

After Invoice Specials

Our Invoice, just completed, shows us we are overstocked on Meat.

We are offering some No. 1 Country Cured Meats as follows:

Shoulders	-	14c lb.
Hams	-	16c lb.
Bacon	-	17c lb.

Phelps Grocery Co.

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Rufus Cochran, of Ione, was in the city last night.

Frank Lieuallen was in the city today accompanied by his son.

R. E. Allstott, Eight Mile farmer, was in the city Wednesday.

M. D. Clark and family returned from Portland Sunday evening.

Bert Hall and family returned from Portland Sunday evening.

George Peck, of Lexington, visited over Sunday with friends in Heppner.

Hynd Bros. are constructing a new sheep shed on their Sand Hollow farm.

J. B. Culick and wife were in the city yesterday from their home near Lena.

Emmett Cochran and wife, of Monument, are Heppner visitors this week.

M. A. Loehr has taken charge of the abstract office of the late W. L. Smith.

E. J. Starkey, electrician, made a trip to Arlington Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

D. S. Barlow, Eight Mile farmer, was transacting business in this city Wednesday.

Chas. Jayne returned from Portland Tuesday evening after spending New Years in the metropolis.

H. V. Gates, president of the Heppner Light & Water Co., came up from Portland Wednesday evening.

C. E. Hendley and H. B. Giese, well known Hermiston business men, are in the city today on business.

V. Gentry has just completed a modern residence on his farm on Hinton creek just above town.

Dillard French of Gurdane attended the good roads meeting at both Pilot Rock and Pendleton this week.

Dr. Cecil Dabney and wife went to Portland Monday to visit with relatives. Wirt Minor, well known Portland attorney, is an uncle of Mr. Dabney.

Mrs. Lucy T. Wedding and Miss Jessica Sahn, teachers in the local school returned to Heppner Sunday evening after spending a few days in Portland.

Misses Marie and Muriel Cason, Kitty Wilmot and Miss Hotchkiss, popular young ladies of Ione, attended the O. A. C. glee club concert in this city last Saturday evening.

W. W. Smead, secretary of the Morrow County Fair Board, went to Corvallis Tuesday to attend a meeting of the fair secretaries of the state in that city which will be held today and Friday.

Miss Lucille Culbertson has returned to Seattle after spending Christmas with her father, Dr. A. P. Culbertson in this city. Miss Culbertson is taking special work at the University of Washington.

John Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stevenson, is now located in Pilot Rock and is enjoying a good trade in the shoe repair business. Until recently Mr. Stevenson has been located at Payette, Idaho.

J. B. Sparks, who is installing a light plant in Pilot Rock, has now everything about ready for the turning on of the current. The people of that city are enthusiastic over the prospects of having a good lighting system.

Victor Groschen is making some changes in his building at the corner of Main and May streets this week. In the rear, a kitchen and dining room is being fitted up and in the front Mr. Groschen will conduct a soft drink establishment.

Bert Bowker has moved his gasoline warehouse from near the depot to the lot on Main street just between the Wilson hotel and Bower's shoe shop. The building is now being remodeled and will be fitted up for suitable living quarters.

A steady fall of snow has continued all morning with no signs of discontinuance. About three inches of the beautiful covers the ground here in town, but reports coming in from the hill country indicate that the snow is much deeper there.

If the party who obtained that overcoat by mistake at the New Years ball at the Fair pavilion last Friday night will return the same to this office he will be appraised of the whereabouts of his own coat and will also confer a great favor upon the owner of the above coat.

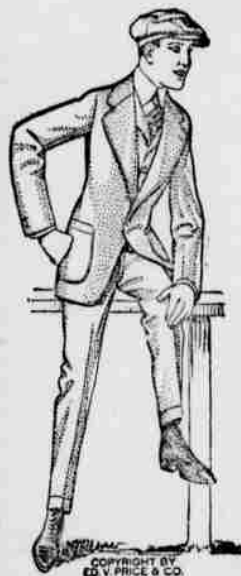

Misses Nelba Griffiths and Lera Githens returned to the Oregon State Normal School at Monmouth last Saturday. Miss Griffiths had been spending the Christmas holidays at the home of her uncle, J. A. Patterson and Miss Githens visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Githens.

