

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Dr. Isabel Sedgwick, the I. O. O. F. Building.

G. P. Shambart, of Eight Mile, was in Heppner Tuesday.

Miles Mulligan spent several days in Heppner this week.

Attorney J. T. Knappenberg was in the city Monday from Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hale spent several days in Portland last week.

Percy Jarmon of Butter creek was a Heppner business visitor Monday.

Victor Groshen went to Portland this morning on a ten-day's business trip.

Harvey Watt was a visitor at the Delaney home in Lexington last Saturday.

Jas. Fitz departed Monday on a trip to outside points for a visit with friends.

DANCE Saturday night at Fair pavilion. Music by Redifer's Orchestra.

Will Howard and E. O. Neill, Butter creek farmers, were in Heppner Tuesday.

Will Morgan was in town Tuesday after spending several days in the mountains.

LeRoy Neill and family were Heppner visitors Tuesday from their home on Buttercreek.

Natt Scott and Geo. Perry were over from their ranches near Lone Rock this week.

Ed Adkins and Wm. Salzwedel were in Heppner discussing the hog law last Friday.

Ralph I. Thompson is in the city from Portland for a few days to look after business matters.

Mrs. J. H. Wilt and Mrs. Willard Blake of Ione, spent a few hours in Heppner Monday afternoon.

W. K. Corson, who has been on the Joe Hayes ranch for several months, is spending the week in Heppner.

Mrs. Victor Baldwin has joined her husband in this city and they have taken rooms in the Club building.

Roy Ashbaugh motored in from his ranch near Hardman Monday. He was accompanied by Geo. Perry Jr.

FOR SALE—Thirty-five head of shoats in good condition, weighing 60 pounds each. O. E. ADKINS.

Jake Dexter returned the last of the week from San Francisco, where he spent a month visiting at the Fair.

J. H. Cox has taken out a permit to build a concrete walk along the front of his residence on Baltimore street.

Bob Young, deputy game warden, spent several days at Irrigon the past week on duties connected with his office.

Sam Ganger left this week for the John Day country, where he will look after some sheep belonging to L. V. Gentry.

J. H. Wyland and son, Ernest, well known sheepmen of Hardman, were business visitors in this city the first of the week.

W. P. Prophet, of the well known Hardman firm of Prophet & Biddle, was in Heppner from the south end last Saturday.

W. W. Smead returned the last of the week from Salem, where he had charge of the Morrow county exhibit at the State Fair.

Ralph Adkins came in from Rhea creek Tuesday after a few ranch supplies. Ralph continues to limp a little from rheumatism.

Mrs. Melissa Marlatt is moving into her town house on Willow street this week. Mack Gentry is living on her farm above town.

Jeff Jones now drives a 1916 model Case car, having traded in his old Case to Vaughn & Sons, the local agents for this new machine.

Victor Groshen is fitting up one of his buildings on upper Main street for a shooting gallery and bowling alley, which will be operated by his boys.

W. C. Lacey came up from Portland Sunday to look after business affairs in this county. Mr. Lacey is just recovering from an attack of la grippe.

Frank Turner and family will leave the last of the week to visit at the home of Mrs. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cochran at their farm home near Monument.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb were in town from the Webb ranch Saturday. They were accompanied by Natt Webb, Jr., who was on his way to his home at Walla Walla.

FOR SALE—Weber piano in excellent condition. Owners are leaving soon to travel and will sell this instrument at a bargain. For terms etc., inquire at this office.

W. W. Cryder, supervisor of the Umatilla National Forest reserve, came over from Pendleton Monday to look after business pertaining to his office in this section of the reserve.

H. P. Goodman, father of Mrs. N. E. Winnard, left this morning for Portland and Seattle. Mr. Goodman's home is in Whitewater, Wis., and on his return to that city will visit with relatives in Los Angeles and El Paso, Texas. Mr. Goodman spent several weeks in out town, became acquainted with our people and likes this place very much. He expressed himself as being surprised with this Eastern Oregon climate, since he had always imagined that it was a great deal like that of Wisconsin. Mr. Goodman is a Grand Army veteran, and met several of the old soldiers at a party given in his honor by Mrs. Winnard last week.

While in Lexington the other day, a representative of this paper called on Ernest Clark, who operates the only barber shop in that city. Mr. Clark informed us that he is enjoying an excellent trade and is thoroughly pleased with his new location. Mr. Clark has rented the shop for a year from J. B. Coxen, and he and Mrs. Clark are living in the Coxen residence.

Mike Marshal came over from his home near Castle Rock Monday on business. He reports that his young son, who was accidentally shot in the hip with a shot gun several days ago is now in a Pendleton hospital and is rapidly recovering from his injuries. The boy was hunting rabbits when the gun was accidentally discharged.

