GOING AND COMING

Alfred E. Anderson, of Eight Mile, paid this city a call last Thursday.

Arthur Gammell, of Lexington, was in Heppner the first of the week.

W. C. Kennedy and wife came in from their Rhea creek ranch yesterday.

County Judge C. C. Patterson went to Portland on business yesterday morning.

Mrs. T. L. Dorman, of Rhea creek, was attending to business matters in Heppner on Monday.

Pat Connell, Castle Rock sheepman, attended the St. Patrick's Day celebration in Heppner on Wednesday.

In another week lambing will be on in full blast at the Hager ranch, which is operated by C. A. Minor. Mr. Minor runs about 6000 head of sheep.

Anson Wright was down from his Hardman farm yesterday and made delivery of a fine lot of homemade hams and bacon at the store of Thomson Bros.

R. F. Hynd, president of the Heppner Milling Company, returned to his home in Portland last Saturday, after having spent the week in this city on business.

T. G. Dentisee, local contractor and builder, has just recently installed a five-horsepower motor in his shop, with which to propel his various machines.

S. P. Garrigues, of Portland, came up from the metropolis Tuesday to look after his extensive property interests here. It is understood that Mr. Garrigues is contemplating further improvements to his Main street property.

Christian Church Notes.

That Red and Blue contest is developing some speed in the Sunday school. There were 173 in attendance last Sunday and the aim for next Sunday is 200 present with $20 offering.

A week ago the Reds were six points ahead but last Sunday the Blues pulled into the lead by 17 points. Watch results next Sunday. The contest will close with a big rally Easter Sunday.

The preaching services next Sunday will be of unusual interest. At eleven o'clock the minister will speak on "We Would See Jesus."

In the evening, Mr. H. H. Rottman, field worker for the Endeavor Societies of all churches of the Northwest will speak. He will also address both C. E. societies of Heppner at the Christian church at 8:30. Mr. Rottman is said by those who have heard him, to be a live wire. The public is invited to both these services.

Work On New Theater Progresses.

Work on the new Star theater is progressing rapidly under the direction of Jess Hale, who drew the plans for reconstruction and who has charge of the carpenter work. The finishers are now busy decorating the front entrance. The stage is rapidly nearing completion, and the painters are putting the trimmings on the inside walls. One beauty feature of the front will be a huge star over the ticket window, which will be illuminated with eleven lights.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The pupils have taken a renewed interest in athletics and now at every recess and intermission there can be seen large numbers of the boys out on the "campus" indulging in various sports. The jumping and vaulting standards are especially popular and some good work is being done in that line. The shot and discus are also receiving attention and in the opinion of those having these in charge H. H. S. will have strong representatives in the weights at the coming meet.

The first interclass ball game was played two weeks ago and ended in a victory for the underclassmen. It is possible that another game will be arranged before the first schedule game with Ione, which comes on the 3rd of April. Heppner bids fair to have a strong team this year and hopes are high for the winning of the pennant in baseball.

The report comes up from Ione that some very excellent track material has shown up in Ione High. No doubt this is true, but that report gives weight and jumping records that sound almost too good to be entirely true. At least the Heppner enthusiasts are not much worried about it and like to believe that we have just as good men here. The report has had the effect of making our men work a little harder and for this we are thankful.

The next literary program will be given Friday evening and will be somewhat of a departure from the usual run. Mrs. Wedding's declamation class will be represented with several orations, and these promise to be of the highest order. The latter part of the program will be taken up by a minstrel—a regular coon minstrel—composed of fifteen high school boys and from reports we believe it will be worth the while of the school patrons to see. The regulation jokes—new jokes—and songs will be presented in the good old minstrel way.

The Senior class this year will give a Class Night entertainment the date of which will be announced later. This will consist of a play and stunts. Just what play will be presented has not been definitely decided as yet but as there are some under consideration it should not be long before a decision is reached.

The Biology class has put in a garden back of the Federated church and practical experiments will be the order of the day just as soon as there has been sufficient growth to justify them.

IONE.

Roy Whiteis was a passenger to Heppner last Sunday. He will be gone indefinitely.

Ione is the possessor of a new orchestra. Stay with it, boys, and show us what you are all made of.

E. R. Lundell took his parents and a few others out into the Gooseberry country last Sunday to attend church.

J. E. Swanson and family went up to Gooseberry last Sunday. They were accompanied by Swen Troedson and wife.

The services held at the Baptist church last Sunday were well attended. There was special music for the occasion.

