TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO IN HEPPNER

Heppner Gazette of July 21, 1890.

Mrs. Maithot, of Walla Walla, sister of Price Florence, is visiting friends and relatives in Heppner.

Hon. J. B. Sperry and family moved back to town the first of the week. They have been spending a month or more on Mr. Sperry's ranch about 5 miles southwest of town.

Work has commenced in earnest on the new three-story brick hotel. The framers are now framing and doing other necessary work preparatory to brick laying, which will be commenced next week.

The company who have recently located and are now developing the new mines at the head of Butter creek, in Umatilla county, say that as depth is obtained, the prospects grow richer. The miners are now in free mining ore which assays $60 a ton.
The Mammoth ledge, the principal one of the district, is now making the arrangements for the purchase of a large mill. Water and timber are plentiful. The mines are about forty miles from Pendleton, and are easily accessible from town.

C. L. Andrews and C. W. Young-gren left last Sunday on an extended trip through Idaho, Nevada and the northern part of California. They went on horse back and were prepared to do considerable hunting as they go along. It will take the balance of the summer for them to make the trip, which will be a pleasant one in many respects. Neither of these gentlemen will return to Heppner, but just where they will locate, they have not decided.

Blue Mountain Eagle: The drawing of the lots in the Mt. Vernon addition to Heppner came off on July 1st as was advertised and several good lots are now in possession of Long Creek residents.

Better Farm Buildings Aim of New Course.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, July 19.—"Modern farmers, orchardists and dairymen are beginning to demand scientific and economical buildings," says L. E. Robinson, instructor in architecture at the Oregon Agricultural College. "Students at this institution are to be given the opportunity to specialize in rural architecture. Although this is a departure from the regular order of college work, the demand for better buildings is becoming so positive that it will be necessary to train men for this special branch of service. Moreover the women of the farm are demanding convenient and sanitary homes at the same time the men are calling for modern out-buildings.
Thus it is necessary to train both men and women students in this line of work in order to supply the demand for improved conditions."

Bulletins, in which farm buildings are discussed and furnished with plans conforming to modern conditions, will be issued by the Extension division. In these bulletins all solutions of the farm house problems are to be based on the strictest economy, since the average man engaged in agriculture has but a limited amount of money to spend on house improvements. Convenient kitchens, sanitary fixtures, drainage, economical arrangements and better surroundings, will be the main points discussed and illustrated in the bulletins.

Bulletin on County and Community Fairs.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, July 19.—County and Community Fairs is the title of a new bulletin just issued by the Extension division of the Oregon Agricultural College. The authors of the bulletin are W. S. Brown, E. B. Pitts and C.
C. Lamb, who state that its four-fold purpose is as follows:
To give methods of arrangement and management that will avoid lack of uniformity in best arrangement of exhibits.
To give information to producers and exhibitors that will aid them in selecting and preparing exhibits.
To aid fair officers in compiling premium lists.
To secure the adoption of a uniform system of classification, thereby enhancing the educational value of competitive exhibits.

It is thought that this information when acted upon will be an incentive to farmers to grow and exhibit more and better products. The bulletin will be sent free to all citizens of Oregon who request it.

Misses Muriel and Marie Cason, popular young ladies of Ione, visited in Heppner over Sunday with friends.
They returned to their home Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cochran have again taken possession of their farm home near Monument. J. E. Porter, of Tacoma, bought the place several months ago, but has now turned it back and has moved with his family to Tacoma.

Frank Mason, extensive farmer of the Lexington section, was in Heppner on business last Monday.

Edgar Ayers, proprietor of the Home theater, is making some improvements to his house this week by way of interior and exterior decorations. Vickers and son are doing the work.

Emmet Cochran, the Grant county stockman, came over from his ranch the first of the week. Mr. Cochran made the trip in his Hupmobile, and he does not speak in very complimentary terms of the condition of the road across Mahogany ridge.
