

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Miles Potter visited with friends in Ione this week.

Dr. L. L. Taylor of Condon, was in Heppner Sunday.

Mrs. Emmett Cochran went to Portland last Saturday.

Wray Abel, of Long Creek, was in Heppner Wednesday.

D. E. Holloway, of Monument, was in Heppner Wednesday.

Try Celro Kola, "First for Thirst," 5c at your favorite fountain.

Walter Luckman was in from his ranch near Lena on Monday.

O. B. Robertson and wife of Condon, were in the city last week.

Drink Celro Kola, "First for Thirst," 5c at your favorite fountain.

W. G. Scott, Lexington banker and auto dealer, was a business visitor in Heppner Monday.

P. B. Vanciel, the Fairbanks-Morse man, made his regular visit to Heppner last week.

Paul Reitmman, well known farmer of the Ione section, paid Heppner a visit on Sunday.

Edward, "Ox", Clark has accepted a position with Gurdane & Son during the Chautauqua.

R. W. Fletcher returned to Heppner Tuesday evening after spending several days in Portland.

According to the Blue Mountain American Baker county is now producing $200,000 per month.

Sam Stevens went to Pendleton Saturday morning, where he will work through the summer months.

J. A. Waters, County Clerk, went to Ione last Saturday, to attend a meeting of warehouse directors.

Misses Muriel and Marie Cason, popular young ladies of Ione, visited with friends in Heppner last Sunday.

Rev. Chas. H. Powell, of La Grande, conducted services at the Episcopal church in this city Sunday.

M. H. Koppie, proprietor of The Fair Store, spent several days the past week at outside points on business.

L. E. McBee, the Cecil stockman, transacted business in this city last week. He was accompanied by Mrs. McBee.

Willard J. Blake of Ione, was a business visitor in Heppner Saturday, conferring with County Assessor Wells.

C. Guy Wakefield and wife were over from Condon Wednesday. Mr. Wakefield is engaged in the piano selling business.

Mrs. L. N. Klees went to Portland Wednesday where she will spend several weeks visiting with her parents who live in that city.

Ed Rood returned to his Portland home Saturday morning, after spending the week in Heppner looking after business interests.

W. A. Orr conducted services at the South Methodist church in this city last Sunday. Rev. Orr is presiding elder for this district.

Miss Hazel Hams, of Hardman, passed through Heppner Tuesday to her home in that city. She spent the winter in Portland attending school.

Ed Farnsworth and family were passengers for Rheas Siding Saturday, where they are visiting with Mr. Farnsworth's brother, Carl, and family.

Albert Slocum made a change in some of his Main street business property last week when he had the front of the T. G. Dennisee work shop remodeled.

J. C. Owens, the Heppner-Hardman stage man now carries the mail by motor transportation, having recently purchased a Ford car through the local agents.

Jess Coats, well known Eight Mile farmer, was driving about town this week in a new Ford, which he recently purchased from Vaughn & Sons, the local agents.

Chas. Stanton, the extensive wheat raiser of Eight Mile, was in the city yesterday. He returned home with a load of lumber and several sections of the Jones' Weeder.

Charles Groshen, young son of Victor Groshen, has accepted an apprenticeship with T. G. Dennisee, and is learning the carpenter trade under expert instruction.

FREE, a trip to the PANAMA EXPOSITION, San Francisco to some lady, also a 1915 Motorcycle to some young man. Write for particulars, No. 401, McKay Bldg., Portland, Ore.

Miss Erma Davenport is at her home in Sumpter, having returned last Friday from Cecil, Morrow county, where she has just closed a successful school year.—Blue Mountain American.

Mrs. L. E. Cohn, formerly of this city, came over from Pendleton last week to look after business interests which she still retains here. Mrs. Cohn is now connected with the Sayers store in Pendleton.

J. B. Sparks took a load of baseball fans to Ione last Sunday to witness the Arlington game. Those making the trip with him were Ralph Yeager, Will Kirk, Emery Hiatt and Creston and E. C. Maddock.

Newt Whitstone departed Tuesday afternoon for his Grant county ranch in Fox valley. He traveled by ordinary conveyance this time, not being willing to chance the trip with his machine, considering the condition of much of the road.