Mrs. Bert Mason was a passenger to Sunset, Wash., one day last week, where she will visit with her sister for some time.

Lum Mobly, one of our used-to-be Ione citizens, was here for a day this week, shaking hands with his friends and buying a few pelts.

Mrs. W. P. McMillan, from Lexington was a visitor at Ione last Tuesday, spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Wilmot.

Mr. and Mrs. Mojomer, who have been the guests of P. G. Balsiger and wife for a short time, left for their home in Chicago Thursday.

Tow Lowe, of Cicil, was in Ione last Friday evening, attending the banquet of the Eastern Star. Mr.

Lowe conducts the store at Cicil.

Last Sunday Ione and Olex crossed bats at Olex in the first base ball game of the season, the Ione boys being victors. The score was 12 to 3.

Peabody Dan, who has been dobbing up Louis Padberg's house, has returned to Ione once more and we are glad to see his smiling countenance again.

Frank Habelt, who resides in the neighborhood of Cecil, was an Ione visitor the latter part of last week. Come again Frank, you are always welcome.

Mrs. M. Jordan, who has been visiting with friends and relatives in and about Portland for the past six weeks, returned home the latter part of last week.

R. N. Hymer has accepted a position with Dick Turpin at the barber shop in Ione. Ralph is an old hand at the business and ought to make Dick a good help-mate.

Rev. Starkey, who will fill the Baptist pulpit the second and fourth Sundays each month, arrived in Ione one day last week and is helping Brother Driver who is conducting meetings at Ione.

The road crews, who are busy at work, are doing some excellent work these days. It makes a fellow say D— on the start, but when he goes over the finished work he says why did they not get busy long ago.

The band boys under the direction of Prof. Wm. Burger are getting along in fine shape, and if the boys stay with it and do not get discouraged, Mr. Burger will have them playing some nice music before long. We hope you will stay with it and win out, boys.

Miss Geraldine Akers gave a birthday party Wednesday of last week. A great many of her little friends were present. They enjoyed themselves playing games and refreshments were served to them by some of the older ones. All seemed to have the time of their lives.

The Eastern Star organized a lodge in Ione Thursday evening of last week. There was a large crowd in attendance, a great many coming from Heppner to share in the festivities and the getting in working order the new lodge. We are sorry that we did not learn how many members were taken into this good order but we would judge somewhere in the neighborhood of thirty. If we have misjudged the number we hope some one will tell us about it. A splendid supper was served in the Ione hotel and we heard many good remarks made in honor of the fine supper. We wish we had been enlightened a little more on the doings of these good people so we could have made a more lengthy speel, but we have done the best we could.

Mr. Guy Yedd, who is working for Johannes Troedson, had a narrow escape from what might have been a very serious accident last Tuesday morning. He was dising when one of the mule's tugs became unhooked. Guy went around to nook up the tug and the team started to run off. Seeing that he had no chance to get out of the mix-up without being run over and cut to pieces, he stepped up on the disc, one leg going under the disc and the other being over the top of the machine. He was dragged about twenty-five yards when the lines in some way became wrapped up and stopped the team. His leg was badly bruised and his foot nearly cut off. Mr. Troedson brought him to town in his auto and Dr. Chick attended to the injured man. One cannot be too careful when working a disc. It makes no difference how gentle your team is, because any time you get in front of a disc with a team hitched to it you are taking a chance which might prove disastrous.

APPLICATION NO. 16.

Lecture at Court House To-Night.

Rev. Frank E. Davis, who spoke in the Christian church last evening on the subject, "White Slavery, or Our Girls at Home," has been requested to speak again so that the people of Heppner may hear the facts about the traffic in girls. Rev. Davis has consented to stay and will speak in the Court House to-night at 8:00 o'clock sharp. His talks are free and he has nothing to sell. Rev. Davis represents the Home of the Friendless where aged women, unfortunate girls and abandoned children are provided homes from the state of Oregon. He is a straight from the shoulder speaker and attacks the White Slave Trust unmercifully, exposing the methods employed to procure girls in a vivid manner, as he has personally fought this traffic for the past 25 years over the United States, China and Canada. A chapter of the Universal Purity League will be formed here to-night. Its object is to fight white slavery, provide for clean social gatherings of our people, care for destitute families and provide employment for the unemployed. It does not cost anything to join and all who believe in the protection of home, the young and the community at large should join the League.
