MORROW COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER Thursday, March 2, 1916.

COUNTY SCHOOL NOTES

By Supt. S. E. Notson.

Garnet Barratt has sent in his report of his trip to the State Fair, which is given below:

"It was Sept. 26, 1915, just one week after the close of the 3rd Annual Morrow County Fair, that Kenneth Bins and I left Heppner for a one-week trip to the State Fair at Salem, Sept. 27 to Oct. 2. We rode on the local train to Heppner Junction, where we boarded the main line train and rode down the wonderful Columbia to Portland, arriving at 6:30 P. M. We stayed at the home of my uncle that night, and left the next morning for Salem, where we arrived at 10:30. Mr. Harrington met us at the station and took us over to the Boys' Camp, where we found about 10 boys already there. We were taken to the grounds and over of the Educational building, where we met Mr. Maris and Mr. Welles. After this we were taken to dinner and were shown around the buildings, where the work and products of the Oregon Industrial Club boys and girls were located. The rest of the afternoon was spent in getting acquainted with the other boys. The next morning we were called up at 7 o'clock, and went to breakfast at 7:30. Each day after breakfast we had two hours of study on plants and animals, which was very interesting and instructive, and I learned a great deal from this study. Then we had recreation until 11:59 when we went to dinner. After dinner we had another class, lasting one hour, and then recreation until 5:50, during which time we went to the horse races and saw the aeroplane fights. At 7:00 o'clock each evening we went to an entertainment in the Educational building. Roll was called at 9:30, and all were in bed and lights out at 10 P. M.

On Wednesday morning, our camp was composed of 35 boys from all over our great State, and we certainly had a jolly good time all the rest of that week. Each boy had a nickname, and one could hear the names "Rastus," "Rosie," "Kaiser" and others every moment of the day. That afternoon we assembled in the Educational Building and were given a speech by Mr. Griffin on "The Good of Industrial Clubs." His talk was very interesting, and we were all highly pleased with what he said about the work of the clubs and what they are to do for the Oregon boys and girls.

Thursday morning, after the classes were over, Mr. Aker told us that we were to be taken to the State House that afternoon. This excited the boys so much that they could hardly wait until dinner was over, and we could be on our way. But the time soon passed, and we were ready to start. The trip was made in three auto trucks, and we soon arrived at the State House. Here Mr. Welles showed us through the large building and then took us to the Governor's office, where Governor Withycombe gave us a short talk, which I will never forget. After going through the State House, we went through the beautiful grounds over to the Supreme Court building, where we were taken through the State printing office and the other offices in the building. We then started back to the grounds, and soon arrived at camp, greatly impressed with what we had seen and heard.

On Friday afternoon we all had our pictures taken in front of our camp, which was a very good one of the jolly bunch of boys that were in the boys' club work for 1915. Saturday morning was a busy one for all the boys, as it was the day that most of us were to leave for home. Most of the morning was spent in packing our blankets and clothes and in getting the addresses of all the boys in order that we might correspond with each other and not forget the happy week we had spent together.

I am grateful to everyone who helped me have such a good time, as I came home with a far greater idea of what Oregon is and is to be in the future."

NEWS FROM THE IONE COUNTRY

by throwing of field baskets, there being but one foul called, and this was on Heppner. The game was between Ione high school and the Heppner town team.

Miss Nettie Mason, foreman of the Mason farm on Rhea creek, is lamenting the loss estimated at about one thousand dollars, done to their irrigation system by the recent flood grieving over such matters, however, and will proceed to make the necessary repairs in due course of time. Much of the damage would have been prevented, however, had the creek channel above the Mason place been kept clear and in proper shape to carry off the excess water.

The big musical minstrel show will be presented to the lone people on Friday evening, the 3rd, and it gives promise of being one of the best local attractions staged in a long while. It is given under the auspices of the Yeoman, and according to announcement will be the most wonderful aggregation of entertainers ever brought together under one roof. Artists of World Wide Renown Catch songs, funny jokes, pretty girls, handsome men, many beautiful costumes. Spectacular, gorgeous, thrilling, mirth-provoking; can you afford to miss it?

Ed Feldman has arrived from Shaniko, together with his household goods, cow, chickens and Ford, and will henceforth be a citizen of Ione. He comes to take charge of the O. W. R. & N. station here, taking the place of Mr. J. F. Gray, who has been agent for the past two months. Ed is not unknown to many of our people, he having put in four years at Heppner prior to his going to Shaniko where he has been for the past two years. His family will arrive in a few days. Mr. Gray is not located yet, but will go to Portland and expects to be placed before long.

J. H. Blake is home after a sojourn of three months at El Paso, Texas. Johnnie is mighty glad to be back to Eastern Oregon again, and is willing to testify that this is the best place on earth. If you have a desire to get away from here, it might cure you completely to make a visit to the Mexican border and get a taste of what is going on there at present, and what the people there have been putting up with for the past two years. A man's life is not worth much on the border of Texas, Arizona and New Mexico, and Mr. Blake expresses the opinion that the people of these three states have about reached the breaking point in their patience, and may be looked to take up arms against the Mexican brigands and settle this muddle once for all.

EIGHT MILE ITEMS.

Rev. Teague held services at the Eight Mile school house last Sunday. There will be another meeting the second Sunday in March.

Eli Carpenter, from Newport, is visiting with his brother Emmet H., the Eight Mile postmaster.

Oscar Keithley went to Heppner the first of the week after bridge timber to be used in the Rood canyon road. This road has been impassible since the high water.

Mose Ashbaugh, of Hermiston, made this section a visit last week. He is representing the Montereastell Marble Works of Pendleton.

Ben Moore has been visiting friends at Eight Mile the past few days. Ben is just about laid up with rheumatism.

Omar Stanton and family, of Hardman, were visiting at the Chas. Stanton place last Sunday.

John Blake just returned home from an extended visit in the South.

Harry Green, who is working for Dan Barlow, spent Sunday with his brother Homer.

Now is the time to use the split log drag. Once over the roads will do more good now than ten times over after the roads get dry.

Glasses fitted satisfactorily by Dr. Winnard, or money refunded. His prices are reasonable, and he is where you can always find him. No charge for testing eyes.

Delinquent Tax List For 1914.

The following list of real property situated in Morrow County, State of Oregon, is hereby advertised for delinquent taxes assessed for the year 1914. This advertisement is authorized by an act embodied in Chapter 301 of the General Laws of Oregon as passed by the 1913 session of the Legislative Assembly.

The taxes on the following advertised list of real property became delinquent September 1, 1915, and October 1, 1915, and are subject to a penalty of 10 per cent and interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum until the said taxes shall have been paid.

Notice is hereby given that six months after the taxes charged against the following real property first became delinquent the Sheriff is required by law to issue Certificates of Delinquency against the said property for delinquent taxes. The said Certificates of Delinquency shall bear interest at the rate of 15 per cent per annum until the Certificates are redeemed.

Any time after the expiration of three years from the first date of delinquency of any tax included in a Certificate of Delinquency the holder of such Certificate may cause summons to be served on the owner of the property described in the Certificate, notifying the owner that he will apply to the Circuit Court of the county in which such property is situated for a decree foreclosing the lien against the property mentioned in such Certificate.