Jack McCollough, stockman of upper Willow creek, was in Heppner Monday. Mr. McCollough did not sell his wool at the recent sale, and was very much dissatisfied with the price he was offered. McCollough Bros. had about 17,000 pounds of fine wool, for which they refused an offer of 16 1/4 cents.

Geo. W. Dykstra was down from his foot hill farm Tuesday.

Mrs. George Thomson is visiting with friends in Hood River this week.

Ben Buschke and wife were in Heppner from their Rhea creek home on Tuesday.

Tom Ross, the Echo wool buyer, was in Heppner Tuesday. He came over by auto.

D. H. Grabill, retired farmer of the Ione section, spent Monday in Heppner on business.

Miss Thelma Lucas has returned from Wasco, Ore., where she attended school during the past year.

Mrs. Guy Boyer and her sister, Miss Grace May, were passengers for outside points Tuesday morning.

Dr. McMurdo has bought out Dr. Allison's office and is now located at Patterson & Son's drug store. tf.

Henry Vance has moved into one of the Jeff Jones houses in west Heppner, formerly occupied by Joe Westoff.

Jack Hynd, the Cecil sheepman, was in the city on business Monday evening. He returned to his ranch Tuesday morning.

A. L. Ayers arrived home from Portland Saturday. He and Mrs. Ayers have been living in that city for some months past.

Dick Gentry, wife and son, of Grant county, arrived in Heppner Monday. Mr. Gentry is an extensive stockman of that section.

Al Porter, a leading stockman and rancher of the Long Creek section, was in Heppner several days the past week, attending to business matters.

Ell C. Maddock returned to his home at Castle Rock, Wash., on Tuesday, after spending several days in this city visiting with old friends.

Pat Mollahan was in town several days this week. He will spend the summer in the mountains near Higgard, where he has taken his sheep.

Miss Verna Holcomb returned to her home near Oregon City on Tuesday, after visiting for six weeks at the home of her uncle, Hugh C. Githens.

John W. Tash, son of Hiram Tash of this city, who has resided for a number of years at Buhl, Idaho, will move to Council, Idaho, where he has purchased a place.

E. D. Brown, manager of Heppner Milling company, was called to Vancouver, B. C., Friday, on account of the death of his mother, who was a resident of that city.

W. W. Becholdt is down from Hardman today, coming in with W. H. and Frank Miller after the body of John Miller who died at the hospital in Heppner last night.

Rhea Luper and family, of Salem, are visiting at the home of Mr. Luper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Luper in this city. Rhea is connected with the State engineer's office in Salem.

Rev. W. A. Orr was down from Milton over Sunday. He held services at Eight Mile on Sunday morning, and at Heppner in the evening, returning home Monday. Mr. Orr came in from Milton with Theo. Anderson.

Harry Cummings, the local nurseryman, is planting a large tract of his land in north Heppner to dahlias. Mr. Cummings says there is much money to be made in raising dahlias if handled right, and he believes that he knows how to grow them successfully.

Mrs. Geo. J. Currin and daughter, Miss Mary returned to their home in this city last Thursday evening. Miss Currin has been attending the Agricultural College at Corvallis the past year and her mother has been visiting relatives at different Valley points during the past two weeks.

J. A. Patterson went to Pendleton Tuesday by auto to look after some property interests in that vicinity. He was accompanied by Rhea Luper, who has been visiting in Heppner. Mr. Luper, who is connected with the state engineer's office, has now established headquarters in La Grande.

Hugh Githens has been appointed janitor of the Heppner school and has moved into the high school building with his family. The position was let on competitive bids this year and Mr. Githens secured the contract at a price that will be a great saving in cash to the district over what has been paid during the past year.

Mike McCabe was a business visitor in Heppner Saturday. Mr. McCabe has just recently purchased a band of sheep in the Spray country and has taken them to summer range south of Hardman. Mr. McCabe and his partner, John McHugh, have rented about 3700 acres of range land from W. H. French. Their sheep are all yearlings.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Markham were down from their Walla Walla home for several days during the past week visiting with friends and relatives in this county. Mr. Markham still has considerable land holdings near Heppner, and calls this way frequently to look after his interests. He is well pleased with the condition of crops in this county, and took occasion to visit a number of different sections while here.

