

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

O. D. Forbes, prominent resident of Ione was in the city Saturday.

J. A. Gibbons was over from Castle Rock the last of the week.

E. E. Edwards, of Sand Hollow, was in the city Saturday.

Anson Wright, the southend sheepman, was in Heppner on business Monday.

W. P. Dutton, former Heppner resident, came up from his Portland home last Friday.

F. M. Lovgren and son were Heppner visitors on Friday from their Eight Mile home.

A. Reaney and Ed Cummings, of Lexington, spent several hours in Heppner Saturday.

O. B. Barlow was a spectator from Ione at the tennis tournament held in this city last Saturday.

Thoroughbred Partridge Wyandotte eggs for sale. MRS. ROY WHITEIS.

Oscar Otto, the local piano dealer, informs us that he sold a piano this week to S. E. Moore, the Ione furniture dealer.

George Bleakman was down from Hardman on Tuesday. He was accompanied by M. Z. Biddle, the Hardman merchant.

E. D. Brown made a visit to his farm north of Lexington on Sunday and is greatly pleased with the fine prospects for the crops in that section.

Wright Saling and wife were in the city Monday, coming in from the Wm. Hendrix place on Heppner Flat, where they are now making their home.

W. G. Scott, the Lexington banker and auto dealer, was a Heppner business visitor on Monday. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Cecil, and Miss Leach.

George Flint, progressive young business man of Lexington, made one of his frequent visits to Heppner Saturday. He speaks enthusiastically of the crop prospects in the Lexington country.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ruhl, of Lexington, brought their young son to Heppner Saturday, where he underwent an operation at the local hospital for the removal of a growth in his nose.

County Clerk Waters spent Sunday with his family in Ione. They are making preparations to move to Heppner as soon as school is out and they have rented the Slocum property on Court street.

Albert Slocum is in the city from Portland, looking after his extensive property interests. Mr. Slocum is getting ready to make some substantial improvements to his residence property on Court street.

Robert L. Cole was in Enterprise last week from Lost Prairie, on his way to the sheep shearing plants where he will put in the season. He went to Heppner where he starts the season.—Enterprise Record—Chief-tain.

S. W. Spencer and wife, accompanied by L. E. Bisbee and wife, motored on a pleasure trip last Sunday, down into the Echo country and enjoyed some salmon fishing in the Umatilla river. They returned home with some fine fish.

E. E. Vickers, the painter and paper dealer, has an adv. in this issue that should be of great interest to all those contemplating any interior decorating to their residences. Any such will do well to get Mr. Vicker's prices on wall paper and paints.

W. O. Allison, of Ukiah, has been spending a few days in this city, visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Carrie Vaughn. After leaving here he will visit with a daughter residing in Portland, and also with his parents living at Centralia, Wash.

County Clerk Waters issued a marriage license on Monday to William Muriel Black, of Marshfield, and Mabel Olive Stanley of Ione. Miss Stanley is a stepdaughter of Jacob Bortzer, well known Ione farmer. The marriage took place at Marshfield.

E. A. Pointer, of Lexington, made Heppner a business visit on Saturday. He was accompanied by Mrs. James Pointer and Mrs. Guy Nordyke. Mr. Pointer spent the winter in California, but just recently returned to visit with his sons, who are extensive farmers in the Lexington section.

W. W. Becholdt, who was down from Hardman over Sunday, states that crop conditions in his section are improving rapidly. An abundance of moisture has been provided already and favorable growing weather from this on will bring forth a good yield of grain and hay. He was accompanied by Mrs. Becholdt and the children.

Ben Moore returned Monday from Ritter where he has been taking baths in the springs for a severe case of rheumatism. This malady has left him and he is recovering his former health rapidly. Ben went to Ritter to work, but contracted the rheumatism on the way over, being unable to do work of any kind for several weeks.

Chas. Morey, the Strawberry Flat farmer, was a business visitor in Heppner on Monday. Mr. Morey is very much encouraged with the present crop prospect in his neighborhood and is looking forward to a fairly good yield. Like a number of his neighbors, Mr. Morey has been suffering from the rabbit pest, but has decided to suffer no longer. He is using poison very successfully and ridding his surroundings of the black tails. We learn that others are taking up the work also, and Mr. Morey states that he is already able to note the beneficial results.

Willard Blake, of Ione, transacted business in this city on Saturday.

Dr. Winnard has taken special course in treatment of eye, ear, nose and throat.

James Carty, of Lexington, was a business visitor in Heppner on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Dr. H. T. Allison has moved his office into the Gunn building on Main street with Dr. A. P. Culbertson.

Bacon, finest sugar cured, and a home production, at the City Meat Market, 20 cents per pound.

Dr. H. T. Allison has moved his office from the rear of the Patterson & Son drug store to the Gunn building on Main street.

Delvin Cox accompanied his father O. J. Cox to town last Saturday and was an interested spectator at the tennis tournament.

Dr. McMurdo reports the arrival of a baby daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cason, of Heppner on Monday, May 17, 1915.

