

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Dr. Isabel Sedgwick, the I. O. O. F. Building.

G. A. Farrens was in the city Saturday.

W. E. Cason of Lone Rock, was in the city Saturday.

Jos. T. Knoppenberg was in the city on lone on Monday.

John Hughes was a passenger to Portland yesterday morning.

Marshall Phelps took in the Round-Up at Pendleton last Saturday.

P. C. Garrison and wife of Bend, passed through Heppner Sunday.

Chas. Buckman attended the Round-Up at Pendleton last week.

Jones & Sons finished the 1915 threshing season Sunday morning.

Dr. Isabel Sedgwick, the I. O. O. F. Building.

Jack Hynd, the Ceell farmer and stockman, was in Heppner Saturday.

WANTED—Sewing, $1.50 per day. Inquire here.

E. F. Day and wife visited with Heppner friends a few days this week.

Twenty-five years ago hay was selling in the Harney valley for $2.50 per ton.

Frank Lieuailen, of Rhea creek, was a Monday business visitor in this city.

Robert Allstott of Eight Mile, was transacting business in Heppner on Tuesday.

Dan Barlow and family motored into Heppner Tuesday from their Rhea creek home.

Chas. Vaughn and wife returned home Sunday evening after spending several days in Portland.

J. S. Turner, of Monument, shipped two carloads of hogs to the Portland market last Sunday.

O. E. Farnsworth returned home Tuesday evening after spending several days at outside points.

John Olden, Rhea creek farmer, shipped a carload of cattle to the Portland market last Sunday.

Paul Reitmunn, extensive wheat farmer of the lone section, was a Heppner visitor last Saturday.

R. B. Wilcox, dairyman who resides below Lexington on Willow creek, was a Heppner visitor Saturday.

A. W. Sanderson enjoyed a few days rabbit hunting on the W. B. Barratt ranch in Sand Hollow last week.

W. E. Wiglesworth, R. F. Wiglesworth and Whit Mauldin, well known Butter creek men, were in the city Tuesday.

Rev. P. J. O'Rourke and niece, Miss Margaret O'Rourke, returned home Friday after a visit of two weeks to outside points.

Frank J. Miller and his stenographer, L. D. Leedy, of Salem, conducted a hearing at the court house on Tuesday for the State Railroad Commission.

Tom Arnold, Eight Mile farmer, came to town Monday in his "horseless" carriage. Mr. Arnold drives some fine mules.

Paul Webb, who recently became a benedict, was down from his ranch Tuesday, continuing to receive the congratulations from his many friends.

Gerraid Wyld, of Portland, has accepted a temporary position in the First National Bank of this city. Mr. Wyld is a son of E. A. Wyld, of the First National of Portland.

W. F. Sutherland, a former resident of Heppner and Lexington, brought over a fine bunch of hogs from his Grant county ranch Sunday and shipped them to Portland.

Frank H. Robinson, Wm. Cronk, M. B. Haines and O. B. Barlow, prominent business men of lone, attended the railroad hearing at the court house in this city Tuesday.

See that rollicking comedy, "The Commuters" at the Home Theater tomorrow and Saturday. This is one of Geo. Kleine's best productions and ranks in the same class with "Stop Thief" and "Officer 666."

Spencer Akers has purchased a lot from W. P. Dutton in west Heppner and is contemplating the erection of a modern residence on the same in the near future. This lot joins the Henry Scherzinger place on the west and faces on Center street.

According to the Condon Times, most of the Gilliam county farmers are holding their wheat for a dollar a bushel. The Times admonishes the buyers to come through with the dollar and clean up the new crop before the snow begins to fly.

L. M. Davis, well known resident of Irrigon, spent Saturday in Heppner transacting business. Mr. Davis is one of the many irrigationists who has great faith in the future and believes that with the opening of the big ditch Irrigon will start on a very rapid growth.

A car of fine seed rye arrived this week—HEPPNER MILLING CO.

Dr. Isabel Sedgwick, the I. O. O. F. Building.

A. E. Bates, the Hardman thresherman, was in the city on business Tuesday.

A. M. Zink was in the city from lone Tuesday.

J. J. Simas of Monument, was in Heppner Tuesday.

Dr. Cline, of Silverton, was in Heppner this week.

Arthur Madden came over from Condon yesterday.

County Clerk Waters made a business trip to lone on Tuesday.

Joe Eskelson, the Clarks canyon farmer, spent Monday in Heppner on business.

W. P. Prophet, well known Hardman merchant, was a Heppner business visitor Tuesday.

Fred Hunt, of Spray, shipped a car of fat hogs to Portland from the Heppner yards Monday.

James Murtha, the Gilliam county sheepman, was registered at the Palace Tuesday from Condon.

Chance Wilson and wife motored to their home near Monument Wednesday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Karl Farnsworth.

A daughter was born to the wife of Mike Healey at the Heppner Sanatorium in this city this morning. The baby weighed seven pounds.

