HUMPHREYS ENDORSED FOR TREASURER

Copeland Unmercifully Snowed Under For School Superintendent—Present Officials Are Re-Nominated.—Small Vote Cast.

T. J. Humphreys of the Humphreys Drug Co., came out victor in the three-cornered race for the republican nomination for county treasurer at the primary election last Friday. In many of the precincts it was nip and tuck, while in others, one of the three had a walk-away. The results show that Humphreys carried 9 out of 17 precincts, Borg 6 and Wilkins 2. The final result was Humphreys 391, Borg 246 and Wilkins 176.

It developed that both G. A. Bleakman and E. L. Padberg stand strong with their home folks. Bleakman, in his home precinct, Dairy, got nearly all the votes. He received 110 and Mr. Padberg received 5. Likewise in South Ione, Mr. Padberg's home precinct, the present county commissioner received 90 votes while Mr. Bleakman got only 3. The result totaled 457 votes for Padberg and 332 for Bleakman. Padberg carried 12 precincts and Bleakman 5.

For endorsement for county clerk, J. A. Waters beat Fred Tash 580 to 244 and has the distinction of carrying every precinct in the county. The closest result was in Dairy precinct (Hardman) where the final count was 58 to 59 in favor of Waters. Mr. Tash formerly lived in this precinct.

The republican party did not care to give anything to Herbert W. Copeland, who sought the nomination for county school superintendent. The result of the race between Copeland and Lena Snell Shurte reveals the only real land slide of the election. The slide was so complete that the socialistic eye doctor has not been heard of since. The result was, Copeland 120, Mrs. Shurte 376.

George McDuffee was unopposed for sheriff nomination and received the high complimentary vote of 718, more than any other one candidate received. Loy M. Turner, unopposed, received a total of 716 votes and S. E. Notson for district attorney, was the recipient of 708 votes. M. L. Case received his party's endorsement for coroner. For county central committeemen, the following were nominated: Paul Rietmann, North Ione; J. T. Knappenberg, South Ione; C. E. Woodson, Mt. Vernon; T. J. Mahoney Heppner and George J. Currin, Gentry precinct.

Only about half of the 1500 registered voters appeared at the polls on Friday to exercise their rights and privileges. Why this lack of interest prevailed is inexplicable. We predict a greater interest in the November election.

The democratic election in this county was a tame affair. Besides nominating Jeff Jones for sheriff and Hanson Hughes for treasurer, the democrats also endorsed J. A. Waters for clerk, Mrs. Lena Snell Shurte for school superintendent, S. E. Notson for district attorney and Loy M. Turner for surveyor.

About 155 votes were cast by the Democrats in this county, Woodrow Wilson having received that many. Delegates to the Democratic National Convention received support in Morrow county in the following order: A. S. Bennett 115, J. W. Morrow 97, W. L. Morgan 84, Thomas H. Crawford 83, Frank L. Armittage 74, Drake C. O'Reilly 28, Helen I. Tomlinson 22.

For second district delegates, Will M. Peterson received 75, M. R. Biggs 68, Will R. King 64, Fred J. Holmes 54, Charles E. Worden 8.

For vice-president of the United States, Elliott W. Major 48 and Thos. R. Marshall 95.

For presidential electors O. P. Cobshaw 124, John H. Stevenson 120, Daniel W. Sheehan 121, Bert E. Haney 118, Porter J. Neff 117.

A decision has been handed down in the supreme court by Justice Burnett in the case of A. K. Higgs vs. George McDuffee, sheriff of Morrow county, appellant, appealed, involving the foreclosure of a mortgage; in which judgment for the plaintiff has been affirmed.

Miss Ella D. Funk of Spokane is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Georget Thomson in this city. Miss Funk was instructor in music in the local school a few years ago.

Vawter Crawford and Frank Cronan came up from Ione Wednesday evening, making the trip in Mr. Cronan's car.

IONE IS THE SCENE OF MUCH ACTIVITY

The week has been a busy one, up to date, with the pupils of the Ione schools, all the fuss and hub bub being incident to the closing days, when it is now considered the proper thing to have "something doing" other than close attention to studies, the last week. So both teachers and students have been hard pressed in the preparation of special exercises and the presenting of diplomas. The first order was the graduation of the pupils from the eighth grade on Friday evening. For this event the Yeoman hall was very appropriately decorated with green boughs and locust blossoms, and over the stage stood out in striking letters the class motto: "Our Hope, to Win—Our Aim, Success." From this department of the school a class of twelve bright boys and girls have graduated, and each one has received their papers permitting them to pass on into the High School grades. An appropriate program, especially prepared for the occasion, was carried out as follows:

Music.....Ione Orchestra
Invocation.....Rev. J. L. Jones
Vocal Solo.....Miss Doris Wilt
Oration....."Eighth Grade Graduate"
Jean Davis.

Vocal Solo.....Zelma Engelman
Essay, "Early Oregon,".....Mary Bacon
Bell Solo.....Chas. Chick
Address.....Prof. Lyman
Benediction.....Rev. Jones

The presentation of diplomas at this time was postponed owing to the fact that the grades of the pupils had not been received.