B. H. Burroughs, in partnership with his brother, R. I. Burroughs, has leased the bowling alleys in the Roberts building from Elmer Beaman, the owner. They will continue to operate the business in the same high class manner and a continuance of former patronage will be appreciated by them.

Mrs. Jack Devore was severely burned on both arms one day this week. She was carrying hot jelly from the stove to a table when she slipped and upset the jelly. Her arms were burned from her hands to her shoulders, and the injuries required the attention of a physician.

Anderson Hayes took an auto load of Heppner high students to Lexington last Saturday to witness the Ione-Lexington football game. In the party were the Misses Hannah and Isabel Wilson and Florence Ralston and Messrs. J. W. Motley, Elra and Anderson Hayes.

Henry Peterson has returned to Heppner to enter high school again after spending the summer at his home in Gooseberry. Henry is a good student as well as a good athlete and he will be welcomed by teachers and students alike.

Fred Tash, of the Farmers' warehouse, is spending the week in Portland, where he is attending the Grand Lodge session of the Knights of Pythias. Mr. Tash is a delegate from Dario Lodge No. 29, of this city.

Jas. Kirk, of upper Willow creek, has moved his family to town for the winter and the children will attend school here. They have taken up their residence in one of the Groshen buildings on south Main street.

J. C. Leggett, stockman of Ogden, Utah, who has been spending the past several weeks in Grant and Harney counties, is now in this vicinity. Mr. Leggett is an importer of high grade stallions.

Spencer Akers has commenced work in the construction of a modern bungalow on his property at the west end of Center street. Mr. Akers recently bought a lot there from W. P. Dutton.

Hanson Hughes and wife went down to Portland this morning to spend the next two weeks. Mr. Hughes will combine business with pleasure and take a much needed rest.

Glasses fitted satisfactorily by Dr. Winnard, or money refunded. His prices are reasonable, and he is where you can always find him. No charge for testing eyes.

Dr. Isabel Sedgwick, the I. O. O. F. Building.

A car of fine seed rye arrived this week—HEPPNER MILLING CO.

WANTED—Sewing, $1.50 per day. Inquire here.

Dr. Isabel Sedgwick, the I. O. O. F. Building.

Dr. Isabel Sedgwick, the I. O. O. F. Building.

IONE.

Walt Smith and Joe Knappenberg were visitors at Heppner last Monday.

Joe Beezley left last week for the Madras country where he will remain indefinitely.

Born—In Ione to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lundell, on Friday, Oct. 1st, a fine big boy.

Mrs. J. B. Sparks and baby are in the city these days visiting with Mrs. Chas. Shaver.

Mrs. P. M. Morris was a visitor at the county seat last Monday, returning the same day.

Chester Titus made a business trip to Portland last week, coming home last Tuesday night.

Burl Buffington, who jitneyed over to Washington last week, returned to Ione last Tuesday.

Tiney Shepard is enjoying a visit from his brother and his wife. We

GOOD NEWS

Many Heppner Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the many bad backs suffers in Heppner are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak, and aching back is had no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading.

Henry Howard, Heppner, says: "For thirty years I suffered from rheumatic pains in my back and hips. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I was induced to try them. They gave me great relief. I only hope that my statement will be the means of leading other kidney sufferers to try Doan's Kidney Pills." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same kind Mr. Howard had. Foster-Milburn Co., Proprietors, Buffalo, N. Y.

did not learn where they were from. Roland Wade, of Walla Walla, came in on last Tuesday's train and is visiting with his sister, Mrs. Ed. Bristow.

Ione has had more than her share of gypses passing through and camping within the city limits, the past few days.

Dr. Chick and Geo. McDuffee made a trip to Coyote last week to dispose of the remains of a dead man found in that locality.

Dude Hagewood, the head man in the kitchen at the Ione hotel, has been on the sick list for a few days, but is about all right once more.

George Parman, from the Walla Walla country, came down to his old camping ground last Tuesday and will visit with friends for a few days.

The Tuna-Lum Lumber Co. has installed a new set of scales and Bill can weigh anything now from a bumble bee feather to a locomotive.

Bert Barlow went up to Heppner in the auto last Saturday. He was accompanied by Wm. Barlow and wife and daughter and Alex Lindsay.

There was a dance given at the rink last Saturday night. The music was some what bum, but the young people seemed to have a good time anyway.

Lon McCabe was in from the ranch last week with a load of wheat. He took out a fine new stove and all the fixtures for same to be set up in the school house out there.

Mrs. John Wilt was a passenger last Monday for Salem where she will visit with her daughter for a short time. She will probably visit with friends in that locality before she returns.

A social card party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mason one evening last week, where a jolly party gathered to spend the evening. The next meeting will be held at the home of P. S. Bender.

