MORROW COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER
Thursday, June 10, 1915.

It is currently reported that as much as $800 has recently been spent on the worst portion of the road between Parkers Mill and the Grant county line, and yet the road is but fairly passable. We are of the opinion that it will require a much larger sum than this to get the road where it should be, and the court should be urged to make the necessary expenditure. It is worth much more than it will cost to put this road in good shape, to have the trade of Monument and northern Grant and a good road through the mountains leading to Heppner will bring all these people our way. There should be no letting up on the part of Heppner citizens until this piece of road is put in the condition it should be to secure this trade. It is about all we have left; let us keep it.

We have some practical prohibitionists about Heppner; they seem to be trying to drink up all the booze and no doubt they would succeed were it not for the fellow on the other end of the line, who manages to keep the supply up to the demand.

Secretary Bryan has resigned from the cabinet of President Wilson, not being able to support the policy of the president in regard to Germany. Mr. Bryan is to be admired for his many good qualities but it has been evident for some time that his foreign policy was weak, and now that President Wilson is taking a firm stand and asserting his Americanism in no unmistakable terms, Mr. Bryan is ready to quit. Both gentlemen want peace. Mr. Wilson desiring peace with honor; Mr. Bryan willing to accept it on any terms. If we mistake not the president has by far the strongest following among the people of this great American republic.

Meeting in Adkins Grove.
The Sunday schools of Liberty and Rhea Creek will join in a Childrens' Day program at Adkins grove next Sunday at 11 o'clock. There will be a basket dinner at noon. In the afternoon Miss Elizabeth Ware will preach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pruyn were passengers to Portland this morning for a few days of recreation.

Mrs. George Thomson departed for Hood River this morning for a visit with friends in that city.

LEXINGTON.

Lon Booher returned Sunday from Athena where he has been visiting his brother.

Tuesday was an unusually quiet day in town. All who could attended the Farmers' Union Picnic at Ione.

Bowker's orchestra gave a very nice dance at the Hall Monday evening. Quite a large number attended.

W. P. McMillan, Guy Nordyke, Otto Robinett and J. B. Coxen went to Pendleton and Walla Walla Saturday, returning Sunday evening.

Dr. John Dye, the Ione dentist, will be in Lexington from June 16 until July 1. Anyone desiring dental work will do well to remember this.

Nettie Davis came home Monday to spend the vacation with her parents. She has been attending Pacific University at Forest Grove.

Nels Magnusen, of Heppner, was in town Monday visiting old friends and acquaintances. Nels formerly lived in this part of the country many years ago.

J. M. White and family started to Dayton Tuesday, going by car. They expect to be gone several days and will visit with their daughter, Mrs. Ionia Gilbreath.

Eph Eskelson and wife left Wednesday for a few days visit at points along the river. Mr. Eskelson returned Sunday but Mrs. Eskelson will remain at Shippard Springs for some time.

For several days the weather has been warm, and there was also several days of wind. Just what effect this has on growing grain remains to be seen. It is the opinion of many that the grain is not far enough along to stand hot weather.

Miss May Severance went to her home south of Hardman. Miss Severance has been teaching in the public school at this place the past year. Miss Ina Gilbert, another teacher, will spend the vacation with Miss Severance. Miss Gilbert's home is in Ohio.

Several families spent a very pleasant day Sunday in the grove below town. Of late, since the weather has become more pleasant, the grove has been the meeting place for several basket dinners among people who are looking for a nice cool shady place to spend the day.

Thursday forenoon was a busy time in town. The horsebuyers were here buying horses for the allies. A large number of animals were sold and brought a fairly good price, considering the stock that was sold. Houser and Loughry of Stanfield and Peddicord of Kansas City did the buying.

Sanford Green and wife, Riley Munkers and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Van Dyke went to McBuffee Springs by the overland route. They expect to be gone for some time. Mr. Van Dyke has been suffering with rheumatism and it is expected the mineral water will aid greatly in his recovery.

Mrs. E. A. Beymer and granddaughter Lulu were given a farewell reception at the Hall Wednesday evening. They left for Portland where they will visit with Mrs. Beymer's daughter, Mrs. Anna Aubrey. Mrs. Beymer has been a resident of Lexington for many years, conducting the hotel at this place. She recently sold out.

IRRIGON.

J. E. McCoy was a Portland visitor Thursday.

Mrs. Lee Graybeal went to Pendleton Friday.

What's that we hear? Wedding bells to be sure.

Bill Graybeal is home from a short stay in Umatilla.

Earl Rand arrived home from college last Saturday morning.

Mrs. Carl Brownell visited at the Graybeal home last week.

Mrs. George, of Portland, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Baucom.

Mrs. Ralph Finley was the hostess for a charming birthday party last Friday afternoon.

Born—A nine pound boy to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Leach of Gibbon. Mrs. Leach is under the care of her mother, Mrs. John Graybeal.

IONE.

News is rather scarce this week as it has been all picnic for the past several days.

Richard McElligott went to Portland Wednesday to spend a few days among the roses.

Harold Mason, who has been attending school at Corvallis for the past term, has returned to his Ione home.

Gwendolen Jones, who has been going to school at Forest Grove for the past nine months, returned to her home in Ione Monday.

Mrs. George Hendry, who has been visiting with her parents for a short time, returned to her home at Toppenish, Wash., last Saturday.

The C. C. Patton Carnival Co. has been in Ione for several days and helped make entertainment for the many visitors we had last Tuesday.

Mrs. Greda Rietmann, who has been visiting at Ione with friends for the past three months, returned to her home at Atlanta, Georgia last Monday.

Mrs. Davis, a sister of Mrs. R. F. Wilmot, who has been visiting at Ione for some time, returned to her home at Sellwood Friday of last week.

Dr. John Dye, dentist, will be absent from Ione from June 16 until July 1, during which time he will be in Lexington, where he will perform his professional duties.

Peanut Dan and Henry Clark are out at C. E. Carlson's, dobbing up his house with paint. When these good fellows get through with it, it will be dolled up in good shape.

B. F. Kirkpatrick, of Pendleton, came over last week with a big plow outfit. He has a large caterpillar engine that pulls three 3-bottom plows, each one of which cuts 48 inches. He is glowing on the Baker place south of Ione.

The second annual Farmers Union picnic was held at Ione last Tuesday. Our people had prepared the grove to hold the program in but about an hour before the program started the wind was blowing a young gale and the tables, benches, seats and speaker's stand had all to be moved to the rink, which caused a good deal of inconvenience as well as considerable loss of time. However, with lots of willing hands things were soon put to rights and the program carried out. This was followed by the big feed. In the afternoon there was a prize given for the best looking baby under twelve months, and Mrs. Bert Johnson's baby was the winner. Then came the ball game which was a back number, and after this there were foot races for the young fry as well as for the older ones. By this time it was getting along towards evening and the people had nearly all begun to prepare to go home. There was a very large crowd in town and all appeared to have a good time, and we hope they spent an enjoyable day. After supper Bowker's orchestra from Portland furnished music for the dance which was given by Wait Pruyear and there was a very large crowd in attendance. We feel as though we had just as good and enjoyable a day as was ever spent in Ione, and we hope the visitors feel the same about it.
