

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Tom Arnold was a Heppner business visitor Tuesday.

Notice the announcement of Dr. D. R. Haylor on this page.

W. O. Bayless, Rhea creek farmer, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hughes of Lena were in the city yesterday.

O. B. Barlow, of Ione, was a visitor in our city Wednesday.

Dan Harlow of Eight Mile was in the city on business Wednesday.

Anson Wright of Hardman paid Heppner a business visit on Tuesday.

L. P. Davidson and wife, of Ione, spent several hours in our city last Friday.

Theodore Anderson of Eight Mile was in the city from his farm home on Sunday.

John Kilkenny was a Saturday visitor in Heppner from his Hinton creek ranch.

Mrs. Jane Egger, of Walla Walla, is enjoying a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Baird of this city.

R. D. Watkins went to La Grande yesterday to buy in some isolated land which had been advertised for sale.

Dr. N. E. Winnard was called to Hardman last week and was in consultation with Dr. Geo. Gaunt of that place.

Dan Hanshew, accompanied by Mrs. Hanshew, spent Saturday in Heppner from their farm home in Black Horse canyon.

D. O. Nunamaker, son of J. R. Nunamaker, the Hood River fruit grower, spent a few days in Heppner the first of the week.

C. A. Minor went to Echo last Thursday to look after cattle which are being fed near that city. He was accompanied by Mrs. Minor.

J. S. McClellan, agent for the Continental Life Insurance Company, is in the city this week in the interests of his company. C. C. Patterson is the local agent. Mr. McClellan makes his headquarters in Portland.

We would call your attention to the professional card of Dr. Cecil Dabney which appears in this issue. Dr. Dabney is now permanently located in the Odd Fellows building.

H. L. Stanfield, extensive stockman of Umatilla county, was in the city last Saturday from Echo. Mr. Stanfield now has interests near Heppner which call him this way quite often.

Bert Stone was among the unfortunates on Monday morning who built a fire in the cook stove before the pipes were thawed out. The plumber was working overtime on Monday.

W. L. Houston of Portland, visited a few days in Heppner this week with friends. Mr. Houston recently completed his contract with the Lexington school district and as a result that city now has an excellent public school building.

Dr. N. E. Winnard left for Portland Tuesday morning with Martin Lovgreen, who is suffering from a nervous breakdown. Mr. Lovgreen will be placed under the care of a specialist. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

E. K. Wyland, Hardman sheepman, took out a load of baled hay to his ranch from this city on Tuesday. The heavy snow has forced the sheepmen to do much feeding the past several weeks and in some localities the supply of feed is running low.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Farnsworth returned home Sunday from Portland after spending several weeks in the metropolis. As Mr. Farnsworth expressed it, they had to come home in order to get away from the severe weather which is being experienced in Portland at this time.

R. W. Turner, Sand Hollow farmer was in Heppner Saturday on business. Mr. Turner informs us that he is making some improvements on his Piper ranch with the addition of a new barn. His son, Sam, is now farming the place and they are looking forward to an excellent crop this year.

C. C. Robbins, Portland architect, came up from that city Monday to inspect work now being done on the new Masonic building. The chief reason for his visit at this time is to test the heating plant which is now in operation. The new plant will be put through a test lasting twelve days before it is accepted.

Miss Gladys Wattenburger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wattenburger, entertained a number of friends at her home a few nights ago. The evening was spent in the playing of "Rook." Refreshments were served. Those present were Dolly Gosney, Helen Barratt, Marion Long, Odile Groshen, Laurannah Groshen, Gladys Wattenburger, Dale Watkins, James Cowins, Jasper Crawford, Max Rogers, Garnett Barratt and Charles Wattenburger.

John Piper was in the city Friday from his ranch north of Heppner, accompanied by Mrs. Piper. They had a serious accident at their farm home the first of this week, when their cook stove blew to pieces, but fortunately no one was near when the explosion occurred. The explosion was caused by making a fire in the stove before the water pipes had been thawed out, and the stove was literally blown to pieces, according to reports received here.

