RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

To the Officers and Members of Willow Lodge, No. 66, I. O. O. F.: We, your committee on resolutions and condolence, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, the Grim Reaper has again entered our Lodge and has, with his sickle of death, removed from our midst our beloved brother, Clyde Brock; therefore,

Be it Resolved, That we recognize that in the death of Brother Brock, Willow Lodge loses one of its most faithful members, one who was universally beloved and one who exemplified the highest and best teachings of the Order.

Resolved, That we mourn the loss of Brother Brock the more because we had felt and believed that his sun had scarcely reached the zenith.

Resolved, That we shall ever cherish the memory of Brother Brock and that that memory shall ever brighten and strengthen that chain of which Friendship, Love and Truth are central links.

Resolved, That we extend to the grief-stricken family our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in this sad hour of their bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the lodge and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

S. E. NOTSON,
W. O. HILL,
A. M. PHELPS,
Committee.

ning. The public is cordially invited.

OCTOBER 30 WILL BE OREGON DAY

Oregon Building, Panama-Pacific Exposition, October 6—Oregon State Day at the Exposition has been set for Monday, October 30. This is an Exposition arrangement and on that day all the honors that can be heaped upon the Beaver state by the Exposition officials will be forthcoming.
This means that the chief dignitaries as well as the lesser luminaries, of this greatest of all fairs will don silk ties and other prescribed parapheralia, gather themselves into automobiles and with Governor Withycombe in the front car, will follow the Exposition and Marine bands to the Oregon building, and there in the shadow of the modern Parthenon was eloquent over the glorious achievements of the state to the northward. Governor Withycombe, whose business in life has been to make two blunders of grass grow where but one grew before, will probably be asked to plant a tree where none has grown before, and in the name of the great state of Oregon he may receive a plaque, or more aristocratically speaking a "commemorative medal." The guns at the big fort will probably boom, the battleship Oregon may let loose some six inch salutes, flags will fly, Oregon eldar will flow and at no time, before or since, will the Oregon building be in such gala attire. After the parade—which the people at the Oregon building and the Oregon Society of California will endeavor to make the largest and most memorable in Exposition history, and all the orating has been done to the delight of the assembled multitudes, Governor Withycombe and the chosen few will be carried away to the California building and there wine and dine until their stomachs as well as their hearts are filled to overflowing. In the case of Governor Withycombe, the wine will be water, of course, but San Francisco water is of such thickness and color that even the dined nearest him will not notice the substitution unless it is announced. After the feast and laudations of the greatest state in the Union by the highest officials of the greatest Exposition that ever happened, there will be a reception at which the people gathered here from the four corners of the earth may have opportunity to greet Oregon through its most distinguished representative, Governor and, incidentally, they will get to shake hands with the president of the exposition and others next to him in official rank. When the shadows have fallen and the Exposition buildings and grounds have taken on the iridescent glow that makes this a dream city, a fairy land, the California building will be the scene of a grand ball at which the Governor and other Oregon representatives will be guests of honor. Gentlemen in full dress and ladies in undress "creations" will trip the "merry ha-ha" and the revelry will continue until exhaustion and the dawn of another day demands a cessation.

All in All, Oregon Day will be some large occasion, and during the entire time Governor Withycombe and his party are here, there will be things doing calculated to be of special interest to Oregon people. At the Oregon building there will be as much social activity as the Governor will stand for, and in every way possible, effort will be made to bring Oregon to the forefront. Crowds of Oregonians here will help very materially and those who delay their visit for the two weeks of which October 30 is the center will find much of interest extraordinary at the Exposition.
October 21st ushers in Horticultural Week, which will be a hummer, and at the same time the Fall Flower show will be under way. The Stock Show will be in full blast until the middle of November and November 2nd is San Francisco Day. The latter is certain to bring a crowd of 300,000 and the greatest day of special events and festivity of the Fair period. The weather continues perfect, and those who know San Francisco best say that "settled" weather may be counted on until near December.

There will be a meeting for the band boys in the Council Chambers on Monday evening, Oct. 11, for the purpose of organizing a band. Everyone interested, come and bring whatever band instrument you have.

assistants real bartenders, six of 'em, in white coats.

As for the bar, well, it will be a regular one with front and back bars, plate glass mirrors, considerable "gingerbread" work, glasses stacked with soldier-like precision and—Isten—there will be the brass foot rail too, and it will be highly polished.

While the exposition is in progress the loganberry, grape, raspberry and blackberry will vie for first honors at the bar. By the way, here is another secret just let out of the bag.
For the first time there will be served a beverage that looks like beer, tastes like beer, has the customary "head" to it and the ever present "kick," but isn't beer at all.

Notice.

ever band instrument you have.

WILL HAVE REAL BAR AT PRODUCTS SHOW

Portland Exposition Drinks to be Served After State Goes Dry.

Portland, Oct. 7, (Special)—Now comes the "1916 Bar" as one of the headliners at the coming Manufacturers' & Land Products Show, to open October 25.

People with parched throats, roaming about in search of suitable libation to quench a rising thirst, will find a great array of drinks with every flavor, and combination of flavors so far discovered in the eventful life of the "soft drink."

"Let's have a temperance bar, the kind we'll have next year," said one committeeman.

"That's a good idea," agreed another.

"Why not call it the '1916 Bar,' suggested the third, and all voted yes at once.

Thus the "1916 Bar" became an institution. A manager was secured and this manager will have as his