J. H. Cochran, Walt Puyear and E. R. Lundell made a trip down below Cecil last Sunday in search of some a few but they could not get their ducks. The boys said they saw quite some pointed in quite the right direction, so only brought a few back with them.

Dr. Van Water, traveling missionary for the Episcopal church, stopped in Ione last Monday and spoke to a good sized audience in the Baptist church Monday evening. He gave a splendid talk and those who missed hearing it missed a rare treat. He expects to call on us again about the 15th of November.

Ed Wilcox has returned from the Palouse country, where he spent several weeks in the harvest fields. He is now making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, on their farm east of Heppner.

Snow-Flake Sodas Crackers as they ought to be

Don't let another day go by without trying these delicious crackers.

In generous 10c and 25c packages also in bulk

Something New

Snowflake Sodas in a Tin box. Price 50c. The box is most useful. See it at your dealer's.

PACIFIC COAST BISCUIT COMPANY
PORTLAND, OREGON

LISTEN!

MRS. AND MISS GOOD-DRESSER

We have received a supplement of the season's latest

IDEAL Tailored Suits and Coats

Exquisite Styles in Fur Trimmings
Nothing Newer—Nothing More Stylish
The Last Word in Fashions

We Are Going to Make This Week the

"DRESS-UP WEEK"

For the Ladies of this town

Come in and Let Us Show What Is What

MINOR & CO.

"GOOD GOODS"

NOTICE.

There came to my place 2 1/2 miles northeast of Lexington, on July 20, 1915, one blood red cow, Durham and heifer calf about ten months old. Both animals branded M. H. on right hip. Owner may have same by paying all expenses.

JOHN PIPER,
Lexington, Ore.

Lessons in Piano.

Miss Virginia Crawford wishes to announce that she is now ready to resume her work in piano instruction. New pupils and former ones can arrange for hours by calling at residence or phoning Main 426.

SOME GOOD JERSEYS FOR SALE.

If you are thinking of going into the dairy business and want some milk stock that can be purchased cheap and on good terms, inquire at this office. Six head of cows, about 6 years of age and coming fresh in December; 2 yearling heifers and 2 2-year-old heifers; also 1 registered Jersey bull that can be had to go with the herd. It will pay you to look into this deal.

FOR SALE—4-foot pine wood and 6 posts. PHILL COHN. Inquire of Milt Maxwell, Parkers Mill, Ore.

Why employ traveling eye specialists when you can get the proper fit by Dr. Winnard. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Get your cord wood at the Louis Groshens place on Rhea creek for $2.50 or at the Hamilton ranch for $2.50. R. H. WEEKS.

Why go to the trouble of baking when you can buy the best of bread at the Heppner Bakery.

Dr. Winnard has taken special course in treatment of eye, ear, nose and throat.

FOR SALE—A good shorthorn bull for sale cheap if taken at once. Inquire at this office.

FOR SALE—Purebred White Leghorn roosters; none better. $1.00 each while they last. O. E. LINDSTROM, Morgan, Or.

Missionary Society Meets.
The Women's Missionary Society of the Christian church met with Mrs. McCarty Tuesday afternoon. There were about thirty ladies present. After the program refreshments were served.

CITY MEAT MARKET

J. FRANK HALL, Prop.

Best in the line of meats handled at the lowest possible prices.
FINEST HOME-MADE LARD AND FRESH AND CURED MEATS.

See Me Before You Sell Your Fat Stock.

Our "Heaters" will save you money—handsome too

BUY ONE OF OUR NEW HEATING STOVES. IT WILL ORNAMENT YOUR HOME; IT WILL SAVE YOU FUEL; IT WILL SAVE YOU WORK.

WE HAVE SO MANY THAT WE HAVEN'T SPACE TO DESCRIBE THEM ALL. WE INVITE YOU TO COME AND SEE THEM AND THE MANY NEW "ATTACHMENTS." YOU WILL FIND JUST THE STOVE YOU WANT.

HOW ABOUT A NEW RANGE? SEE OURS.

VAUGHN & SONS

FOR SALE—A good residence lot: a good barn, chicken house and a number of fruit trees on lot. Inquire at this office.

FOR SALE—Seven head of good work mules, will be sold on reasonable terms. Inquire of J. S. Young, Heppner.

TYPHOID is no more necessary than 2 m. a. t. p. o. s. Any experience has demonstrated the almost miraculous efficacy, and harmlessness, of Antityphoid Vaccination. Be vaccinated NOW, by your physician, you and your family. It is more vital than house insurance. Ask your physician, druggist, or send for "Have you had Typhoid?" telling of Typhoid Vaccines, results from use, and danger from Typhoid Carriers. THE CUTLER LABORATORY, BERKELEY, CAL. PRODUCING VACCINES A SECOND UNDER U. S. PAT. LICENSE