For all other two-vision lenses there is a line or seam between the near and far vision portions that makes the wearer look less than his best, and unmistakably brand him or her with a sign of age.
Kryptoks are double-vision lenses that look exactly like regular one-vision lenses because there are no lines or seams in them.

Dr. Winnard can supply these lenses

Miss Vivian Cox departed Friday for Portland and points on the beach to spend her summer vacation.

IONE.

Miss McNabb, of Delta, Iowa, is visiting friends and relatives in and about Ione.

Mrs. R. W. Snyder from Lexington vicinity was a business caller at Ione last Monday.

Mrs. Chas. Calkins spent last Sunday in Ione visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Johnson.

Geo. McDuffee passed through Ione one day last week on his way to The Dalles on a little business trip.

Phil Doherty and Julius Miller were passengers to North Powder last week where Phil has his sheep.

O. E. Lindstrum and family spent a few days at Rheas Siding last week visiting at the home of Oscar Lundell.

John McIntire was a passenger to Portland Monday, going down on some business matters of importance.

Walter Eubanks, who has been down here for the past three weeks returned to his duties at Pendleton last Sunday.

Mr. Mane Moore moved from the Fred Ritchie house to the Bill Windsor house last week, and has got nicely settled again.

Mrs. Wilmet and daughter Kitty were Heppner visitors this week, going up Monday evening and returning the following day.

Henry Clark, who is helping Peanut Dan do the painting act at Heppner, was down last Sunday and visited with his family.

Mr. Gist, who is the main push out at the F. H. Wilson ranch, came into Ione last Saturday evening and spent Sunday with his family.

Mrs. S. E. Moore, who has been out at the Padberg ranch this summer, came to Ione and spent Sunday with her husband last week.

E. R. Higgs was a visitor at Pettysville last Sunday, at the same time getting some of those rabbits that are so numerous up there.

John Harbke, of Portland, has been up to this city again looking after some of the wheat that is being harvested on his place north of town.

Roy Ray and family moved out to the Esteb ranch at Gooseberry last Saturday where they will help Mr. Esteb look after the grain crop.

Velmaletta Woolery has been suffering with a broken arm for some time. We are glad to see that she is able to have it out of a sling once more.

Shorty Calkins moved from the Allyn house last week to the Cochran house. This will make him a little closer to his work, which will save a good deal of time.

Born—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Winters, a nine pound girl, on August 16th. Mother and child are doing fine, and Ralph is wearing that everlasting smile.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Low, and Mrs. L. L. McMurray and her son departed last week for the mountains where they will spend some time having a good time in the shade of the old pine trees.

Mrs. Williams and her daughter, Mrs. Mathison of Portland, who have been visiting up here for a short time, were guests of Mrs. Cynthia Walker over Monday night. They returned to their home Tuesday morning.

Frank Christensen, our genial pill twister, was a passenger to Portland last Tuesday morning. We do not know for sure what the attraction in that neck of the woods is but Frank certainly has business of a mysterious nature down there.

Last Monday F. H. Wilson had a fire out at his threshing machine which might have been very serious. A spark from the engine set fire to the derrick table and burned it and the wagon it was on completely. It also burned in the neighborhood of 150 sacks of grain. The separator was saved, so it was not quite so bad as it might have been.

Last Saturday Bert Mason, Walt Pruyar, John Cochran, Joe Knappenberg and W. H. Cronk started to the mountains in a couple of autos to try their luck at the deer. They had 10 deer engaged to different parties in Ione before they left and were figuring on keeping one each for themselves, so we are watchfully waiting for the boys to return with the fifteen bucks.

Last Sunday morning we saw something coming into town which greatly resembled a porcupine, but on closer examination, it proved to be Walt Pruyar's fox terrier, dressed up in a porcupine suit. He had evidently been out looking after some different amusement and had run up against the real thing. Some of the boys, feeling sorry for Mr. Dog, got a pair of pliers and relieved doggy of a great deal of inconvenience.

Mr. Pettys had another pleasant surprise last Sunday in the shape of another birthday party, all his children being present at this occasion. These parties are coming pretty thick but the old man seems to enjoy them all the same. These good people made a monster big cake with one candle on it for every year he was old, making a total of 85 candles. They also had a five-gallon freezer of ice cream to make the cake set better. They all report an excellent time.

Mr. F. A. Lundell was given a pleasant surprise last Tuesday when his two daughters, Mrs. J. E. Swanson and Mrs. O. E. Lindstrum with their families came over to his home in this city with their baskets groaning with too many good things in the line of eats. This merry party had not forgotten that it was the old gentleman's 67th birthday and he was remembered in the way which only loving children are able to remember. We hope Mr. Lundell will see many more such happy birthdays.

Percy Jarmon was up from his Butte creek home yesterday, being able to get around pretty well on crutches. He was kicked on the knee by a horse some two weeks ago and the accident kept him confined to the house for some time, though no bones were broken.
