

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Joe. M. Simas, of Monument, was in the city Friday.

Andy Rood, Jr. went down to Portland Sunday.

Frank and Claud Sloan were over from Stanfield last Thursday.

Wm. Haylor was a passenger for Portland Sunday morning.

Lawrence Redding, Eight Mile farmer, was in Heppner Monday.

Emmett Smith was a Heppner visitor from Rhea creek Saturday.

Walter Bray and wife were down from their farm home on Saturday.

Fred Elder and wife went to Portland Sunday where they will spend the week.

Raymond Wright and wife, of Hardman, were visitors in Heppner last Friday.

Henry Stender and sons motored to Heppner from their home near Ione last Friday.

E. E. Rugg of Rhea creek, was delivering sheep in Heppner last Friday and Saturday.

W. E. Wiglesworth and wife of Butter creek, were shopping in Heppner Saturday.

Glenn Jones, progressive young farmer of Heppner Flat, was in the city Saturday.

S. D. Fox, of Mineral Hotel Springs Co., of Carson, Wn., paid Heppner a visit on Sunday.

T. F. Boylen, the Umatilla county sheepman, spent Saturday in Heppner and vicinity.

Con Carty, well known sheepman, was in the city Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. Carty.

Edgbert L. Young was in Heppner Saturday from his ranch the other side of Rhea creek.

Mrs. Roy Glasscock went down to The Dalles last Friday to visit with relatives and friends.

Leslie L. Matlock, former Heppner resident, came up from Portland last Friday evening.

O. M. Whittington and wife were in the city from their home south of Heppner on Saturday.

Lawrence Sweek, the Grant county stockman who lives near Monument, was in Heppner on Saturday.

Walter Gay was in from Rhea creek Friday. He reports crops looking good in his neighborhood.

Miss Lena A. Buschke, of Rhea creek, was in Heppner Friday, returning to her home Saturday.

Mrs. Chas. Valentine and daughters visited at the W. B. Barrett home in this city on Saturday.

Miss Marion Long, accompanied by her mother, departed Friday morning for California, where they will visit for a time.

Ray Huddleston was over from the Huddleston ranch near Lone Rock the last of the week with a load of wool.

Mrs. Ed. Adkins underwent a very successful operation for appendicitis at the Heppner Sanatorium last week.

Charles Stanton brought in a couple of loads of hogs Saturday, which he shipped to the Portland market.

FOR SALE—4-foot pine wood and fir posts. PHILL COHN. Inquire of Milt Maxwell, Parkers Mill, Ore.

B. G. Sligbee, the photographer, returned home from Portland Sunday, after spending the week in the metropolis.

Mrs. C. A. Minor went to Portland Monday to be present at the annual Rose show, which is holding forth there this week.

Mrs. Wm. Kummerland and daughter, who reside a few miles west of Heppner, spent a few hours in the city on Saturday.

E. D. Huston, Eight Mile farmer, and a member of the Morrow County Fair board, was a Heppner business visitor Saturday.

Ralph I. Thompson and Willis McCarty, former Heppner boys who now make their home in Portland, came up from the metropolis last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dutton returned to their Portland home last Friday after visiting through the week with relatives and friends in Heppner.

Mrs. S. E. Van Vactor and daughter, Miss Ruth, were passengers to Portland Monday morning, where they are spending the week at the Rose Festival.

E. E. Vickers, the painter, has his men at work decorating the interior of the offices of Drs. N. E. Winnard and F. N. Christensen in the Fair building this week.

Mrs. Lucy T. Wedding and Miss Ella B. Wallen, teachers in the Heppner schools the past year, left Saturday for Portland. Mrs. Wedding will attend the summer school session at the University of Oregon at Eugene.

Robert Young returned Friday from Hardman, where he spent the week previous on business. Bob informs us that he headed the list in writing new business for his company, Oregon Life, last month.

Dr. Isabella Sedgwick, osteopath, has rented the offices formerly occupied by the forestry service, in the Odd Fellows building. Dr. Sedgwick formerly practiced at Ione and Lexington, and comes highly recommended.

Mrs. C. M. White and daughters, Francis and Margaret departed for Portland Monday after visiting for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city. They were accompanied by Mrs. White's sister, Mrs. Wilson Bayless and Mrs. Henry Vance, who will visit in Portland during the Rose show.