E. F. Day, former Morrow county citizen, is in the city from Portland looking after property interests which he still retains here.

G. C. Huber, the Seattle contractor who will build the new bridge across Willow creek at the lower end of Gale street, began operations this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dutton returned to their home in Portland Tuesday, after visiting with relatives and friends in this city for several days.

Glasses fitted satisfactorily by Dr. Winnard, or money refunded. His prices are reasonable, and he is where you can always find him. No charge for testing eyes.

Mrs. Roy Glassecock went to The Dalles Tuesday to spend several days with her parents and to enjoy the Wasco county fair which is in progress there this week.

Fred Ashbaugh and wife departed this morning for their old home at Council Bluffs, Iowa, and they will spend some time visiting with relatives back through the middle West.

Olin Hayes spent a few days in Heppner the past week, visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hayes. He returned to Portland Tuesday, where he now has a good position.

Elmer Engle, a former Heppner boy, who has been working for the O.-W. R. & N. Co. for the past several years, was in town yesterday with the special sheep train which took out the minor lambs. Elmer now makes his home in The Dalles.

F. J. Blesinger and wife, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Culick, on Butter creek. Mrs. Blesinger is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Culick and the young people are spending a vacation of a couple of weeks in this county.

Mrs. L. W. Hill has disposed of her farm, some fifteen miles north of Heppner to W. L. Copenhaver, who owns land adjoining. This gives Mr. Copenhaver a fine tract of land in the Strawberry section. Mrs. Hill departed Monday for Hood River, but contemplates spending the winter at Roseburg.

Emerson Keithley and family, who formerly lived on Eight Mile, are in the city from their new home at London, Lane county, Oregon. They are greatly pleased with the Willamette valley climate and are well satisfied in their new location. Mr. Keithley is engaged in the general hardware business at London.

The city hall was moved this week from its old location to the corner lot adjoining, which was recently obtained through a trade with Oscar Minor. The city fire bell and tower now occupies the lot where the city hall formerly stood, and the appearance of this corner has been greatly benefited by the changes made.

J. P. Conder, editor of the Morrow County Free Lance, in company with W. R. Fletcher and L. K. Harlan, manager and editor respectively of the Heppner Herald spent a few hours in lone Saturday in the interests of the new paper. They departed from that city for Arlington where Dr. Conder introduced his paper to the people of that city and Messrs. Harlan and Fletcher crossed the river into Washington on further business.

The Home theater announces the engagement on Friday and Saturday, October 1 and 2 of George Kleine's latest farce, "The Commuters" founded on the popular stage comedy by James Forbes, "The Commuters" features beautiful Irene Fenwick, supported by a Broadway cast of well known players. The story is a chuckle and laugh from title to tail-piece and a fitting successor to that former Kleine comedy "Officer 666."

Time To Act.

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness. Profit by Heppner People's Experiences.

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are frequent symptoms of kidney disorders. It is an error to neglect these ills. The attacks may pass off for a time but generally return with greater intensity. Don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up their use until the desired results are obtained. Good work in Heppner proves the effectiveness of this great kidney remedy.

E. L. Perry, painter, Main St., Heppner, says: "My kidneys were weak and my back was so painful that I was obliged to walk all stooped over. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills made a cure. During the past few years there has been no sign of the trouble."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply take for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mr. Perry. Foster-Milburn Co., Proprs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Clyde Brock went to lone this morning to take up his duties as cashier of the Bank of lone.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sparks are re-joining over the advent of a ten and a half pound son, born Sunday, Sept. 26th, Dr. Sedgwick attending.

Hugh Currin and family have taken up their residence in the city, having moved into their property in West Heppner. Alex Green, who formerly occupied the house, has moved in with Judge Cornett for the winter.

Mrs. Emma Dice, who has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. O. G. Crawford, for the past year and a half, left this morning for Marshalltown, Iowa, to resume her former position as matron of one of the women's buildings at the Iowa State Soldiers' Home.

American Dollar is King.

For the first time in history, the American dollar has taken its place at the head of the financial world. T. J. Mahoney, cashier of the First National Bank of Heppner, received a news item from New York this morning which stated that the Anglo-French loan of $500,000,000 is now open to all the banks of this country. The loan is payable in American dollars.

Rood-Coleman.

Walter Rood, well known farmer of Heppner Flat was married to Miss Helen Coleman in this city Wednesday evening, Justice J. P. Williams performing the ceremony. Mr. Rood is a son of Andrew Rood, and has made this county his home since birth. Miss Coleman formerly resided in Gilliam county, but has made her home in Heppner the past two years.

Dr. Isabel Sedgwick, the I. O. O. F. Building.

Hardman Items.

A new drug store is being erected where the old one stood.

A grand ball is to be held in the Maccabee hall Friday, Oct. 1. Everyone is invited.

A. E. Wright moved his family to town Sunday.

W. G. Farrens passed through town the first of the week on his way to his home in California.

Eva McDonald started to school here Monday.

