FORMER HEPPNER BOY
HONORED AT O. A. C.Paul V. Maris Selected By Board of Regents After Canvass of the United StatesMr. Paul V. Maris, of Marshall, Missouri, has been elected by the Board of Regents to the position of State Leader of County Agriculturists of Oregon. He succeeds Professor H.
T. French.Mr. Maris was graduated from Pacific University, Forest Grove, being a native Oregonian, and also from the College of Agriculture of the University of Missouri, where he specialized in dairy and rural economies.
He also took advanced work at the University of Wisconsin. He has been assistant dairy and food commissioner of Oregon for two and one-half years, leaving this work to become extension specialist in dairy husbandry of the Colorado Agricultural College. He was county agent in Salina county, Missouri, for about one and one-half years.The Board of Regents made a careful canvass of the United States to locate the right man and Mr. Maris was found to have been very successful in extension work in Colorado and a splendid county agent in Missouri. He is also thoroughly familiar with Oregon conditions and altogether well qualified for the position.— O. A. C. Barometer.Mr. Maris is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
N. C. Maris of Portland, and formerly resided with his parents in Heppner.

25 YEARS AGO IN HEPPNER

From the Gazette of Nov. 13, 1890.

Millard French is recovering from an illness which has kept him in doors nearly all last summer.Jeff and Joe Hayes, accompanied by J. T. Turley, got back from Ellensburg last Thursday.Andy Cook has good range for his sheep over in the Butter creek country, and is well pleased with the prospect.Heppner's new hotel, the Palace, is rapidly nearing completion. When finished, Heppner can truthfully boast of the finest hotel in Eastern Oregon.The editor left this morning for Portland, in response to a telegram from Mrs. Patterson, who is seriously ill at St. Vincent's hospital.County Clerk, J. W. Morrow, has placed on file in his office a bill of exceptions in the case of the O. R. & N.
Co. vs. E. R. Swinburne, et al. covering 29 typewritten pages. It is the intention of the railroad to carry the matter up to the supreme court.Billy McFerrin killed a black bear, weighing 600 pounds, near Black Butte, recently. It is one of the large-est of its kind ever killed here. The hide of this unfortunate brute hangs in front of the Liberty Meat Market.V. A. Stephens, of Eight Mile, is reported recovering from an attack of typhoid malaria.Every enterprise in Heppner should have our full patronage. Buy home products and home manufacture; it will come back to you again.
Money sent out of the country is liable to stay.

Former Heppner Woman Passes.

Mrs. D. C. Mills, for several years a resident of this city, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. L.
Kenton, in Albany, Ore., on Friday, November 5. At the time of death, Mrs. Mills was 79 years old. She was a native of Michigan. A daughter, Mrs. Kenton, of Albany, and a son, Ed Mills of Portland, survive her.Several Heppner people are planning to attend the Oregon-O. A. C. game in Eugene on the 20th of this month. Among those contemplating the trip are Robert Young, J. W.
Motley and Henry Cohn.LAND GRANT CONFER-ENCE, SALEM, NOV. 18Ex-Congressman Lafferty Advocates Political Revolution and Says the People Must Raise H—H.The Conference between State officials and officials of the Southern Pacific Railway who have to deal with the disposition of the Oregon and California Land Grant meets at Salem, November 18th.The state conferees are Governor Withycombe, Treasurer Kay, Secretary Olcott, Senators Bean, Garland and Vawter of the Land Grant counties, and Mr. Spence, Master of the State Grange.There are about as solid a body of careful business men as it would be possible to make up, and it is expected the S. P. Co. will be represented by D. W. Campbell, Wm. E.
Herrin, and others.Congressman Lafferty of Portland, in a column paid advertisement advises the people of Oregon to raise "Hell." He says men, women and children in Oregon are starving and are "land hungry."He says twenty-three hundred thousand acres "of the most fertile land in the state are being kept from the poor and the land-hungry" under an act of congress passed forty years ago. Competent judges say not over one-sixth of the grant is fit to support families.One S. W. Williamson representing the Department of Justice, has been in Oregon for some time investigating the Land Grant, and he is quoted as saying no two men in Oregon agree as to what should be done.Mr. Lafferty openly preaches political revolution unless his interpretation of the acts of Congress and Supreme Court decisions can be adopted as the policy of the state and nation.He threatens to use the recall on all who take a different view from what he takes—and his view is forced sale at $2.50 per acre to the first applicants regardless of real value of the lands.If the state and the nation have all the interest above $2.50 per acre, as the Supreme Court decision might indicate, the Lafferty proposition is to sacrifice all that at a time when there is no market for timber lands."Between Savage and Tiger" At The HomeThe most exciting and thrilling
has ever produced in this country is his latest success, "Between Savage and Tiger," a magnificent six-part production by the Cines Company of Italy. It presents a story of adventure and romance in the jungles of India that fairly bristles with action and keeps the spectators in a constant state of feverish interest and enthusiasm.Tigers, water-buffalo, antelopes, savages and all the other wild elements with which the jungles of India abound are utilized in rounding out a consistent tale of gripping interest. It is the first big modern production that Mr. Kleine has imported and illustrates the versatility of the Cines Company. According to all accounts, no animal, jungle or adventure story that has thus far been seen in this country can compare with "Between Savage and Tiger." This remarkable entertainment is to be seen here for the first time next Friday and Saturday at the Home Theater.Mrs. James Kirkpatrick returned to her home at Weston Monday after a visit of several days at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Edwards of Sand Hollow. Mrs. Mosier, mother of Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Edwards has arrived from Weston and will spend the winter at the Edwards home.1080 ACRES OF DEEDED LAND