Mrs. L. N. Christensen entertained several young people at her home Monday evening, five hundred being the principal feature. After a very pleasing round at cards the guests were treated to refreshments consisting of coffee and sandwiches. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Vaughn, Miss Burke, Miss Power, Mr. Motley and Dr. Christensen.

Good Dress Defined

Expressing in your clothing the personality that is you, with style of thoroughbred correctness and fabrics of pleasing harmony.

You will find here the Sincerity Clothes that will portray you with well tailored symmetry.

Sincerity Clothes, $15 to $25

Minor & Co.

The Sincerity Clothes Shop

WHY HAVE THE GRIPPE?

When you can get a Preventive

HUMPHREYS DRUG CO.

Licensed Embalmer J. L. YEAGER Lady Assistant
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Phone Residence Heppner, Oregon

WE wish to thank our friends and patrons for the many favors of the past year and wish for all a very prosperous and happy New Year.

Gilliam & Bisbee

Dr. J. G. Turner, formerly of Lowe & Turner, eye specialists of Portland, will be in Heppner Friday and Saturday, January 14 and 15, at Palace Hotel. In Ione Thursday, January 13. Headaches relieved, cross eyes straightened; no charge for consultation or examination.

NOTICE.

I have sold the business of the City Meat Market to Johnson & Stover and wish to thank the people of Heppner for their liberal patronage extended to me. All persons owing me on past accounts will confer a favor by settling as soon as possible.
FRANK HALL.

TO THE PUBLIC:

I beg to announce that the abstract business heretofore carried on by W. L. Smith, deceased, will be continued by his estate.

Mr. Marion A. Loehr, who has had thirty years experience in abstracting has taken charge of the books. Mr. Loehr has been with the Hartman Thompson Bankers of Portland for the past year and comes highly recommended, and all work turned out under his direction will be found correct and reliable.
ARTHUR SMITH, Administrator.
1mo.

Jeff Jones has 100 head of hogs at these tockyards in this city which he intends to ship to Portland in a few days. The hogs will average about 230 pounds. Mr. Jones will accompany the shipment and while in Portland will visit with a sister who lives there.

Umatilla county tax levy for 1916 is made at 7 1/2 mills.

John Jenkins, Eight Mile farmer, was in the city Wednesday.

Emil Grottkopp was in the city from Heppner Flat last Wednesday.

Lish Watkins was in the city Wednesday from his upper Willow creek farm.

Dan Engleme, the Ione painter, spent a few hours in Heppner yesterday.

MANY DOLLARS WORTH OF FARM KNOWLEDGE FOR YOU IN EVERY ISSUE OF

WESTERN FARMER

THE FARMER'S FRIEND

For the past sixteen years the WESTERN FARMER has been fighting the battles of the Pacific Northwest—from its very inception its advice and counsel has proven the short cut to profits for its readers and the extension of its influence is shown by the fact that

WESTERN FARMER IS READ IN MORE THAN 60,000 OF THE BEST FARM HOMES

This 60,000 circulation is more than double that of any other farm paper in the Pacific Northwest.

Join the ranks of the progressive farmers in this territory. Become a subscriber to Western Farmer now and read the 1916 articles by Western Farmer's special staff of writers pertaining to every branch of farming.

You can get Western Farmer for a whole year, two issues each month, by taking advantage of our special clubbing offer with the

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

Call at the office of The Gazette-Times and learn how to secure both of these splendid papers—The Gazette-Times, which is Heppner and Morrow county's foremost paper and Western Farmer the best edited and most practical farm paper of the Pacific Northwest, at a special clubbing price, or write direct to

WESTERN FARMER PORTLAND OR SPOKANE