Albert Emery is preparing to move the Maccabee hall down on Main street, where he is going to move the Fair store stock from Heppner.

Dr. Gaunt made a flying trip to Portland Tuesday.

Leslie Brannon started to school here Monday.

Nora Capon, of Monument, is in Hardman visiting relatives and friends.

Jap Walker and family were in town Sunday, visiting relatives and friends.

Harlan Adams, son of J. B. Adams, fell and cut his arm severely on a piece of glass. Four stitches had to be taken.

Archie Saling is appointed health officer of the Hardman school.

Joe Howell is building a fine new cellar on his town property.

Jim Burnside has been running the Ham hotel for the past month as C. H. Ham and wife went to Portland.

Chester Saling and family will move to town soon.

Tilden Williams and Wright Saling are having their houses papered.

A surprise party was given Lena Baird on her birthday last Saturday night.

Henry Chapel and family have moved onto the Creed Owen place.

Which Winter Textile?

Now for New Winter Woolens!

For your Suit, may we suggest: New tartan plaids, Glen Urquharts, King and shepherd or club checks, basket weaves, novelty mixtures, nifty stripes; Scotch tweeds and a wealth of new shades, colors and tone-effects.

For Your Overcoat—

Fancy Cheviots, Meltons, Russian Eleyians, mixed Boucles, fancy Kerseys, soft Shetland and Mohair effects, Golden Brown Coverts and scores of other fabric-designs from

Ed. V. Price & Co.

MINOR & CO.

LOST—$10.00 REWARD.

There strayed from my place at the head of Sand Hollow, about five months ago, one sorrel, two-year-old colt, branded SZ on right hip. For return of said animal to my farm, or to me in Heppner, Oregon, I will pay a reward of $10.00

MIKE SZEPANEK.

Lessons in Piano.

Miss Virginia Crawford wishes to announce that she is now ready to resume her work in piano instruction. New pupils and former ones can arrange for hours by calling at residence or phoning Main 426.

SOME GOOD JERSEYS FOR SALE.

If you are thinking of going into the dairy business and want some milk stock that can be purchased cheap and on good terms, inquire at this office. Six head of cows, about 6 years of age and coming fresh in December; 2 yearling heifers and 2 2-year-old heifers; also 1 registered Jersey bull that can be had to go with the herd. It will pay you to look into this deal.

FOR SALE—4-foot pine wood and 8" posts. PHILL COHN. Inquire of Milt Maxwell, Parkers Mill, Ore.

Why employ traveling eye specialists when you can get the proper fit by Dr. Winnard. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Get your cord wood at the Louis Groshens place on Rhea creek for $2.50 or at the Hamilton ranch for $2.50. R. H. WEEKS.

Why go to the trouble of baking when you can buy the best of bread at the Heppner Bakery.

Dr. Winnard has taken special course in treatment of eye, ear, nose and throat.

FOR SALE—A good shorthorn bull for sale cheap if taken at once. Inquire at this office.

FOR SALE—Purebred White Leghorn roosters; none better. $1.00 each while they last. O. E. LINDSTROM, Morgan, Or.

FOR SALE—A No. 15 DeLavel cream separator, good as new, as it has been used for a very short time. A bargain. Inquire at this office. tf.

Dr. Isabel Sedgwick, the I. O. O. F. Building.

CITY MEAT MARKET
J. FRANK HALL, Prop.

Best in the line of meats handled at the lowest possible prices. FINEST HOME-MADE LARD AND FRESH AND CURED MEATS.

See Me Before You Sell Your Fat Stock.

Well! Here I come - to Stay and to tell you each week where to buy Hardware

TIGE - HIS MARK

HELLO, EVERYBODY.

I'M "TIGE"

I'M HERE TO TELL YOU WHICH IS THE BEST HARDWARE STORE IN TOWN. IT IS

VAUGHN & SONS

THEY SELL GOOD, RELIABLE HARDWARE. THEY KEEP THE PRICES HAMMERED DOWN LOW. YOU'LL GET A SQUARE DEAL.

YOU'LL SEE ME EVERY WEEK.

FOR SALE—A good residence lot; a good barn, chicken house and a number of fruit trees on lot. Inquire at this office. tf.

TYPHOID is no more necessary than Smallpox. Any experience has demonstrated the almost instantaneous relief, and bacteriemia, of Amoytyphoid Vaccine. Be vaccinated NOW by your physician, you and your family. It is more vital than house inspection. Ask your physician, druggist, or send for "Have you had Typhoid?" telling of Typhoid Vaccine, results from use, and danger from Typhoid Carriers. THE CUTLER LABORATORY, BERKELEY, CAL. PRODUCE VACCINES & SERUMS UNDER U. S. PAT. 1,000,000

FOR SALE—Seven head of good work mules, will be sold on reasonable terms. Inquire of J. S. Young, Heppner. 3t.