HEPPNER 25 YEARS AGO

From the Gazette of April 30, 1891.
Three four-horse loads of wood from Canyon City arrived this week. This is the first of the season from that vicinity.
Minor Bros. are desirous of buying up a car load of Morrow county potatoes for Nebraska markets. Our potatoes are finding great favor in Eastern states.
The work on the Main street bluff near our home ranch, is progressing rapidly, with a large force of hands at work under the direction of Marshal Rasmus. A ledge of basalt comes to the surface at this point, and the boom of the blasts are heard daily.
Henry Heppner will shortly begin construction of a brick on the site of the old store building.
It was a Dakota editor who wrote: "The price of our paper is not advanced by the McKinley bill, but we wish to correct the misapprehension of some subscribers who appear to think that it was placed on the free list."
E. G. Locke left a peculiar petrification at the Gazette office yesterday. It is nothing more or less than a toad, just as natural as life. It was discovered in the heart of the core taken out by the diamond drill at the head of Butter creek at a depth of 100 feet below the surface. It will be kept at the Gazette Office for a few weeks where the public is invited to call and inspect it, after which it will be sent to the Smithsonian Institute at Washington.

$25 FOR A NAME.

Help us find a suitable name for our butter and we will send you a check for $25. Try to embody in your suggestion something of the richness of flavor, the healthful wholesomeness of acres of clover blossoms which tend to give the mellow richness, and sweet-smelling goodness to our quality table butter.

THE NORMAN CREAMERY CO.

is anxious for all householders in Heppner to enjoy the pleasure of its new product, of which it is justly proud. This butter is made for Eastern Oregon people by Eastern Oregon industry, therefore it is fitting the residents of this section should decide upon a name for the new product.
