Dick Turpin, the lone barber, spent Sunday night in this city.

Mrs. Frank Sheppard of Ione spent Monday night in this city.

E. E. Rugg of Rhea creek was a business visitor in the city Monday.

Wm. Salzwedel, who farms west of Heppner, was in the city Tuesday on business.

E. R. Huston, well known Eight Mile farmer, visited in this city with his family this week.

Wm. Beymer, the Grant county sheepman, was over from Monument the first of the week.

Stephen Irwin and Spencer Crawford went to Arlington Sunday, returning home the same evening.

Earl Puyear and wife returned to their home in Ione Sunday after spending several days in this city.

Herb Fant returned from Portland Sunday evening, after spending several days in the metropolis on business.

Harvie Young and wife were in the city from their Eight Mile home on Monday, doing some Christmas shopping.

Gerrald Wyld has returned to his home in Portland, after several months spent with the First National Bank in this city.

The young baby of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Culick died last week at the Slocum Mill, and was brought to Heppner Saturday for burial.

J. S. Whitbeck and wife and Bert Hall and wife were passengers for Portland Monday morning, where they will visit during the Christmas vacation.

T. J. Mahoney, cashier of the First National Bank, returned home the fore part of the week from a business trip to Tacoma and other outside points.

Woodson & Sweek are, making some extensive improvements in their office rooms in the Palace hotel. The rear room is being divided into two private offices.

Walter Duncan is confined to his home this week on account of pneumonia poisoning. Mr. Duncan is also suffering from an attack of appendicitis it is reported.

Misses Lera Githens and Melba Griffiths, students of the Oregon State Normal school at Monmouth, arrived in the city Sunday evening to spend the Christmas vacation.

George Peck, who is farming a ranch west of Lexington, spent a few days the last of the week visiting friends in this city. He returned home Sunday morning.

J. L. Wilkins, of the Palace Hotel, returned home last Friday evening from Portland after attending the meeting of the State Hotelmen's Association of which he is a member.

Miss Edith Thorley, who has been attending the Pacific University at Forest Grove, arrived in the city Saturday and will spend the Christmas vacation with relatives and friends here.

Frank Ward passed through Heppner Saturday evening on his way to Hardman, where he expects to remain until about the first of March. Mr. Ward has been running a saw mill in the vicinity of Fossil.

Mrs. Eleanor Cameron returned to her home in Portland Sunday, after visiting through the week with her daughter, Miss Josephine. While in Eastern Oregon, Mrs. Cameron visited with her daughters in La Grande and Pendleton.

Ben Anderson and Ceell Lutkins, well known young men of Eight Mile, went to Cottage Grove last Sunday, where they will spend the Christmas vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson. Mrs. Johnson is a sister of Mr. Anderson.

A marriage license was issued Saturday by County Clerk Waters to Ernest Frederickson and Miss Josie Eskelson. Both are well known young people of this county, Miss Eskelson being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Eskelson of near Lexington.

One of the prettiest furs we have seen here in a long time was that from a bob cat killed by Walter Matteson on Arbuckle mountain this week. The animal was treed by Willard Herren's dog "Vickie" and was shot by Mr. Matteson with a 303 Savage.

George Perry of Lone Rock was in Heppner this week buying supplies for his Rock creek ranch. Mr. Perry reports that Natt Webb is very ill, and only recently returned from Portland, where he received treatment. Mr. Perry says that the grass on his range is growing rapidly and thus far this season he has not been compelled to feed his stock hay to any considerable extent.

H. Selby and Wm. Roesch, prominent young business men of Pendleton, motored to Heppner Monday on business. Mr. Selby was a resident of Morrow county a few years ago, but is now a business man in the Umatilla county seat town. They were accompanied home by Walter Furlong and wife, of Hardman, Mr. Furlong being a brother of Mrs. Selby. While in the city, Mr. Roesch visited at the home of John Natter. Mr. Roesch's father being an old-time friend of the Natter family.

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness. Profit by Heppner People's Experiences.

