was in town on Saturday.

E. D. Rood was up from Portland this week looking after business interests in Morrow county.

C. E. Jones, of Eight Mile Center, transacted business in the county seat on Friday and Saturday.

M. S. Corrigan, Butter creek stockman, was looking after Heppner business interests Saturday.

For Sale—Young Jersey heifer, coming fresh in April. Price reasonable. Inquire at this office.

Highest cash prices paid for hides and pelts.

HEPPNER MILLING CO. H. S. Neel, Gilliam county stockman, visited at the home of his brother, Jeff Neel, in this city on Sunday.

Dr. J. G. Turner, eye specialist of Portland, paid Heppner a professional visit on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

W. G. Scott, Lexington banker, spent several hours in Heppner last Saturday attending to matters of business.

John Bush was down from his ranch above town Saturday. He is now busily engaged in putting in his spring crop.

Roy Ashbaugh and Omar Stanton, well known citizens of the Hardman section, transacted business in Heppner Saturday.

N. C. Maris, of Portland, field representative of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, made Heppner an official visit the first of the week.

Harrison Elliot of Eight Mile was in town last week. He informs us that Eight Mile has organized a base ball team and will soon be ready to take on any of the neighboring teams.

W. K. Corson, well known lone citizen, spent several days in Heppner this week, while on his way from Hardman to Lone. Mr. Corson has been working for several weeks in the G. A. Bleakman general store at Hardman.

The Oregon Garage, Messrs. Vance & Hall, proprietors, is now about completed and the machinery is being installed. These gentlemen will be thoroughly prepared to take care of all auto wants by the time they have installed their up-to-date equipment.

O. M. Whittington and family have moved on to the James Hayes farm in Six Dollar canyon recently vacated by Glenn Hayes, and will farm this place under lease from Mr. Hayes. Mr. Whittington has resided on lower Rhea creek for a number of years and has been quite successful as a farmer and wheatraiser.

Glenn Hayes was a Heppner visitor from his ranch south of town on Saturday. He reports that his new bungalow is nearly completed and that he has moved into the same with his family. When entirely completed Mr. Hayes will have a very neat and comfortable farm home. J. H. Cox was the carpenter in charge.

M. F. French returned to his Morrow county home on Friday last and will remain here for a time. During the past thirteen months Mr. French has been residing in Southern Idaho, in the vicinity of Gooding and Halley, and returns home greatly improved in health. He reports times very dull in that part of the country.

John McEntire was in Heppner on Tuesday. Mr. McEntire is not so extensively engaged in the sheep business this Spring as formerly but he states that it has been a mighty good year for the stockmasters and they are lined up to make a good profit on their business this season. Conditions have been ideal the entire winter through, the wool clip will be excellent and the lambing season is opening up the best for many a year. The sheep business looks to be very prosperous in Morrow county this Spring.

C. B. Ewing, a young farmer of Cecil, paid us a visit on Tuesday.

Heppner now has a jitney bus; leave your orders with A. S. Akers.

Ben Anderson, Eight Mile farmer, was a guest in our city Tuesday evening.

Will Howard and family, of Butter creek, were shopping in Heppner on Monday.

Albert Adkins, of Rhea creek, was in town Tuesday with a consignment of cream.

John Gavin, an attorney of The Dalles, was in the city on Tuesday on legal business.

Pat Carty and wife were in town this week attending the St. Patrick day celebration.

J. T. Ayers, Butter creek farmer, was a business visitor in Heppner the first of the week.

Chas. Johnson, Lexington ware-housman, was a business visitor in Heppner on Tuesday.

James H. Wyland, sheepman, was down from his Hardman home on Tuesday of this week.

Tom Sheridan, Lone stockman, attended the St. Patrick's Day celebration in Heppner on Wednesday.

Adam Knoblock, of Rhea creek, was in town on Tuesday looking for a girl to do general housework.

George W. Sperry was in town from his Rhea creek ranch on Saturday. He reports conditions good in his locality.

Miss Margaret Howard, popular young lady of Walla Walla, is spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Adkins in this city.

Anyone desiring the services of a maternity nurse will do well to write to Box 195, Lexington, Ore. Prices very reasonable. M 18-6t.

The interior walls of the Humphreys Drug Company store are receiving new coats of paint this week. E. L. Berry has charge of the work.

LOST—Somewhere in the neighborhood of the Pastime on Tuesday afternoon, a twenty dollar bill. Finder please return to this office and receive reward.

WANTED—A local representative to handle our Coffees, Teas, Baking Powder, etc., in Heppner and the surrounding country. Address Grand Union Tea Co., Walla Walla, Wash.

