When you need two-vision lenses—be sure to get

KRYPTOK LENSES

(Worn by over 250,000 people)
 For in all other two-vision lenses there is a line or seam between the near and far vision portions that makes the wearer look less than his best, and unmistakably brands him or her with a sign of age.
 Kryptok are double-vision lenses that look exactly like regular one-vision lenses because there are no lines or seams in them.

Dr. Winnard can supply these lenses
 Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

THE BEST FROM JUDGE

The Managerial Idea.
 Author (explaining play to manager)—This is not the entire plot; just the bare outline.
 Manager—Well, if you will develop the bare outline sufficiently, I think the show will take.

Modern Antiquities.
 Mrs. Newcoyne—They tell me those dishes I bought for antique pottery were made in New York last summer.
 Mr. Newcoyne—It must be they are not what they were cracked up to be.

Ideal Spot.
 Madge—It's foolish to put any Christmas decorations in this out-of-the-way corner. You have it so cluttered up not more than two could squeeze in there.
 Marjorie—You little goose, that's where I'm going to hang my mistletoe.

He Meant Business.
 Mrs. Bennett arrived at the conclusion that the attachment of Teddy Nolan, the policeman, for her cook must be investigated, lest it prove disastrous to domestic discipline.
 One morning she took Annie, the cook, to task regarding the matter. Annie admitted his attentions.
 "Do you think he means business, Annie?" asked Mrs. Bennett.
 "Yes, mum, Oi tink so," replied Anne. "Anyway, he's begun to complain about my cookin', mum."

Too Cheap.
 The doctor—Madam, you must take more exercise. I should advise walking every day.
 Mrs. Newlyriche—Walking! My dear doctor, you must be accustomed to attending poor people.—Philadelphia Record.

The Lost Umbrella.
 Little things can be very trying at times. Mr. Fowler thought, when one morning he could not find his umbrella. Like many married men, he believed in the maxim, "When in trouble blame your wife."
 "I say, Ellen," he shouted, "what on earth has happened to my new umbrella? I brought it home last night and now it's gone; and, of course, it's raining furiously!"
 "Why, it's scarcely raining at all!" said his wife. "But last night it was simply pouring when the parson left and so I lent him your umbrella!"
 "What an asinine thing to do! I shall never see it again, so I may well buy another today!"
 "How can you be so wicked, Adolphus? As if the parson would stoop to stealing your umbrella?"
 "Stoop to stealing it be hanged! I borrowed it from him a couple of months ago!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

What Are YOU Worth From the NECK UP?

It is estimated that the average man is worth $2 a day from the neck down, but is worth from the neck up.

The depends entirely upon training. If you are trained so that you plan and direct work you are worth ten times as much as the man who can work only under orders.

The International Correspondence Schools go to the man who is struggling alone on small pay and say to him, "We will train you for promotion right where you are, or we will qualify you to take up a more congenial line of work at a much higher salary."

Every month several hundred students voluntarily report advancement as the direct result of I. C. S. training.

You need not leave your present work, or your own home. Mark this comment once and mail it.