Born—On Friday, May 14, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Omar Luttrell, of Black Horse, a daughter. Dr. Culbertson was in attendance.

Dr. N. E. Winnard announces the arrival of a new daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson on Monday, May 17, 1915.

Get home-cured bacon; none better, and keep your money at home. City Meat Market sells the best in the land at 20c. the pound.

Hotpoint or General Electric 6-pound irons, $2.65, and all other heating devices at practically cost.

Born—In this city, Sunday, May 16, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Uzz French a son, and Dr. Winnard reports the mother and child getting along well.

Born—At their home near Heppner, May 17, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hiatt, a 9 pound son. Dr. McMurdo reports mother and child doing well.

Married—At the home of C. A. May 18, 1915, John A. Powell and Mrs. Mary D. Sherman, both of Morrow county. Judge J. P. Williams officiated.

Dr. Allison would call your attention to the fact that his office is now established with Dr. Culbertson in the Gunn building, two doors north of Minor & Co.

Glasses fitted satisfactorily by Dr. Winnard, or money refunded. His prices are reasonable, and he is where you can always find him. No charge for testing eyes.

Mrs. Akers' division of the Ladies' Aid of the Christian church will hold a sale of good things to eat at the Hart confectionery store on Saturday. Good cooked food for the Sunday dinner.

Another new concrete side walk is under the process of construction. This one fronts the city property on Willow street, including the city hall and jail. Ed Buckman has charge of the work.

Mrs. Mary D. McHaley and daughter, Miss Amy, are visiting with relatives and friends in Heppner this week. They have been making their home in Portland the past two years. Mrs. McHaley is much improved in health.

The W. C. T. U. will meet on Friday afternoon, May 21, at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. Fred Tash. Mrs. S. E. Notson will give a report of the Mothers' Congress held in Portland last week. All ladies are cordially invited.

Spencer Akers and family departed on Tuesday for Goldendale, Wash., where they spent the week visiting with their relatives living in Klitchit Valley. They went by auto and crossed the river at Biggs, going on to Goldendale over the Samuel Hill highway.

Bud Forrest, who came in from Spray the last of the week with a load of wool, states that they had quite an exciting experience during the thunder storm which hit them as they were crossing the mountain. The lightning came mighty uncomfortably close and the deluge of rain made it very unpleasant for them during the time the storm lasted. The lightning excited the teams and made them almost unmanageable.

Hardy Long was down from Parkers Mill on Monday to attend to business affairs here. He made this office a pleasant call and caused a bright smile to spread over the countenance of the printer because of the substantial encouragement he left with us. Mr. Long is operating a small place in the mountains and pronounces conditions good for crops in his locality—his principal crop, however, being cord wool.

O. H. Cash, of La Grande, was in Heppner a couple of days this week on his way home from Portland. Mr. Cash is one of the district managers of the Guarantee Fund Life Association of Omaha, and was here to confer with Mr. Klees, the local representative of that company. Mr. Klees has formed a partnership with S. E. Notson and these gentlemen will "do" Morrow county and tributary territory in the life insurance line.

While he has not fully decided to do so, Vic Groshens is strongly contemplating the construction of a one-story concrete building on his property at the corner of Main and May streets. He is having plans drawn and estimates made and if he decides to build work will be commenced very soon. The character of building Mr. Groshens is planning will be such as to permit the adding of another story at any time. We hope Vic may be able to carry out his plans.

Will Frazier, of Milton, who visited for a few days the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Simpson, is one of the big farmers of his section. He states that crop prospects in his locality are splendid and large yields of grain and fruits are expected this season. It has been 25 years since his last visit to Heppner and he is pleased to note the very prosperous appearance of our town and the surrounding country. Mr. and Mrs. Frazier returned to their Milton home on Tuesday.

Shoe Buyers! Investigate!

MINOR & CO. "GOOD GOODS"

Buy "NAP-A-TAN" Shoes

MINOR & CO "GOOD GOODS"

for

Your heavy work, your light work, your special work, for hunting, fishing and outing—and be satisfied with SHOES THAT WEAR.

Our big "Nap-a-Tan" line carries shoes for every kind of use and all shapes of feet. Plain or capped toes; Nailed or unnailed; red, black, and light and dark tan.

You Fathers and Mothers who want Shoes for your Boys

Shoes that will stand that hard continual boy wear—

buy them NAP-A-TAN "boy proofed" shoes and compel yourselves to save your shoe expense.

- SHOES—Nailed and Unnailed. SHOES—Plain toe and Capped toe. SHOES—Heavy soles and heavy uppers. SHOES—Light flexible soles with heavy uppers. SHOES—Light uppers with heavy soles.

Buy Nap-a-Tan Shoes

MINOR & CO.

Men Differ in Choice of Shoes.

Some because of different lines of work—some on account of comfort.

We keep those shoe- for men who know and ask for what they want.

Acquaint Yourself

with some of the different weights and combinations found in the

"NAP-A-TAN" LINE

Preaching at Hardman.