We should be pleased to comment at length on this program, as it was very excellent throughout. These eighth grade pupils will be heard of as they progress in the higher grades, and it would be indeed a pleasant fact to chronicle in the future their graduation as a class from the High School without a break in their numbers. The hall was crowded to witness these exercises.

Friday evening came the class play, "Blundering Billy," offered by the members of the Senior class to a packed house. The cast was as follows: Billy Butler, Harley Sperry, who carried out the character of "Blundering Billy" in a very natural and satisfactory manner, always doing the wrong thing at the right time; Ezra Tuttle, Colorado cattleman having a large fortune and a beautiful daughter, and very desirous of breaking into swell society. This at the last moment, owing to the severe illness of Jesse Dobyns; Lieut. Griswold, Mearl Blake, a handsome young soldier seeking the hand of the cattleman's daughter—somewhat of an adventurer and the rival of "Blundering Billy"; Mr. Blake did his part well; Sing Toy, Chinese servant who looked the part as well as acting it to the delight of all, proving to be just about as big a blunder as Billy; Hank Dibble, a sailor boy, George Zink, who did not seem to appreciate the love-making of the grass-widow, from his own account; Dorothy Tuttle, pretty daughter of Ezra Tuttle, who was determined to marry the man of her own choice and foiled the schemes of her father and the lieutenant. This was the part played by Catherine Jones, who thoroughly comprehended the character and greatly pleased the audience; Clarissa Burnham, beautiful grass widow and adventuress, former wife of Lieut. Griswold, was the part well sustained by Ruth Petteys, and Woyo San, Japanese girl, was played by Goldie Stoops, who might have been taken for a real lady of the Flowery Kingdom. The play was well presented

Beals, head of the weather service in Portland, who is making a tour of Eastern Oregon, reports to the Portland papers that wire worms are doing considerable damage to crops in the Condon section. HEPPNER AND LEXINGTON BREAK EVEN

Heppner and Lexington broke even in the second annual tennis tournament held in Lexington last Friday. Heppner high boys winning both the double and single matches and the Lexington high school girls winning both events from the Ione and Heppner high school girls. Ione was eliminated all the way around. For Lexington the girls were represented in the doubles by Leona Leach and Miss Bauman, and in the singles by Miss Bauman. Lexington had very little trouble in winning from Heppner in this event. Daisy Barlow and Neva Hayes played in the girls' doubles for Heppner. Miss Hayes fell a victim to the accurate serves and swift returns of Miss Bauman in the singles. However, Ione, represented by Zelma Engelman and Sybil Cason, in the doubles, gave the Lexington team a harder run but were not able to win a set. Miss Cason, in the singles, lost again to Miss Bauman.

The boys' doubles and singles were fought out fast and furious. Henry Peterson and Vawter Crawford, Jr. for Heppner, defeating Arthur Campbell and Carl Allyn of Lexington before taking on Lee Howell and Chas. Chick of Ione. In the singles Kennon Smith defeated both Campbell of Lexington and Howell of Ione.

Wm. Haylor left for Portland this morning on a business trip and to meet friends coming from the East.

Dance Next Tuesday.

The Fair Board will stage a grand ball at the Fair Pavilion next Tuesday evening. Bowker's orchestra of Portland will be here to furnish the music. Tickets are being sold at $1.00.

HUGHES CARRIES OREGON BY 15,000

Olcott Endorsed For Secretary of State and H. H. Corey, of Salem, Wins Nomination Over Ed Wright For Public Service Commissioner.

Chas. E. Hughes of New York, and a member of the supreme court bench of the United States, received the Republican nomination in Oregon for president, getting a majority of the votes cast. Albert B. Cummins, of Iowa, was second and Theodore E. Burton, of Ohio, a poor third. The result of the election in Oregon has added a great impetus to the Hughes boom in the East and he is now considered a stronger, although ever the same silent candidate for the great national convention next month in Chicago.

In Morrow county Justice Hughes carried, with but one exception, every precinct. The exception was Irrigon, which went for Cummins 13 to 11 with only one vote for Burton. His majority over the state will exceed 15,000. Theodore E. Roosevelt has received the progressive endorsement.

Ben W. Olcott, present incumbent, won over Chas. B. Moores, the other republican candidate for the secretary of state nomination by 15,000 votes. In Morrow county Olcott received 362 votes to his opponent's 333.

As predicted before the primaries, the closest race developed in the contest for the public service nomination. H. H. Corey, present secretary of the commission, has apparently won out over Ed Wright, of La Grande, his nearest opponent. The others finished in order named, McCulloch, Kyle, Service and Rusk. In Morrow county Wright was first with 162, Kyle second with 153 and Service third with 135. Corey received 94 votes, McCulloch 77 and Rusk 60.

Berl Gurdane Loses His Car By Fire.

Berl Gurdane lost his Havre roadster by fire on the road ten miles from Wasco last Sunday. At the time of the disaster, Mr. Gurdane was on his way to The Dalles. After the fire had completed its work there was nothing left of the car but the two front wheels. Mr. Gurdane carried some insurance on the car so his loss is not a total one. He believes the fire started under the engine. It developed so suddenly that his trousers were burned about his shoe tops before he could slow down the car and jump out. Mr. Gurdane has not yet decided whether he will buy a new car.