Judge Gilbert W. Phelps came over from Pendleton on Monday and on Tuesday held a session of Circuit Court and passed on a number of final papers for some of our adopted citizens.

F. E. Parker, of Pendleton, was in the city yesterday, having brought over some parties in his Reo. Mr. Parker formerly resided at Lone and operated an auto service between that city and Heppner.

N. S. Whetstone, accompanied by Mrs. Whetstone, went out to their Hinton creek ranch Tuesday with a load of supplies. They just recently returned from California where they spent the winter months.

Chas. Ballou, representing the Northwest Auto Co., of Portland, was in Heppner on Monday in the interests of his company. The Northwest Auto Company are distributors for the Reo and Cole cars in this territory.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cochran, of Monument, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Frank Turner east of this city where they will remain until the middle of May. Mr. Cochran recently sold his Grant County ranch.

T. C. Beymer, who is developing a fine new farm on Willow creek below Lexington, paid Heppner a visit on Tuesday. Tom is helping to make the desert bloom down his way and will soon be the possessor of a very profitable piece of land.

Henry Schwarz returned home on Sunday from a stay of several days in Portland where he had been called as a witness in a case before the U. S. Circuit Court. Henry says that for a town of its size, Portland is a pretty dull place just now.

R. M. Hart, of The Palm, has just installed a new five-gallon "Little Giant" ice cream freezer. The new freezer is operated by power furnished by an electric motor. By this new improvement, Mr. Hart is enabled to handle a larger amount of cream in a much more satisfactory manner.

J. B. Sparks, the theater man, left for Portland Tuesday morning where he will place an order for his new front curtain. This curtain will be artistically decorated and will also contain ads of the various business houses of Heppner. While below, Mr. Sparks will purchase other fixtures which he will soon install in the new Star theater.

Superintendent Notson and N. C. Maris made the rounds of the rural schools this week. Mr. Maris has charge of the school industrial work in this district and is here to interest the children in the matters pertaining to that line of endeavor. This is a branch of educational work that is being promoted from the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

BROWN LEGHORNS. Three pens. First pen, $1 per setting; second pen, 75c per setting; incubator lots, 5c each. Full bloods and blue ribbon stuff. Eggs f. o. b. Heppner.

ANDY J. COOK, Heppner, Oregon.

Dan Barlow of Eight Mile, was a Tuesday evening visitor in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brosnan and children of Lena, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in this city.

Frank McCabe and family were visitors in Heppner on Wednesday from their ranch in the east end of the county.

Ora Yeager is suffering with a felon on the little finger of the right hand, and as a result is unable to work at the present time.

L. Montereale, Pendleton business man and maker of monuments and tombstones, arrived in Heppner on Tuesday to look after interests of his firm in this city.

G. T. Harrison, who now resides at Shawmut, Montana, says in a letter to this paper that they are enjoying fine spring weather at this time, something unusual for Montana.

Robert Young has resigned his position with the Case Furniture Company and has accepted a position with the Oregon Life Insurance Company. He will take up his duties the first of the week.

Messdames F. A. Stapleton, W. C. Cummings and R. T. Brown were shopping in Heppner from their home west of town yesterday. They made this office a pleasant call and left a good sized order for butter wrappers.

E. E. Vickers, the painter, began work on the new residence of Ora Yeager on Gale street Wednesday morning. Mr. Vickers has two outside men helping him at the present time. D. C. Rogers of Portland, and Mr. Spencer of Walla Walla.

Frank McNally of Elgin came over from that city on Tuesday evening to attend the St. Patrick's Day celebration in this city and to enjoy a visit with his many friends here. Mr. McNally was formerly engaged in business here.

WANTED—Bucks to Pasture. All kinds of grass, lots of water and good shade. Will furnish man to look after them. Will take bucks to pasture and return them for $1.75 per head per season. Am located on the Geo. Wright ranch.

MATT T. HUGHES, Lone Rock, Oregon.

M. H. Kopple of the Fair Store is running an extra special sale at the present time which will continue until Saturday the 28th day of March. The people of Heppner and Morrow County will do well to look up his ad in another column and get busy and take advantage of the good bargains in merchandise that he is now offering. Mr. Kopple guarantees to meet the prices of the catalogue houses.

R. B. Rice and O. S. Hodsdon, of Strawberry Flat, were transacting business in Heppner on Tuesday. Mr. Rice has just recently completed a modern residence on his place. As to crop conditions out their way, these gentlemen are of the opinion that all will turn out well and the usual crops will be harvested. It is all a matter now of plenty of good growing weather and seasonable rains, and this is confidently looked for.

