When
you need
two-vision lenses—be sure to get

KRYPTOK LENSES
(Worn by over 250,000 people)
For in all other two-vision lenses there is a line or seam between the near and far vision portions that makes the wearer look less than his best, and unmistakably brands him or her with a sign of age.
Kryptoks are double-vision lenses that look exactly like regular one-vision lenses because there are no lines or seams in them.

Dr. Winnard can supply these lenses Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO IN HEPPNER
From the Gazette, Sept. 18, 1890.
M. D. Hayman got back from Mc-Duffee Springs Tuesday much improved in health.
Dry McClaran is up from Brownsville to look after his interests in the bald, but everlasting Heppner hills.
Mr. and Mrs. Briggs, of Vancouver, parents of L. W. Briggs, are visiting the latter at his home in Heppner.
The brick work of Heppner's hotel is completed. It looms up in striking contrast with smaller joints close at hand.
Miss Cassie Cantwell is very ill with typhoid fever, at the home of her father, Wm. Cantwell, who now resides in Portland.
A two-horse shay passed through town yesterday from Palouse, bound for "Californy." The team consisted of a 700-pound cayuse and a horse 16 or 17 hands high. Funny rig, but they are "getting there." Chas. Mallory got home Tuesday from New York, where he has been with horses which he sold well and came home happy. Will Mallory is buying sheep in the Chicago market for the market farther East, and is doing well.
The Heppner soda works have been purchased by Geo. B. Tedrowe, who will use the clear, crystal waters of Murphy's spring, above town, on the Jas. Jones ranch to make the exciting pop—fizz—sizz for Heppner people. No need of importations when Tedrowe gets his works going.
All the visitors to Portland's races have returned except Jas. Jones, Geo.
Swaggart, Tom Matlock and Bill Til-lard. From what Pat can learn the boys backed the wrong horse at the City View Park races. It is often thus. Messrs. Jones and Swaggart are attending the Salem fair.
T. W. Ayers, Jr., has bought the City Drug Store from the heirs of A.
D. Johnson and will continue the busness at the old stand, where he solicits a continuance of patronage.

Mr. Ayers is a young man of sterling qualities, is well known to everyone here and will undoubtedly succeed.

A bucket full of hot ashes set fire to P. O. Borg's woodshed last Monday morning. It was speedily extinguished. Later in the day T. W. Ayers barn was discovered to be on fire, just back of the horse stalls. How it started was a mystery. It was also put out in its incipency. Look after fire.

Charley Ah Sing was pulled last Monday for harboring a vicious dog, which actually bit several. He was left off with the costs of the case, agreeing to kill the dog. Chinatown had dog a la fricasee on Monday and Tuesday. Chinatown can eat more Heppner dogs and still not extinguish the breed.

ing Co.'s new Fall and Winter style

MRS. L. G. HERREN.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—At ranch or in town. Pine cord wood. Write Box 197, Heppner, or See R. H.
Weeks, Hamilton Ranch. Also pasture to let for 75 to 100 head of cattle. J. 15-2m.

BIG VALUE IN STRAW FOR A COVER CROP

Thirteen burned or burning straw-stacks were seen by the O. A. C.
Press bulletin editor a little less than a year ago, in traveling 60 miles along a Willamette Valley railway.
Formerly much of the straw now wasted in smoke was hauled to mills and made into paper. The loss to the land is the same in both practices, not only carrying away fertility elements but leaving the soil in easily puddled condition. The value of the former is about $2.84 in each ton of wheat straw, $4.05 in each ton of oat straw, and $7.48 in clover straw.
Draining the soils of these elements for plant making year by year causes losses that lead to depletion, and at the same time renders less available the portions remaining by taking out the supply of humus—the soil ingredient that makes the soil work readily and gives it the dark, rich look, so much sought after in general farm lands. Since the season of the year is now approaching when large quantities of straw are burned, the Press Bulletin has secured for its next issue an illustrated article by Professor G.
R. Hyslop on methods of returning straw to the soil.

pose of to the Community Auction

SOME OF THE BEST
FROM "JUDGE"
Thought He Might Catch It.
The tall, fidgety man hurriedly entered the depot, and, addressing a bystander, asked: "Do you think I can catch the flyer for Chicago?" The man addressed casually surveyed the other's long legs and, slowly removing the cigar from between his lips, replied: "Well, it looks like you ought to, but you'd better hurry, for she's been gone half an hour."
Says Old Mrs. Fretty Fawlt:
"If folks would always tell the truth,
And never would pretend,
Nobody in this neighborhood
Would have a single friend!"
—Tennyson J. Daft.
At a Loss.
"Young Mrs. Wombat doesn't seem to know what to do for her baby."
"Well, you can't wonder. No book of instructions came with him."
The Rift in the Lute,
He's ruler of the Macaroons,
And Master of the Knockers,
And he has been for many moons Panjandrum of the Shockers.
In the great order of the Bun
He's the Supreme Controller,
And in the Soldiers of the Sun He's the Knight and Chief High Roller.
He's the Iuca of the Fiddledees
And Captain of the Booters, High Cockalorum of the Bees
And Rusher of the Scooters.
Yet what are titles such as those But merest sham and shoddy
When in his home (as well he knows)
His wife thinks he's nobody!
—Nathan M. Levy.

You can't tell by the noise the horn makes how much gasoline is in the tank.
The Relationship.
Mrs. Swiftley and her former husband were still friends. Noting the similarity of names and their familiar manner toward each other, a lady who was a guest with them at a week end party, thought they must be cousins.
"Is Mr. Swiftley a connection of yours?" she asked.
"No," laughed Mrs. Swiftley. "A disconnection."

A Wise Kid.
"Johnny, do you know that your mother has been looking for you?" asked the neighbor next door.
"Sure I do," replied Johnny; "that is the reason she can't find me!"

Not Aphrodite.

A Little Child Shall Lead Them.
The word was tire. The teacher of the infant class was endeavoring to impart it to the children by the suggestive method.
"What is it that you always must have when you go automobiling?" she asked.

The Self-Made Man.
"I'll have you understand, sir," said the bustling little chap, "that I am a self-made man."
"All right, old man," said Jiggers.
"Now run along home and finish the job, and then I'll talk to you."

Getting Even.
Husband—You have robbed my trousers.
Wife—That's what you get for hooking my clothes.

Her First Concern.
The waitress was pretty and conscious of the fact.
The diner was frivolous and forward.

But.
"I suppose," said the timid young man, "when you recall what a handsome young fellow your first husband was you wouldn't consider me for a minute?"
"Oh, yes, I would," sweetly replied the widow, "but not for a second."
Weekly Telegraph.

What He Did.
Dora—And so you quarreled?
Lallie—Yes, and I returned all his presents, and what do you think he did?
Dora—Something horrid, I'm sure.
Lallie—He sent me a half a dozen boxes of face powder, with a note, explaining that he thought he had taken as much as that home on his coat since he first met me.—New York Globe.
