THE BEST FROM JUDGE

Diplomats.

"Old Millyuns says that since he made his pile of money he feels like a neutral nation."

"Why is that?"

"Because he has so many diplomatic relations."

The Result of the First Day.

"I had no idea there was such a lot a-going on!" chirped fat little Mrs. Bung of Bung's Corner, as she opened a puffy rapid-fire on Mrs. Tipps, also of the same neighborhood.

"What's it all 'bout, Malissy?" gurgled Mrs. Tipps, her eyes commencing to bulge with excitement. "It's gettin' late, an' I'd a-orter be home this minute fixin' supper of my old man, but lan' sakes, if there's any news—"

"Well, t' begin with, there's a straw-ride t'night, down to Blueport, that Saray Huggins and Jeff Shuckles it a gittin' up, an' a big pile of young folks is a-goin'. Marthy Spiles has been took with another sick spell, and Sol Coker is a-goin' to haul cord wood to-morrow from Tivton—he's got two loads sold to Buzz Lany. Mis' Lawser is a-goin' to have a card party nixt Tuesday night, and 'pears like most everybody in town was axed but me.

"The Spokin boys killed two skunks on Sprague's Lane last night, and has got traps set for a fox they see, but couldn't git a shot at. Park Ginnis is a-goin' to build an addition to his henhouse, and Sophie Meyow has had her pet canary ett up by the tomat.

"Mis' Boskins baked seven loaves of bread this mornin' that riz jist grand and Dolph Ginnis is sorter courtin' Liz Topers, and she with her las' husband hardly morn' cold in the ground—ain't it awful!

"Simp Sketers found ten cents in the gutter near the post-office, an' Buzz Nut claims it's hissen, and that he lost it there nigh on three year ago. Nink Garboo skinned his hand in th' door—tryin' to dodge his wife most likely! Malissy Loomis made two gingham aprons a few days back. Lud Bobbins caught four rats in one trap las' night and Skid Liddy he—"

"For the lan' sakes, Mis' Bung, where'd you git all the news?" "Why, Bessie Tubbs, what's got the Central job at out new tellyphone exchange jist told me. They started up th' exchange this mornin', you know!"

Indications.

When the sunlight warm and cheery
Makes your winter clothes look weary,
And your heavy winter underwear begins to cling;

When the garden's mammoth ash pile
Marks the tomb of last fall's cash pile,
And the dicky birds and bards begin to sing;

When the women's clothes grow brighter
And the clouds and bills grow lighter,
Then its pretty safe to gamble that it's spring.

Her Admission.

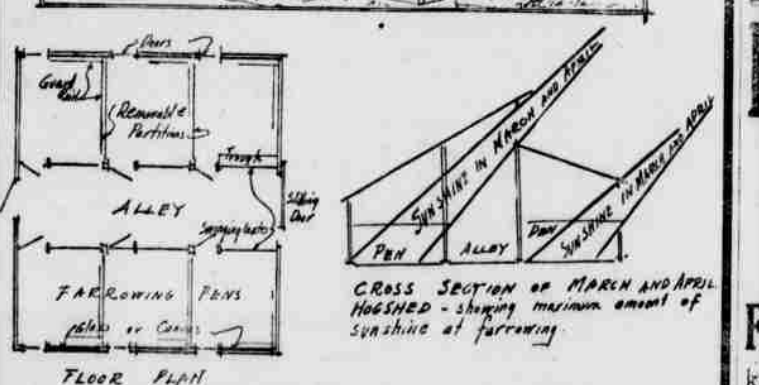

He—Do you believe in preparedness?

She—Well, I wouldn't mind being in arms.—Jester.

From Grass Valley Journal, Dec. 17, 1915, Grass Valley, Oregon

J. M. Taylor Building Modern Hog House Near Grass Valley

HOG SHED (Farrowing Pens) N. 331 - A 259

In erecting the buildings shown above, Mr. J. M. Taylor shows a progressive spirit which is daily becoming more noticeable among our farmers, and at the same time he becomes the owner of what is probably the finest Hog house in Sherman County. The building will be 23 x 70 feet and will contain 20 rood sized pens exclusive of the outside runways. Mr. Taylor is now busy hauling the "Tum-A-Lumber" of which it will be constructed and it will be built according to Tum-A-Lum plans of what is called their March and April Farrowing Pens. Such features as guard rails for the protection of small pigs, removable side partitions, front partitions, hinged to swing back from troughs for feeding and cleaning, hog doors leading to outside pens—these will appeal to any practical hog raiser. The most distinctive feature is the arrangement of the windows. They are of such size and elevation, that when the building is faced to the south, in this latitude, the hogs will receive full benefit of all the March and April sunshine.

When you need two-vision lenses—be sure to get KRYPTOK LENSES

(Worn by over 250,000 people)

For in all other two-vision lenses there is a line or seam between the near and far vision portions that makes the wearer look less than his best, and unmistakably brands him or her with a sign of age.

Kryptok are double-vision lenses that look exactly like regular one-vision lenses because there are no lines or seams in them.

Dr. Winnard can supply these lenses
Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.