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are frequent symptoms of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect these ills. The attacks may pass off for a time but generally return with greater intensity. Don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up their use until the desired results are obtained. Good work in Heppner proves the effectiveness of this great remedy.

E. L. Berry, painter, Main St., Heppner, says: "My kidneys were weak and my back was so painful that I was obliged to walk all stooped over. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills made a cure. During the past few years there has been no sign of the trouble."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mr. Berry. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Arthur McAtee made a trip to Portland last week and returned home last Monday evening.

Anson Wright, pioneer sheepman of the south end of the county, is spending the week in the city on business.

Paul Webb and wife were passengers to Walla Walla Wednesday morning and they will spend the holiday season with Mr. Webb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Webb.

Miss Lucille Culbertson, who is a student at the University of Washington, arrived home Monday evening from Seattle and will spend the Christmas vacation with her father, Dr. A. P. Culbertson in this city.

O. H. Paulson, of San Francisco, Calif., is in the city this week. Mr. Paulson is a hustling young business man and has traveled over the Northwest considerably during the past few years. Newspaper circulation is his specialty. Mr. Paulson is much impressed with our city and people, he says.

County Superintendent of Schools S. E. Notson went to Salem Sunday, where he has business at the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Notson will go on to Medford for the meeting of the county superintendents of the state before returning home. He will also be present at the annual meeting of the Oregon development League in Portland the last of the month.

To Portland for Christmas. O. E. Farnsworth and wife, daughter Mary, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beymer and Mrs. L. E. Bisbee and children and Ted Young went to Portland Tuesday where they will remain through the Christmas holidays.

Car Load of Fords Arrive. Vaughn & Sons this week received a carload of Ford automobiles. There are eight machines in a car. These Fords will be assembled for Spring delivery. The price for the Ford car now is $495.

Masons Elect Officers. Heppner Lodge No. 58, A. F. & A. M. elected and installed the following officers last Saturday evening: Jos. M. Hayes, W. M.; Nels H. Justus, S. W.; Dr. H. T. Allison, J. W.; L. W. Briggs, treasurer; W. R. Irwin, secretary; Hugh C. Curran, Tyler; Thos. Brennan, S. D.; E. R. Huston, J. D.; W. B. Barratt, S. S. and H. A. Emerson, J. S.

Rabbits Menace Hay. Rabbits in the vicinity of Ceell have become such a menace that precautionary steps have been taken to prevent these animals from getting away with all the hay there. C. A. Minor, extensive sheepman of this city, who some time ago purchased several stacks near Ceell, went down there Tuesday, accompanied by Gene Campbell and Jerm O'Conner, supplied with sufficient wire netting to fence the hay.

Will Organize Athletic Club. A movement has been started by Chas. Volle, Martin Anthiss and M. L. Taft to organize an athletic club in Heppner and they expect to have the organization completed by the end of another week. The idea is to rent the brewery saloon building, which is situated at the upper end of Main Street and convert the same into an up-to-date gymnasium. They are planning a smoker, which they will pull off in the near future and at that time membership cards will be circulated and the men in charge expect to make a success of their undertaking from the very beginning.

Grover Swaggart Injured. Grover Swaggart, who lives on the Eastern Oregon Jack farm north of Lexington, received his second injury from a mule within a few months, when three bones in his left foot were dislocated last Monday. Mr. Swaggart was teaming at the time on Swaggart Buttes and was riding one of the mules. On a steep grade and slick muddy road the mule was unable to hold his footing, and when he fell Mr. Swaggart's foot was caught in such a manner as to cause the dislocation. He came to Heppner Monday evening for treatment and was able to return home Tuesday.

City Meat Market Sold. A deal has recently been made whereby Ralph Johnson and L. J. Slover of Pendleton become the owners of the City Meat Market. They will take possession the first of the year. Both are experienced men in this line of business. Mr. Johnson having worked with the bigger meat packing houses of Walla Walla and Pendleton during the past 12 years. Mr. Johnson and family will live in the John Kinsman house in east Heppner. Mr. Slover is unmarried. It is understood that Frank Hall, who has been in the meat business in Heppner for several years will not leave Morrow county, but will engage in farming.