E. O. Neill, the Galloway postmaster, was in the city Saturday.

Clarence Rice of Hardman, spent several days in Heppner this week.

W. B. Ewing, well known farmer and stockman, was in the city Monday.

W. D. Gordon, Galloway farmer, was a Heppner business visitor last Saturday.

W. W. Howard, the Butter creek stockman was in Heppner Monday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Howard.

Mrs. J. F. Vaughn went down to Portland Tuesday morning to visit through the week and see the Rose Show.

W. O. Minor and A. M. Slocum are improving their Court street properties with the addition of a concrete walk.

Several local people spent Sunday in the cool shades of the tall pines, going up in their cars and returning after sun down.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones have returned to Heppner after spending several months on the Guy Boyer farm on Hinton creek.

Oscar and Claud Keithley, of Eight Mile were in Heppner Monday, making final settlement of the estate of Geretha Keithley, deceased.

Dr. F. N. Christensen and mother departed Sunday for Portland where they are spending the week visiting relatives and incidentally taking in the Rose Show.

C. F. Angle, wool buyer, representing the Boston firm of Howell, Jones & Donald, was in Heppner a few days the first of the week looking over the wool situation.

Mrs. E. A. Clark and family, who have been living in the Groshen property on south Main street, have removed to one of the Fuchs residences on Chase street.

Charles Cannon closed a deal last week with Brady and Mulligan of Heppner, in which he disposed of his entire band of sheep for $3.50 per head after the old stuff were sheared. —Long Creek Ranger.

Miss Mary E. Power, teacher in the Heppner schools the past year, left Sunday morning for her home in North Dakota. She went by the way of Portland to take in the Rose Festival. Miss Power will return to Heppner in September.

Miss Addie M. Schwittay, a member of the High School faculty the past year, departed for Chicago Saturday. It is understood that Miss Schwittay will not return to Heppner next year, although the position she held was again offered to her.

Fred McCarter and wife are visiting with their relatives in Heppner for the present. Mr. McCarter has been engaged in business at Baker for several years past but he recently sold out and is now looking for a new location. He may decide to locate in business in Heppner again.

Miss Maud Hughes, who has been visiting for some time at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ora Adkins, on Rhea creek, departed yesterday for her home at Franklin, Lane county. Her father, Mr. I. N. Hughes, is pastor of the M. E. church, South, at that place and has resided there for several years past.

Ora Adkins and family returned to their Rhea creek home on Sunday evening from an extended trip over in Washington. They visited a brother of Mrs. Adkins', Mr. Geo. Hughes, at Kiona, Wash., and returned by the way of Kennewick, Walla Walla and Milton, enjoying a delightful trip.

E. O. Neill was up from Galloway Saturday and reports everything in that section quite prosperous at the present time, with all crops growing and maturing well. He will leave with his sheep this week for the summer range on the north fork of John Day where he has an allotment in the government forest.

Frank Turner returned to his farm home northwest of Heppner Tuesday, having completed a successful shearing season. During the season the Turner & Wilcox plant sheared 45,000 head of sheep. They closed the run last Sunday at the Minor ranch, where they sheared 20,000 of the wools.

Green Matthews and wife passed through Heppner the last of the week by auto, on their way to the Rose Show at Portland, and the Exposition at San Francisco. They spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting old-time acquaintances. Mr. Matthews, who was engaged in the barber business here a number of years ago, is now a prosperous sheep man and lives near Boise, Idaho. Their contemplated trip will cover a period of several months.

J. L. Howard came up from Portland Wednesday last and has been spending the week visiting his sons, Isaac and Will in this county. He was in Heppner Monday and enjoyed a pleasant visit with many old-time friends whom he met here. Like other former residents of this county Mr. Howard is always glad of the opportunity of making us a visit, and notes with much satisfaction the prosperity manifest on every hand. He returned to his Portland home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Keithley are developing their new home purchased some months ago from W. O. Minor and before many seasons roll around they will have a good piece of suburban property. Mr. Keithley has purchased a piece of hill land of Mr. Minor which he will use chiefly for pasture, and the bottom land bordering the creek will be brought to high state of cultivation and made to produce large quantities of fruit, berries and garden produce besides an abundance of alfalfa hay. Rabbits and squirrels have been a great bother this season and have damaged much of the garden which would otherwise have made a fine showing. By the time Mr. Keithley has finished his contemplated improvements on his little farm he will certainly have a nice home as well as a productive one.