George Krebs and family arrived from Portland on Monday evening to take up their residence in this county. Mr. Krebs and sons purchased a portion of the Skinner creek ranch of Minor Bros. about a year ago to take possession the first of April, this year. He was preceded about three weeks ago by his sons and the family will now move onto the place where they have begun active farming operations. We are glad to welcome this class of citizens to our county and hope that they will fully realize their expectations.

C. C. McKeown, recently of Enterprise, Oregon, accompanied by his Willow creek. Mr. Bauman and Mr. McKeown were neighbors a few years ago in Stevens county, Washington, and the latter gentleman is visiting this section of the country with a view to locating here. This office acknowledges a very pleasant call from these gentlemen and trusts find what he is looking for in Morrow county and be induced to locate here, that Mr. McKeown will be able to.

EIGHT MILE. R. M. Akers was an Lone visitor Monday.

Frank Frates was a Hardman visitor a few days ago.

C. E. Jones was a business visitor in Heppner this week.

G. M. Akers is still on the sick list, altho not bedfast, he is just able to be up.

Emerson Keithley sold his combined harvester and hauled it to Lone Thursday for shipment.

Oscar Keithley took a load of wheat to market this week and brought out a power washing machine. Bet Eunice is tickled.

Pastor Nystrom came out from Lone Sunday morning in Mr. Peterson's auto to hold services at the Swedish Lutheran church here.

Miss Emma Bergstrom went back to Oscar Keithley's to work Monday morning. You must watch out Emma, there is a spark on that washing machine engine.

Say, isn't it about time for that measly groundhog to wake up and come out again? He missed several rough spells of weather during his second nap.

Claude Keithley and Mrs. Emerson Keithley and children called at the T. H. Williams home in Hardman Sunday morning. They report the Williams children about over their attack of chicken pox.

Alfred Anderson's attended the Swedish Lutheran church Sunday from this neighborhood. It's so very seldom there is any church out here that most of us forget how to act when there is.

GOOSEBERRY. Vern Jackson was a caller at Arthur Wilkins' Wednesday evening.

J. S. Young and O. A. Brians were callers at Fred Esteb's Tuesday forenoon.

The Jackson Bros. moved Glenn Farren's cattle to the Jennings place Sunday.

John Blake motored to Lone Wednesday to look after his part of the road work.

Several of the neighbors layed off Wednesday and went to see Geo. Long start his new tractor and plow.

Sam Esteb took dinner at Mr. McClintock's Friday. Several of the family are suffering with colds, reports Mr. Esteb.

A. E. Dalzell was a Condon visitor this week for cement to patch up a cave-in in the well. Mr. Cotter is drilling on his ranch.

Erik Bergstrom and Fred Esteb were Monday morning callers at the home of Tilman Hogue. School affairs, owing to the election of a new clerk.

Mrs. Drake, who has been suffering with ptomaine poisoning for the last few days is reported much better. Miss Hannah Bergstrom has been nursing her and looking after the household duties.

We are indeed thankful for the nice showers, also the good rain of Sunday night. The fields were a little too wet for farming Monday forenoon but guess we can stand a half day off occasionally, as these showers are what make things act like they couldn't stay in the ground.

It is Not a Joke. To my many patrons it may have occurred that my request for CASH is a joke. It is not. I am compelled to pay cash for my stuff; am getting government inspected beef from Portland and it is cash for every shipment. I certainly appreciate the splendid trade you have given me and am trying my best to accommodate you. Our interests are mutual, but please do not ask for credit at the People's Cash Market.

HENRY SCHWARZ, Prop.

MINOR & CO.

"GOOD GOODS"

NETTLETON SHOES NAP-A-TAN SHOES GORDON H&T'S COOPERS UNDERWEAR

SINCERITY CLOTHES IDEAL SHIRTS TRIANGLE COLLARS HEADLIGHT OVERALLS

Here's good news for "tailored" men!

If you want to save a very decided amount on ordinary tailors' prices for clothes tailored to your individual order, have us send your measure to

Ed. V. Price & Co. Largest tailors in the world GOOD made-to-order clothes

Their immense business permits them to deliver the cream of custom tailoring at a price you can readily afford.

Ask us to "show" you—Today

SPRAY YOUR Trees

SOLUBLE SULPHUR AS A SPRAY, AND SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

Soluble Sulphur is Sulphur Spray with the water left out.

A dry powder, easily dissolved in cold or hot water.

Makes a perfect solution; used in the same way as lime-sulphur.

No sediment, no grit to wear out pumps and clog nozzles.

NO FREEZING NO CRYSTALLIZATION NO LEAKAGE NO LOSS

No barrel, with its leaky, sloppy mess, trouble and expense.

Its use is recommended by our County as well as State Inspectors.

FOR SALE IN ANY QUANTITY BY VAUGHN & SONS