Rev. T. S. Handsaker of the local Christian church will preach in Hardman next Wednesday evening.

IONE.

(Continued from first page.)

Mrs. Nels Swanson left Ione last Wednesday morning for California where she will live indefinitely.

G. W. Lafler and Mr. and Mrs. Schryver from Salem came up to Ione Tuesday night and are guests at the home of Mr. Barber.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Davis, Saturday last, a son. Mother and child getting along fine.

Born—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Akers, Sunday of last week, a son. Everybody all O. K.

Born—At the home of F. H. Wilson this week, we did not learn the date, a son. Mother and child getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Johannes Troedson left Ione last Wednesday for San Francisco where they will visit with friends and relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Evelyn Hall, who has been waiting on tables at the Ione hotel, left Wednesday of last week for Portland.

Mrs. Johnson, a sister of J. D. Land, is here visiting with her parents who have been somewhat under the weather for some time.

Frank Young, from the Gooseberry country, was in Ione one day last week getting a load of goody goodies in the shape of eats.

Dale Ray, who has been over in the Hermiston country for some time, is visiting in Ione.

Miss Opal Cochran was a Heppner visitor last week, going up on Thursday.

Miss Crawford, of Heppner, made her weekly call at Ione Thursday last.

Henry Clark was a passenger to Portland Friday last. We did not learn what his business was or when he will return.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Padberg were passengers to Newport Sunday where they will spend some little time.

Mat Halvorsen returned from Portland Saturday, where he disposed of a car of cattle.

J. E. Cronin, our banker, was a passenger to Portland last week, where he will spend a few days with his family.

LIGHTNING STRIKES.

(Continued from first page.)

fire on the Mountain Valley Farm within the past few years. W. O. Minor, the former owner, lost a dwelling not very long before the Heppner flood.

"MISHAPS OF MINERVA."

(Continued from first page.)

- Minerva Sterling, willing to oblige ... Edith Thorley Clara Sterling, her younger sister ... Lera Githens Molly, the maid ... Melba Griffiths Belle Brantley, reporter for the "Scream" ... Grace Van Vactor Mrs. Wright, a club woman ... Helen Aiken Miss Palmer, a philanthropic worker ... Ina Johnson Mrs. Jennie Van Dusen Spuyker, a Personage ... Harley Adkins Members of reception committee.

Date For Farmers Union Picnic Changed.

We are informed by R. B. Wilcox, of Lexington, that the date for the Farmers Union Picnic at Ione has been changed from Saturday, June 9, to Friday, June 8. This change is made to accommodate the schedule arranged for the chief speaker, Hon. O. F. Dornblaser, of Texas, a member of the National Executive Board.

LOOKING BOTH WAYS

Two things govern the selection of lenses and mountings for the glasses which we offer you. There's the way you look in them and there's the way you look thru them. Our aim is to see that both ways are satisfactory to you.

OSCAR BORG JEWELER Registered Optometrist

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO IN HEPPNER

Heppner Weekly Gazette of May 22, 1890.

Billy Crabtree was over from Ritter the past week.

Andy Cook represented Lena last week.

Elmer Slocum is back from Fairhaven. He says our Heppner friends are doing well up there.

D. Cox reports the buncherass alive with grasshoppers between his place on Hinton creek and the Blues.

Ben French and Sam Clark were over from Camas Prairie this week. There is good grass in that country.

Newt Griffith who was severely kicked some time ago, was seen on our streets last week, having recovered sufficiently to be about.

C. P. Wells, a mutton buyer, was in Heppner early this week. He says that Heppner is the best little town he has seen between Boston and Portland. Pretty good.

Henry Blackwell brought in $600 in gold dust last week, taken from his Fox Valley mine. It is all good quality, and shows something of the placer diggings of Fox, which are just being developed.

Thos. Morgan returned from an extended trip through Grant county last Thursday.

G. W. Thompson spent a few days in the Spray country last week. He was accompanied by Uzz French.

"Class Night" ENTERTAINMENT

Given by the Senior Class, H. H. S. HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM, FRIDAY, MAY 21st, 1915.

"The Mishaps of Minerva"

A TWO-ACT FARCE-COMEDY presented by the members of the class assisted by three Juniors. This is an exceedingly laughable play and will be a sure cure for even a chronic grouch. There will be other numbers equally as interesting, including "stunts," songs and other musical numbers.

Admission - - 25c and 35c

Genasco THE TRINIDAD-LAKE-ASPALT Ready Roofing Armed with "Nature's everlasting waterproofer" Genasco is ready to combat rain, snow, hail, wind, sun, heat, cold, and fire and to defend your roof with its resisting, lasting life, and keep it weather-tight. Genasco smooth-surface roofing is supplied with patented Kant-leak Kleets, which make seams waterproof without cement, and prevent nail-leaks. Give us your order for Genasco—either smooth or mineral surface. REID BROS. Heppner Ore.

Licensed Embalmer Lady Assistant J. L. YEAGER FUNERAL DIRECTOR Heppner, Oregon Phone Residence