THE TRINIDAD LAKE ASPHALT

Ready Roofing

Why not lay roofing that you don't have to repair and renew every little while? You know Trinidad Lake asphalt is "Nature's everlasting waterproofer", and gives life and resisting power to roofing.

Genasco is made of Trinidad Lake asphalt; and applied with the Kant-leak Kleet it gives years of faithful service. Costs no more to get Genasco and be on the safe side—it actually costs less in the long run. We are ready to fill your order now.

Mrs. A. B. Bowker went to Portland Wednesday to spend a week visiting with relatives and friends.

Ralph Bengt was in the city Saturday from his Clarks Canyon farm.

M. H. Koppie returned Friday evening from a business trip to Condon.

J. T. Knappenberg and wife were in Heppner from the Egg City Monday.

John Sprouls of Rhea creek was in the city Saturday in his new Ford car, which he recently purchased.

John Kinsman went down to McMinnville Monday, where he expects to remain on business for some time.

Mrs. Tyndal Robison and Miss Hannah Bergstrom of Eight Mile, were shopping in Heppner Wednesday.

R. F. Wigglesworth, the Butter creek sheepman, has purchased a new Buick "six" from the Pendleton agency.

W. T. Matlock, former Heppner resident and business man, was in this vicinity from Portland last week on business.

Mrs. C. H. Hams of Hardman, returned from Portland on Sunday, where she had been during the week visiting her daughters.

C. C. Robbins, architect of Portland, was in town several days this week on business. Mr. Robbins is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Hugh Githens.

L. P. Davidson and John Blake, accompanied by Mrs. Art Ries and Miss Elvina Davidson, were visitors in Heppner for a few hours on Monday, from Ione.

J. L. Wilkins is improving his residence property this week by the addition of some concrete walks, which he is having laid around his house. E. L. Buckman is doing the work.

Ben Patterson and wife, accompanied by the Misses Josephine Richardson and Lela and Lula Campbell, motored to Pendleton Monday evening, returning home on Tuesday.

Mrs. G. A. Moulden, who recently submitted to an operation for appendicitis at the Cottage hospital, returned to her home on Oak street the latter part of last week.—Hood River Glacier.

J. W. Becket, formerly a prominent resident of Morrow county living on Eight Mile, now residing in Portland, is with us this week looking after property interests and visiting with his sons, Walter and Ralph.

G. C. Millet, who was looking over the W. B. Potter ranch with the anticipation of buying it returned to Salem Saturday. He was favorably impressed with this part of the country and is going to return soon.—Spray Courier.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Swaggart departed Saturday for Seattle. They took the train at Lexington, where Mrs. Swaggart has been visiting her mother. Mr. and Mrs. Swaggart expect to make their home in Seattle, at least for a time.

A. B. Bucknam, late of Vancouver, B. C., is visiting at the home of his old-time friend, E. E. Vickers, of this city. Mr. Bucknam is looking up a new home and may decide to locate in Heppner as he is well pleased with the outlook here.

FOR SALE—314 acres in Sec. 6, Tp. 1, R. 26, Morrow county, described as the E 1/2 and SW 1/4 of NW 1/4, also SW 1/4 of said section. 280 acres lies well with good soil. Want best offer.

L. B. BROOKS,
822 E. St., San-Bernardino, Cal.

Mrs. John Stevenson left Wednesday morning for Payette, Idaho, to join Mr. Stevenson, who has bought a harness shop at that place. Mrs. Stevenson has been visiting for some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Stevenson, in this city, the parents of Mr. Stevenson.

Wilford Cecil, who returned last week from the Sand country, where he had been working through the lambing season, says that it was a poor season for lambing in that section. Mr. Cecil says that the lambing crop was only about fifty per cent, due to shortage of green feed.

Sidney Hallock, former Heppner boy who graduated from high school here in 1912, and who has been living in Bellingham, Wash., the past three years has gone to Alaska, where he will work in a cannery through the summer months. It is understood that he expects to enter the Oregon Agricultural College in the fall.

Emmett Smith was in town from his Rhea creek ranch Saturday and he says that present indications point toward a short alfalfa crop this year. Mr. Smith attributes the shortage to damage done by grasshoppers. He also says that these pests are now hatching out in great quantities along the creek.

Andy Stevenson is beautifying his residence this week by the application of a coat of paint. E. E. Vickers has charge of the work. Mr. Stevenson has one of the prettiest places in Heppner and every year it produces great amounts of garden truck and fruit. Mr. Stevenson has also gone into the chicken business quite extensively and does his share in keeping the local market supplied with fresh eggs.

Delvin Adkins, a bright young man who makes his home with E. E. Adkins, was a caller at this office on Monday.

Mrs. Josie Jones went to Portland last Thursday after visiting for several weeks with relatives and friends in this city.

C. M. Calkins, of Ione, spent Tuesday in Heppner with his sprinkler, laying the dust preparatory to the oiling of our principal thoroughfares.

Mrs. D. M. Potter and her daughter, Mrs. Alice Mason, left Monday morning for Heppner. P. A. Dixon took them out.—Spray Courier.

Hugh Stanfield, Umatilla county farmer and stockman, was in Heppner and vicinity the last of the week looking after his business interests.

Mrs. Ray Luper, formerly Miss Gladys Potter, came in on the stage Friday to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Potter.—Spray Courier.

Miss Josephine Cameron returned on Sunday from a visit of several days with her family in Portland. All members of the family were together and enjoyed a family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Adams and children left Monday for Newberg to visit for a time at the home of Mrs. Adam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McNutt. Mrs. Adams is greatly improved in health.

Wm. Matlock, fat stock buyer of Portland, was in Heppner several days during the week, interviewing cattle owners and flockmasters and making purchases for the Portland market.

D. S. Barlow was in town Saturday and he says he expects to harvest a good crop when the proper time comes. Mr. Barlow is of the opinion, however, that the cut worms and army worms did a great deal of damage.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO IN HEPPNER

Heppner Gazette, April 23, 1890.

Last Sunday quite a number of Heppner's young men went over to Rhea creek salmon fishing, bringing back in the aggregate quite a number.

Hon. J. H. Hamilton and Chas. Dustin passed through Heppner last Monday, enroute for Portland to attend the democratic state convention.

Fully 100,000 head of sheep will go out of this section this spring at an average of about $2.15 per head.

J. Madden, a former resident of Arlington, has been burned out at Lone Rock. Believed to be incendiary.

Tom Hinton's big six-horse team, accompanied by two similar outfits, pulled out for Long Creek this morning with goods for Allen & Rudio.

Mrs. Ida Dutton and Mrs. H. E. Hallock departed for Portland yesterday to visit relatives.

G. W. Rea, T. J. Matlock and Henry Blackman are below attending the democratic convention.

W. G. Scott, of the Willow creek sawmill, was in town Tuesday and informs us that he has purchased the interests of Hank Duncan and Mr. Brown in the "Little Laura" quartz mine. Work on this prospect will begin a week from next Monday. Mr. Scott is confident that he has something rich.

H. A. Salisbury, of Lena, has recently invented a clasp for use in building header beds. This clasp saves all mortising, and strengthens the bed frame, besides it is otherwise a very convenient and practical invention. A larger size is intended for use in building bridges. Mr. Salisbury has applied for a patent.

Anyone desiring the services of a maternity nurse will do well to write to Box 105, Lexington, Ore. Prices very reasonable. M 18-6t.

For the next sixty days we are making special prices on our best flour in quantities of five barrels and over, at the mill.