After Invoice Specials

Our Invoice, just completed, shows us we are overstocked on Meat.

We are offering some No. 1 Country Cured Meats as follows:

Shoulders	-	14c lb.
Hams	-	16c lb.
Bacon	-	17c lb.

Phelps Grocery Co.

WHY HAVE THE GRIPPE?

When you can get a Preventive

HUMPHREYS DRUG CO.

Licensed Embalmer J. L. YEAGER Lady Assistant
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
 Phone Residence Heppner, Oregon

ZERO WEATHER!

Not uncomfortably cold when you have one of our

AIR TIGHT HEATERS

We have exactly what you want

AND FOUR BELOW

When the water pipes are frozen to the point of bursting—the early arrival of our plumber may save you inconvenience and expense.

We carry a complete line of Plumbing Supplies.

GILLIAM & BISBEE
HARDWARE

At Minor & Co.

You now have the opportunity to buy at GREATLY REDUCED PRICES "BALLARD" PANTS

Those big, warm, heavy---"All Wool and a Yard Wide" kind

AND NEAT PATTERNS TOO

Our new cut prices---right in the heart of the winter---should suggest strongly that you call and look at them

See Our Window

MINOR & CO.
 "GOOD GOODS"

Rev. T. S. Handsaker and wife, who are holding evangelistic services at Baker, expect to arrive home about the first of February. A card received from them states that they are having good success with their meeting, in spite of the fact that the severe cold snap has not overlooked Baker.

Frank Engelman and Joe Mason were in the city last night from Ione. Mr. Mason was recently appointed postmaster of the Egg City by President Wilson, although he had previously held the position through civil service examination.

O. M. Whittington was in town yesterday from his farm south of Heppner. He informed us that arrangements for a big dance and supper were being made at his place next Saturday night. Good music is promised for the occasion.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We beg to announce to our many patrons the opening of our up-to-date Optical department under the management of Dr. D. R. Haylor, whose ability is certified by the State board of examiners in Optometry. With three years of practical experience prescribing glasses and one year of special study on the eye, he is enabled to give a thorough and reliable examination for the many errors of refraction the eyes are subject to, to scientifically prescribe and adjust glasses that will give satisfaction. Will permanently locate and have office with Wm. Haylor, Heppner, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barlow were in the city yesterday from their Rhea creek home.

NOTICE.

I have sold the business of the City Meat Market to Johnson & Stover and wish to thank the people of Heppner for their liberal patronage extended to me. All persons owing me on past accounts will confer a favor by settling as soon as possible.
FRANK HALL.

Henry Coats of Eight Mile was visiting with his family in Heppner the first of the week.

MONEY TO LOAN ON FIRST FARM MORTGAGES

E. J. Roberson,
 702 Title & Trust Building,
 Portland, Oregon.

MANY DOLLARS WORTH OF FARM KNOWLEDGE FOR YOU IN EVERY ISSUE OF

WESTERN FARMER
 THE FARMER'S FRIEND

For the past sixteen years the WESTERN FARMER has been fighting the battles of the Pacific Northwest Farmer—from its very inception its advice and counsel has proven the short cut to profits for its readers and the extension of its influence is shown by the fact that

WESTERN FARMER IS READ IN MORE THAN 60,000 OF THE BEST FARM HOMES

This 60,000 circulation is more than double that of any other farm paper in the Pacific Northwest.

Join the ranks of the progressive farmers in this territory. Become a subscriber to Western Farmer now and read the 1916 articles by Western Farmer's special staff of writers pertaining to every branch of farming.

You can get Western Farmer for a whole year, two issues each month, by taking advantage of our special clubbing offer with the

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

Call at the office of The Gazette-Times and learn how to secure both of these splendid papers—The Gazette-Times, which is Heppner and Morrow county's foremost paper and Western Farmer the best edited and most practical farm paper of the Pacific Northwest, at a special clubbing price, or write direct to

WESTERN FARMER PORTLAND OR SPOKANE