TIME TO ACT

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness. Profit by Heppner People's Experiences.

Occasional attacks of headache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are frequent symptoms of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect these ills. The attacks may pass off for a time but generally return with greater intensity. Don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up their use until the desired results are obtained. Good work in Heppner proves the effectiveness of this great kidney remedy.

E. L. Berry, painter, Main St., Heppner, says: "My kidneys were weak and my back was so painful that I was obliged to walk all stooped over. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills made a cure. During the past few years there has been no sign of the trouble."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mr. Berry. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

WHITE WYANDOTTE EGGS FOR HATCHING—$1.50 for setting of 15 eggs. W. CLAUDE COX.

Frank Turner returned the last of the week from Echo, where he had gone to look over the shearing situation. He expects to begin shearing the woolies about the last of the week. He will be associated again with Ed Wilcox.

E. J. Fox returned Sunday evening from Portland, where he spent a few days on business and pleasure. He reports that business in Portland is picking up rapidly and that especially in the timber industry there is considerable activity.

Emery Hatt has resigned his position as freight clerk at the O.-W. R. & N. depot and will go to Portland where he expects to secure a job as a trainman. His place has been taken at the depot by Mr. Douglas, a brother-in-law of E. J. Starkey.

Nearly one hundred Oregonians gathered at the Buhl Opera House in Buhl, Idaho, last Saturday, according to the Buhl Herald, to celebrate for the first time "Oregon Day" An organization was also perfected. From the registration, Morrow county is represented by Ernest Marquardsen, J. H. Barker and Mrs. R. R. Duran.

Albert Zigenhagen, who for the past year has been employed as meat cutter at the Peoples' Cash Market, went to The Dalles Tuesday. Mr. Zigenhagen expects to be married soon and after that event, he and Mrs. Zigenhagen will travel over the Northwest on their honeymoon. He is undecided as to whether or not he will return to Heppner.

Rev. T. S. Handsaker and wife and son Gene, departed Monday morning for their new home in San Diego, California. An informal farewell gathering of their many friends was held in honor of the Handsakers at the First Christian church on Friday evening, when they were presented with many beautiful and useful gifts.

W. D. Newlon, the man who demonstrated there is an area of artesian water in Morrow county, is in Pendleton on business. His successful experiment was greeted as marking a new era for Morrow county and he is not through yet. He is now engaged in drilling a second well, and if it proves successful, he will drill a third to complete his theory of the area in which there is abundant artesian water. Mr. Newlon is an old friend of Senator Cummins, presidential prospect, and is watching with interest his campaign. However, while wishing his old friend well, he expresses the hope that President Wilson will win in a walkaway.—Pendleton E. O.

Wise Constituent.

A congressman received almost daily letters from a constituent asking for garden seed, with emphasis on peas. The demand for peas got so heavy that the congressman was moved to write this letter: "I am sending you a half dozen more packages of peas as requested. Say, what are you trying to do down there, plant the whole state in peas?" The reply came a few days later. It read: "No, I'm not planting them, but they make bully good soup. Send along some more."—Kansas City Star.

His Honor Was in Error.

Mose Ham was arrested for "loud and uproarious language" and "disturbing the peace." Judge Biles read the document in the case, and then turned to the black-as-ebony prisoner.

"Mose Ham," said he, "you are charged with shouting, groaning, crying aloud in the night, lamentations, impure language, cursing, swearing, breaking the peace, and general noisy conduct not befitting a citizen. What have you to say?"

"Des dis, Jedge, dey ain't no spoeer dat de truf; all I had wuz er slight visitation ov religion. Ef I talked loud, jedge, hit wuz becauz I'm farther away from the Lawd dan mos' folks."—Case and Comment.