W. S. Wharton, of Newberg, made Heppner a visit on Saturday. He came in from Walla Walla with Theo. Anderson. Mr. Wharton has disposed of his banking interests at Newberg and will move to the Yakima Valley the first of July with his family, to take up other lines of work. He was just returning from a visit to his new home, and was glad of this opportunity to meet old friends at Heppner again.

Theo. Anderson returned on Saturday from a trip into the Walla Walla country, which he made by auto. Mr. Anderson had never visited that country during the summer season, and was greatly delighted with the beautiful appearance of the Walla Walla valley at this time of the year. Crops of all kinds promise abundant yield, yet with all its attractiveness Mr. Anderson said that good farming in this county pays a much better return for the capital invested, and we believe he is right in his conclusion.

Mr. R. N. Moffat, of Portland, is in Heppner today. He represents the Brotherhood of American Yeomen, a fraternal beneficial society, and will endeavor to organize a "Homestead" in this city. While he represents this life and accident insurance association, he is also a song writer of note, being the author of the popular Rose Festival song, "The Portland Rose," that was so extensively sung and greatly enjoyed by all visitors to the Portland Rose Show this month. Mr. Moffat has also written numerous other popular songs published at Portland by Messrs. Moffat & Ingram. We have been presented with autograph copies of several numbers of these songs, from Mr. Moffat, and wish to express to him our appreciation of the compliment.

W. B. Barratt, who has commenced building operations on his new residence in south Heppner has completed the moving of his old house to another lot across Willow creek. Mr. Barratt contemplates the erection of a modern house, and when completed will be a valuable addition to our city. H. C. Githens is the contractor in charge.

Miss Ethel Casey, who has been teaching in the Heppner schools the past year, departed for Caldwell, Idaho. Miss Casey will return to Heppner at a later date in order to be ready for the opening of school in September.

Will Morgan came in the other day from Moscow, Idaho, and is visiting with friends and relatives in this city. This is his first visit here in about three years and naturally he is glad to get back and meet old friends once more.

John Elder came over from Spray Wednesday. He will spend a few days in Heppner before going to the Palouse country. He will assist W. B. Potter in taking some stock to Mr. Potter's newly acquired ranch near Winona.

In a fast game of ball last Sunday at Ione, the Arlington team went down to defeat by a score of 5 to 0. Sperry and Coshaw formed the battery for the Ionites and Montague did the twirling for Arlington.

W. H. French, who has been spending several days in Morrow county looking after his land interests in the vicinity of Hardman, passed thru Heppner yesterday on his return home at Forest Grove.

Walter Hayes, who is now working for his cousin, Joe Hayes on Big Butter creek, was in town this week after some supplies.

Heppner Milling Company announce a striking reduction in the price of flour. See their adv. in another column.

Miss Frances Parker spent the week visiting at the Glenn Boyer home on Hinton creek.

Ed McDaid, Morrow county farmer and stockman, was in Heppner Wednesday.

County Judge Patterson made a trip into the Butter creek country this week.

Dr. H. T. Allison has moved his office into the Gunn building on Main street with Dr. A. P. Culbertson.

Sam E. Van Vactor, local attorney, went to Portland yesterday on business. He will return Sunday evening.

Ed Hunt, Rhea creek farmer, was in town yesterday on business.

Pat Connell was over from his home near Castle Rock this week.

W. W. Smead made a business trip to Ione yesterday.

Notice to Property Owners. You are required to repair your old sidewalks and remove grass from the front of your property bordering on the streets.

By order of the CITY MARSHAL.

Some nice rooms to rent; just recently repapered and painted. See Henry Schwarz at Peoples Cash Market. tf.

Bacon, finest sugar cured, and a home production, at the City Meat Market, 20 cents per pound. tf.

FOR SALE—4-foot pine wood and fir posts. PHILL COHN. Inquire of Milt Maxwell, Parkers Mill, Ore.

Dr. Allison would call your attention to the fact that his office is now established with Dr. Culbertson in the Gunn building, two doors north of Minor & Co. tf.