MINOR & CO.

"GOOD GOODS"

The Fit of the Collar

—There's the Telltale

ADVERTISING talk won't tell you half of what you'll know about Sincerity Clothes when you try on a garment and feel the snug fit of the coat around your collar.

There's just one thing that puts that snugness there in a Sincerity garment—skillful hand work. The collar of a Sincerity coat isn't simply sewed on. It's built with all the cunning and skill that the highest class tailors can slowly and painstakingly put into it.

MINOR & CO.

"GOOD GOODS"

"GOOD GOODS"

Closing Out Sale

on Men's and Boys'

CLOTHING

500

SUITS IN ALL

500

We are cutting the heart out of them.

Men's $25 Suits : now $18.00

Men's $22.50 Suits : now $16.00

Men's $20 Suits : now $15.00

Men's $18 Suits : now $13.00

Men's $15 & $16 Suits : now $10.00

Men's $12.50 Suits : now $8.00

Boys' Suits at half price.

This is no bluff sale, but the real thing. Come early to get your choice. All Sale Goods CASH.

THOMSON BROS.

B. A. Stafford, of Azusa, Calif., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Case. Mr. Stafford is Mrs. Case's father, and a pioneer resident of the Willamette Valley, but has been living near Los Angeles for a number of years past. He has enjoyed the meeting of a number of his old-time Oregon acquaintances here.

J. H. Switzer and wife of Canton, Ohio, are visiting for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Slocum in this city. Mrs. Switzer is an aunt of Mrs. Slocum and also of Mrs. Lillian Bookman. They are touring the West, having just visited at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and are stopping at the principal cities on their return home.

N. H. Leathers was in Heppner Tuesday from Hardman. Mr. Leathers brought down a young coyote pup, which he sent to his nephew, Holley Leathers, at Junction City. The pup is only a month old, but it has learned several things already, under Mr. Leathers' tutelage. He is a good squirrel hunter and has every instinct of the intelligent dog.

Geo. D. Patch, of Portland, representing the manufacturing firm of Shedd & Wright, of Minneapolis, Minn., spent Tuesday in Heppner, disposing of his wares. Mr. Patch informs us that since the 22nd day of January he has visited 200 towns in the Northwest, and that this section looks particularly good to him.

Dr. Allison would call your attention to the fact that his office is now established with Dr. Culbertson in the Gunn building, two doors north of Minor & Co.

The comedy, "Thillie's Punctured Romance," had a big run at the Star theater for two nights this week. This is six reels of fun that is drawing large crowds wherever it is shown.

Dr. Copeland was up from his homestead on lower Sand Hollow yesterday. He spent the winter in Umatilla county, teaching a school near Weston. During his absence his house was broken into at the homestead and provisions taken to the amount of about $20.

Dr. H. T. Allison has moved his office from the rear of the Patterson & Son drug store to the Gunn building on Main street.

Some nice rooms to rent; just recently repapered and painted. See Henry Schwarz at Peoples Cash Market.

Bacon, finest sugar cured, and a home production, at the City Meat Market, 20 cents per pound.

REDUCED PRICES FOR ROUGH DRY WORK.

We have reduced the price of Rough Dry work to 5 cents a pound. We iron all sheets, table cloths, towels and other flat work and starch and dry the other pieces ready to dampen and iron.

No rough dry bundle taken for less than fifty cents.

HEPPNER LAUNDRY.

For Sale.

75 cords wood, $2.50. 3000 posts 4c each. Near Slocum Mill. Haul them yourself.

PHELPS GROCERY CO. Good second-hand Refrigerator. See it at store. PHELPS GROCERY CO.

Dr. McMurdo has bought out Dr. Allison's office and is now located at Patterson & Son's drug store.

Dr. H. T. Allison has moved his office into the Gunn building on Main street with Dr. A. P. Culbertson.