FOR TRADE. A good rooming house in La Grande for Morrow county property. Inquire SMEAD & CRAWFORD.

WANTED—Lady of fair education to devote few hours each day; pleasant work for one interested in church or educational work; salary $1.50 per day.

The high grade, none better brand of flour, manufactured at home, from Morrow county blue stem wheat, is now offered by Heppner Milling Co. at greatly reduced prices. See offer on White Star flour in our advertising columns.

Mrs. Frank Winnard departed for Manchester, Iowa, this morning in response to a telegram announcing the very serious illness of her mother, whom it is feared may pass away before Mrs. Winnard reaches her bedside.

Chas. S. Coon, a sheep buyer from Gooding, Idaho, arrived in Heppner yesterday after an extended trip into Wheeler county. Mr. Coon is connected with the Gooding interests.

A. R. Nieman, representing the Ellison-White Chautauqua, arrived in Heppner last night and is now busy lining things up for the six big busy days.

M. R. Matthews, well known commercial man of The Dalles, is in the city today.

Dr. H. T. Allison has moved his office from the rear of the Patterson & Son drug store to the Gunn building on Main street. tf.

Prof. H. H. Hoffman will leave in the morning for his summer vacation. While he did not state definitely, it is likely that Mr. Hoffman will make a very extended trip this summer, as he has in mind visiting the Panama Canal, going by the way of San Francisco and returning up the Atlantic coast. Should he take this journey, he will not return to Heppner much before the beginning of the Fall term of school.

Jess Beardsley is taking a lay-off this week from his job as baggage master on the Heppner local. He timed his vacation in order to take in the big Chautauqua entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Simpson are spending the week with the family of W. W. Becholdt, near Hardman.

10 per cent off on every thing in Jewelry from June 25th to July 10th. HAYLOR.

Senator Elmer J. Burkett, four times a member of the national house of representatives and a former United States senator for a period covering six years, promises to be one of the strongest drawing cards of the season. The youngest member of each body when he entered, he attracted the attention of such men as ex-president W. H. Taft. As a chautauqua lecturer he is an unqualified success. His famed lecture, "The New Woman and the Young Man," was delivered for eleven years in twenty-seven states of the Union. Replete with wit, humor and sentiment, Senator Burkett makes his audience laugh, cry and think.

WHEAT IS GOOD AS GOLD NOWADAYS

WITH THE PRESENT HIGH WAR PRICES AN AVERAGE CROP MEANS A SNUG FORTUNE

We are offering some bargains in wheat land which will prove most alluring to the buyer who is looking for the best moderate priced land in the Northwest.

1280 Acres, All Under Fence

200 acres in timothy. Cuts 2 to 3 tons per acre. One of the best dairy farms in the county. Plenty of running water and timber. This can be had at a bargain. Price is right; Terms are right.

840 Acres Wheat Land

Plenty of water. Can be divided into two good farms. 280 acres in crop goes with this. One of the best buys in County.

960 Acres Wheat Land

400 acres in crop. Has Summerfallow. Machinery goes with place. Price right and terms are right. Come and let us tell you about it.

1440 Acres Wheat Land

800 in crop; 600 summerfallow. Plenty of water. Price and terms are right.

THIS IS A BARGAIN.

SMEAD & CRAWFORD

Chautauqua Visitors

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY!

DON'T OVERLOOK OUR FINE STOCK OF JEWELRY

From June 25th to July 10th

We are offering our Entire Stock of Jewelry at a 10 per cent. Discount for Cash

HAYLOR'S
FOR EVERYTHING IN JEWELRY

MINOR & CO.

"GOOD GOODS"

BIG SALE STILL CONTINUES.

LASTS UNTIL JULY 3RD

Less than two weeks of big opportunities in BARGAIN BUYING

Practically Everything Reduced

Take your own advantage of these extremely low prices.

Buy for your immediate needs—all seasonable merchandise included—buy for your future needs, because the store is crowded with bargains you can not afford to overlook.

REMEMBER—Lasts Only Until July 3rd
Come now while lines are complete and assortments good

"IT'S MINORS FOR MINE"